SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $1 YEAR

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

Entered April 23, 1903 at Pickens, S. C. as second class mail matter, under act of Congress of March 3, 1879

Established 1871 - Volume 44

PICKENS, S. C., JULY 23, 1914

NUMBER 11

Senatorial Candidates Spoke To Big Crowd Here Friday

teen hundred reople heard the cates for voting in the primary, candidates for United States but he did not think it possible senate speak here last Friday. for any one but a Bleasite to be-during his iliness and death. Though the weather was threat-come Governor. ening the majority of the crowd Another angle of attack was paign opened. The Sentinel is be seen to that all these were proud of the general conduct of anti-Blease men. is the best county in this great ers at the conclusion of his cond Saturday in August. Meetstate. The only regret we have speech. is that every one of the audience | L. D. Jennings was the last on Friday night before the secdid not remain to hear the speaker and devoted the major ond Sunday in August. speech of Mr. Jennings, who, portion of his time to a discus- Last Monday evening, July undoubtedly made the best sion of the governor's record. 13, 1914, the spirit of B. B. Barspeech of the day. While we This speaker got one of the ker passed to its eternal reward.

here at the time expected and it he appealed to his audience. was 11 o'clock before the speak- He told the Pickens voters bad been living in this section ing commenced. In the mean-that he admired the governor about 18 years. He leaves a time the county treasurer's of- for his frankness.

the records of his opponents merits of the particular case. references; that he would not has come when our jury system hand to the distressed and needy. He was buried the day follow-Senator Smith's record, declar- ernor." the speaker added. he (Blease) would not attempt the present system?" These to do so. In connection with were some of the questions the Governor's pardon record the which the speaker put to his speaker referred to the pardon hearers.

referred to the appointment on be disfranchised, as the chief the Governor's staff of J. Preston executive had charged, if all his Gibson. James Sottile and Ed. friends had enrolled, as the govwin Hirsch, calling them "a ernor claimed. sweet bunch" to be saluted by Mr. Jennings urged all the militia of the state. He told the citizens to get together for the stay on the ground and when it turned people that they were being lined good of South Carolina, saying turtle a mile up in the air I woke went for Blease. Senator Smith, in replying to and decency. the attack of Mr. Pollock, waxed somewhat humorous and Greenville Man brought several hearty laughs from the crowd. He said Mr. Pollock paid him the compliment of saying he had talked cotton in the senate. The senator caused some merriment at the expense of his other "pieces in the tour through the Piedof lawyers" opponents, declar- mont broke at Greenville Saturing he was going back to the day, and for a few moments at Senate despite "the world, the least converted the political flesh, the devil and these law- camp into a surging, struggling, his cotton speech, reviewing his enough looking question was work in and out of the senate the cause of the explosion, for the farmers. He told of the which has been threatening fight he had made against the several days.

which he wrote and which of the Norwood National bank, Before the conclusion of Senator Smith's speech it started to rain and Charles Lyon, sheriff of Abbeville county, held an umbrella over him. Senator Smith was interrupted by a gray haired farmer who presented him with a mi ature bale of cotton on behalf of the "farmers of Pickens county." The Senator gracefully and sentimentaly acknowledged the

at the conclusion of which he was presented a wreath of beau-tiful flowers. speaker and was given hearty who sprang between. It was applause by his followers. a report he said had been circu- down the ten-foot steps, it related that he charged a man five quiring the combined efforts of dollars for the priv lege of see half a dozen stalwart men to ing his wife who was in the In- keephim from breaking through full of affection. sane Asylum, and called upon and getting to the governor. the man who circulated the re- From all sides the audience when I am around. port to say that he had done the closed in and Mr. Norwood was Governor an injustice. The pressed back in a struggling but it has to be squeezed out of me. party doing so. The Governor mass equally determined to get also denied another report which into the melee. Nobody was he said had been circulated that badly hurt, though many of he had pardoned a negro who those in the mixup were struck was serving thirty years for at with fists about the face and tempted criminal assault. He breast. said another negro of same name, convicted of assault and The Best Medicine in the World battery, had been pardoned, and read the names of several prom-

A gathering of twelve or fif- requiring registration certifilistened to all the candidates, taken on the primary rules. There was no d'sorder. Blease again today. The governor said red badges were much in evi- that in the general election the governor appoints the commis-The large crowd was very sioners and these in turn aporderly and it is to the credit of point the managers. According the people of Pickens county to the new primary rules the that considering its size this was executive committee appoints the best behaved audience the managers of the primary which has assembled to hear and the governor said that it the candidates since the cam- would be seen to that it would the people of our county at this Blease was given a great meeting, and we know better broad-brimmed Panama hat, are requested to meet at the than ever that Pickens county and a wreath of beautiful flow- church on Friday before the sec-are not supporting this candi- most attentive hearing given Mr. Barker was confined to his date for office, fairness forces us during the campaign, because to "hand it to him." because of the tactful, broad minded plicated diseases. He bore his The candidates did not arrive and reasonable manner in which sufferings and never murmured.

The meeting was called to order by County Chairman G. F. Norris and Rev. D. W. Hiott offered a prayer. W. P. Pollock was the first speaker.

Speaker added, but I don't section, W. F. Barker of Oconee county, A. B. Barker of Alabama, J. S. Barker of Calhoun, and his sister. Mrs. N. S. McGill of Roosevelt, Ga. Mr. Barker had been married twice, his first wife heing a daughter of W. A. B. Barker of Oconee county. A. B. Barker of Oconee county, A. B. Barker of Oconee county. A. B. Barker of Oconee county. A. B. Barker of Oconee county. A. B. Barker of Alabama, J. S. Barker of Calhoun, and his sister. Mrs. N. S. McGill of Roosevelt, Ga. Mr. Barker of Alabama, J. S. Barker of Calhoun, and his sister. Mrs. N. S. McGill of Roosevelt, Ga. Mr. Barker of Oconee county. A. B. Barker of Alabama, J. S. Barker of Calhoun, and his sister. Mrs. N. S. McGill of Roosevelt, Ga. Mr. Barker of Alabama, J. S. Barker of Calhoun, and his sister. Mrs. N. S. McGill of Roosevelt, Ga. Mr. Barker of Oconee county. A. B. Barker of Calhoun, and his sister. Mrs. N. S. McGill of Roosevelt, Ga. Mr. Barker of Oconee county. A. B. Bark He opened by saving that all the testimony knew more wife being a daughter of W. A. he had never visited Pickens about the justice of the sentence Fortner of this section. The before, he had served in the imposed than the governor, cer- widow who now mourns his legistature with some of the tainly more than those who death was Miss Lina Lankford of best citizens of Pickens county. sign petitions promiscuously, Marietta. Mr. Barker will be He declared that in presenting without any knowledge as to the greatly missed from his com-insult. He paid his respects to is your duty to vote for the gov- ing death at Pleasant Grove long about, Mr. Pollock reviewed more years?" the speaker asked. tives and friends mourn his Gov. Blease's record, saying it _ "Is a man's life safe now? death. May the Lord's blessings contained so many things the Is your property safe? Is a wo- comforthis family in this sorrow. Governor could not explain that man's virtue protected under of "Portland Ned" and read a In defending the new primary parody on "Old King Cole," rules, Mr. Jennings asked how which amused the crowd. He the governor's friends were to "Tm up with "dagoes" when they he wanted it understood that he bathed in a cold perspiration." was on the side of law, order

Made For Blease

The tension which has held the senatorial party all the way He then launched into howling mob. One innocent

When the governor was speakwall street "gang" and the bill regulating the cotton exchange ing, J. W. Norwood, president said to be the second wealthiest bank in the State, asked the chief · xecutive:

"How about Dr. McIntosh?" The governor's answer was: When I get to Columbia I expect to request Dr. MeIntosh to take a seat on the stand. I'll answer that question then and not behind his back as a coward like you."

Calling the chief executive a 'damned liar." Mr. Norwood swept aside the policemen standgift, then resumed his speech, ing beside the little swinging gates to the inclosed stand and a flyin' squirrel. rushed toward the governor, fighting his way against other C. L. Blease was the third rolicemen and State detectives with difficulty that the infuriat-Governor Blease declared false | ed man was forced backward

"My little girl had dysentery inent Pickens citizens who asked very bad. I thought she would for the pardon. "As long as die Chamberlain's Colic, Cholthat class of men asks me to do era and Diarrhoea Remedy cured anything I'm going to do it," her, and I can truthfully say opher. declared the Governor. The that I think it is the best medi-Governor predicted that if an Anti-Ble ase Governor is elected this year a law will be passed sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Interpolate the best medical form of the world, writes Mrs. William Orvis, Clare, Mich, For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Interpolate the G. P. "Free of all responsibility and equal to not less than three square meals a day."

Life.

Pleasant Grove News

We had a good rain July 15. Mrs. J. P. Anders, who has peen very sick for some time, is improving.

W. M. Davis of Norris spent several days with Mr. Barker

Prayer meeting at this place every Saturday night at early candle light. Everybody is invited to attend.

Greg T. Mauldin, candidate for county auditor, was through this section last week shaking hands and making friends

Dan Barker of Greenville spent several days with his uncle, B. B. Barker, during his sickness and was at his bedside when he

Friends who are interested in the Pleasant Grove graveyard ing will commence at this place

He was 50 years of age and has widow and four sons, five brothfice was appropriated as temporary headquarters of the supporters of the governor.

"You can always tell where the governor stands," the governor stands," the governor stands, but I don't section, W. P. Barker of Oconee speaker added, but I don't section, W. P. Barker of Oconee munity. He was always ready he would not make personal "If you believe that the time and willing to lend a helping church. The funeral was coning, however, that the Senator "What will be the result of ducted by Rev. J. E. Foster, the had not enough record to talk this method, if continued four pastor. A large circle of rela-

HARROWING EXPERIENCE.

"Good morning, Wiggers." "Good morning, Dobbs. How are

"I'm not feeling well. I had a nightmare last night." "Tell me about it."

"I dreamed I was riding in my own automobile." "That isn't so bad."

"But this blamed machine wouldn't

The American Girl. "There's something very simple and charming and direct about the American girl," said Bishop Blougram at a dinner in Seattle.

"Once, in the far west, I married a pretty American girl to a cowboy. "'Do you take this man for better or worse?' I asked her in the wonted

"She shrugged her supple shoulders. "'I can't tell till I've had him awhile,' she said."

Squirrel-Please, sir, can I git into the Ancient Order of Aviators? Owl-On what grounds? Squirrel-I got an ancestor what was Like a Drunken Sailor. He is a seasoned pilot. But when he's "half-seas-over," He cannot navigate.

Wondered If It Were a Hint. Mr. Slowboy-It seems to me that you are rather cold and indifferent. Miss Wise-On the contrary, I am

Mr. Slowboy-It doesn't reveal itself Miss Wise-It's there, just the same;

Little to Lose. "They tell me," said Mr. Bobbetts, "that the automobile is absolutely destructive of humility."

tion," said the rural sage. "They ain't so much humility left in the land these days that the loss of it'll come to much."-Judge. Jefferson Was Right.

"Wa-al, that ain't much of an objec-

"Do you truly and honestly believe in all these saucers?" that all men are born free and equal?" Mother, we girls are trying to find asked Jimpson of the genial philos- out whom we are going to marry."

DAY DREAMS!

Buying for Two. poor woman called at a public f porter. It was measured off ato her gallon jug. She then asked . r another quart, to be put into the same vessel.

"And why not ask for half a gallon and be done with it?" "Och, bless your soul, it's for two persons.'

Matter Not Mentioned. "In the stone age," said Mr. Meekton, in tones that trembled a little, "a man proposed by hitting a woman with a hammer."

"Yes!" replied his wife, with a steely glare, "but they are careful not to say what happened after they went to housekeeping and the woman got her hands on a few crude but hefty cooking utensils."

His Revenge. "Come on up to the house for dinner, old man." "No, not tonight. Your wife won't

"That's just why I want you to any market." come. Whenever she's done anything I don't like I always get even by taking some one she doesn't expect home to dinner."

NOT PARTICULAR.

"Do you think your sister would like to slide downhill with me?" "Surest thing, you know. She's so fond of sliding downhill, she don't care who she's with."

For the Dude. I'm a little cigarette: My flame you cannot smother. I've a spark upon one end And a vacuum on the other.

"When a railroad is completed they always drive a golden spike at the

"What of it?" "When the English militants get the ballot I s'pose they will signalize the finish of the campaign by throwing a gold-plated brick through a stained glass window."

Charitable. "Did you read where an explorer had discovered a fur bearing fish in the Arctic regions?"

"No, but I think it was excusable." "For a fish to wear furs?" "No, for a man to discover one. They must have to drink something to keep from freezing."

"Why have you flour and molasses

PRIDE OF THE NATION.

S. S. Shubert, the theatrical manager, was praising the American chor-"She is not only prettier," said Mr.

Shubert, "than her English or French or Italian sister, but she is also brighter, gayer, wittier. It's a pleasure to hear her talk. "Two chorus girls were lunching near me the other day. Their skirts were slashed, and they wore those smart new-fangled shoes that fasten with ribbon-narrow ribbon running in criss-cross up their long, slim, silk-"'I've got no use for your rah-rah college boy,' said the first chorus girl, swinging her shapely foot in and out of her slashed skirt. 'He reminds me of a china doll.' Why?' asked the other girl. cause he's so pink and pretty?"

"'No,' said the first chorus girl. 'Be cause he gets broke so soon.'

IN THE BARNYARD.

"Look! Did you ever see anything sweeter than those little ducklings?" "H'm! Worth about 15 cents a pound, and my chicks will bring 20 in

> A Distinction. "I cannot tell the 'b' from 'd' " Sobbed seven-year-old Jack. "The 'd' has got," his sister said, > "Its tummy on its back."

Too Hazardous. "And you refuse to act as guide for me this season?" "Just nachelly got to refuse." "I paid you well last season, did I

"Ain't got no kick on the pay, and you didn't hit me oncet, but didn't you just say you had been practicing shooting during the summer?"

Oh, to Be Like Him! Mrs. Newlywed-Henry, do you remember Jack Watson? Well, he has just been married, and to a girl of absolutely no family at ail.

Mr. Newlywed (looking sadly around at the collection of his wife's relatives)-"A-a-a-h-h me! Some men do have good luck .- Puck.

"Is there any way to let these city hunters kill a deer without hurting each other?" asked one guide. "Not as I know of," answered the other, "unless you turn 'em loose with blank cartridges and give the deer a chance to laugh himself to death."

WILLING.

"Say, Willie, I'm going your way. Would you mind giving me a lift?" "Sure. Git in front of me sled and let me get a good start."

Physiological Note.

As many times as Margeson had called on Kitty Elsler he had never ventured to quesing the sister who sat sewing so quietly in the next Often he had wondered at the constant plying of reserve prevented him asking if it was the usual trousseau she was working on.

the vivacious Kitty, Margeson's eyes the government is working for immewandered to the gold-crowned head of diate peace in Mexico. the girl in the other room. The light | The administration is convinced under which she embroidered cast her that, with the elimination of Huerta, head into brilliant relief against the the factions in Mexico wil be drawn shadowed tapestry of her high-backed together quickly. To assure restora-

"One would think my little sister was going to be a German housewife little laugh. "It almost flings me into powers. nervous prostration to see her se industrious."

the lucky man might be, yet he real- the revolution in Southern Mexicaized that if confidence was not offered him he had no right to seek it.

to the young man himself. It was not until Kitty announced her engagement to Dick Halsey that Margeson really became acquainted with

The rejected suitor found himself escorting Molly to all the theaters parties, dances and picnics given in honor of the engaged pair. When the great wedding took place it was he who acted as best man, while Molly was the maid of honor. "We want good-looking attendants!" Kitty had laughingly said. "You and Molly are an ideal pair." "I wish we were a pair," sighed Margeson, when, after the ceremony, he and Molly stepped into the tiny brougham to drive back for the wedding breakfast. "I don't believe you feel so dread-riage," ventured Molly. "I am not," ventured Margeson. "But there is another wedding coming off one of the days that will mean the end of the world to me."

Molly glanced swiftly at him, and a delicate color suffused her cheeks. "You seem to be more or less unfortunate in your selections," she said, because she was scarcely aware of what was behind his serious eyes.

The remainder of the drive was vaguely troubled both for Molly and Margeson. He, believing her to be engaged, refrained from adding to his ing his drive home with his sister Vein Coal Company near Fort Smith expressed unwillingness to attempt to that Margeson was really enlightened to the state of affairs. took a fancy to Kitty when that adorable sister of her's was anywhere in the horizon!" Margeson's sister said frankly. She was more or less star- in the fighting, which began shortly York to have the New Haven distled at the dull color that swept into after day break and continued until solved under the Sherman anti-trust her brother's face.

"Molly would make ten of Kitty, in my estimation," she added. "Evidently that is what some lucky fellow thought," muttered Margeson.

"What do you mean?" his sister with torch and explosives. turned questioning eyes on him. "Molly has been engaged ever since I met her." "Molly engaged! To whom?"

"I don't know to whom," explained Margeson. "Then how do you know she is engaged?" queried Ethel.

"Well-she sits sewing all the time and Kitty hinted that it was a dower chest she was making," Margeson said a trifle unsteadily. Ethel cast a swift glance at her brother. "Goose!" she said affectionately. That was just Kitty's way of keeping you boys to herself-by giving the impression that Molly was already taken."

Margeson was a man of rather quick action when once his mind was made up. He drove home, however, with his sister before returning to the Elsler He found Molly still in the soft pink maid-of-honor frock. She glanced up in surprise when Margeson was shown into the drawing room. "Molly," said Margeson, "I have been under the impression that you were engaged all this time. Are you?"

"Not that I am aware of," laughed Molly with a swift blush. Margeson drew nearer and put his arms closely about her. "I love you, girl," he told her, "and I could not possibly wait while you anyway."

Chemist's Cocktail.

Modern organic chemistry has a language of its own. The following is an example from a recent article: "The dianhybride of 1.8.4.5-napthalenetetracarboxylic acid was heated for three hours at 170 degrees C with four times its weight of the diethyl-ester of malonic acid, together with twice its weight of zinc chloride, whereby 5.10diketo-3.8-dihydroxypyrene was formed

WITHIN TWO WEEKS

WASHING TREATS WITH ZEPATA TO LEAD HIM FROM RE-BELLION.

WANT CARABAJAL TO RESIGN CARBAJAL TAKES OFFICE

the needle, yet And New President is Willing to Give Washington .- Every influence and While talking with diplomatic agency at the disposal of tion of normal conditons without further bloodshed, officials here are exerting themselves to smooth the from the amount of embroidery she way for a new and stable administradoes," Kitty had once said with a tion which shall be recognized by the Not only is the American government at this moment counseling Genmuch for us," Margeson had commented on one occasion.

"Evidently she profess we want to care erange franza to arrange with Frantees reported accepting the resignation in the following terms:

"A which I We seem to care
the peaceful resignation in the following terms:

"A which I We seem to care
the resignation in the following terms: "Evidently she prefers weaving ment at Mexico to the Constitu-dreams into her dower chest," laughed tionalists, but it beek known the known the administration is indire in com-Again Margeson longed to ask who munication with Zapata, Teader of Zapata has 24,000 men, and though most of them are poorly equipped So through the evenings of a long they would constitute a serious mensupposed courtship of her sister Kitty, ace to a new government if they re-Molly watched Margeson, all unknown mained in revolution. Zapata who demands agrarian reforms, made common cause with the Constitutional ists and obtained supplies from them with which to fight the Huerta government. It is not known yet, however, whether he will lay down his arms in favor of Carranza.

The United States is using its in fluence through friends of Zapata to bring him into harmony with the peace program and an emissary from General Carranza is now on his way

These activities on the part of the ists are installed in Mexico City and be an end to revolution in Mexico platform the deputies stood. Speaker with its ever-threatening internation. Manuel Mercade then administered al aspects.

Carranza has been informed that te must conduct his triumph tem perately: that an amnesty for politi cal offenders be declared and the rights of the clergy and other foreigners who have suffered, especially Spaniards, be given due respect.

STRIKERS DEFEAT GUARDS.

Pitched Battle Near Fort Smith, Ark

Fort Smith, Ark .- After a pitched already puzzling statement. As for battle between several hundred striklate in the day, when the mine guards act. If they accept the Massachusetts exhausted for several hours, wrecking the plants Haven directors accept the Massalate in the day, but before they ar vanced in negotiations with the New rived the attacking party had dis Haven has been that business all persed. The rioting was a culmination of lously affected by an anti-trust suit. a series of disturbances which have occurred at intervals since the contract with the United Mine Workers was abrogated last March and an Greater New York-Manhattan-540 nouncement made that the properties absolute divorces were granted durowned by the Bache-Denman Coal ing the six months ended June 30, as Company, but leased by the Mammoth against 373 during the same period Vein Company would be operated on last year. These figures were made an "open shop" basis.

Constitutionalists Will Not Last. Havana.-The former Mexican minprior to his departure here for New continuous stream of grain into York, via Key West, said Huerta's Chicago, setting a new record for a resignation was no surprise to him single day's wheat receipts here. A and expressed the belief that a con- total of 1,153 cars representing 1,250. stitutional government would be 000 bushels were received. Approxishort lived. "Within ninety days." he added, "the people who are now farmers for the day's shipment. The shouting aproval will cry leath to the enormous receipts exerted no inrevolution. In six months Huerta will fluence on the market, however, 2 be the most popular man in Mexico, decided increase in price being rebecause the Latin race always pities corded instead of the decline which the fallen and opposes the powerful." might have been expected to follow

Evacuation Is Complete. On Board U. S. S. California, via San Diego, Cal.-The federal evacuation of Guaymas is complete. The

How's This? We offer One Hundred Dollars Re ward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm. NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE,

If we grew bald in proportion as we grow wise, some of us would still be upholstered a foot thick on top.—Dallas News.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MARGESON'S MANNERS : MEXICAN HARMONY HUERTA RESIGNS PRES. OF REPUBLIC

CENTRAL FIGURE IN MAELSTROM OF MEXICAN POLITICS IS ELIMINATED.

American Troops Will Remain at Vera Cruz Until Carranza Offers Gen-

Mexico City. Seneral Victoriano Huerta resigned from the provisional presidency of the Mexican Republic and his resignation was accepted by the senate and chamber of deputies eral Amnesty to Nation.

by a vote of 121 to 17. Francisco Carbajal then was appointed president and took the oath of office at the joint session of the deputies and senators. Hureta's resignation was submitted through the department of foreign relations. It was read in the house and was greeted wih cries of "Viva Huerta." It then was referred to the joint committees of Gobernacion. After brief consideration the committion presented by General Victoriano Huerta as president of the Mexico United States. "Article 2-We call Licentiate Francisco Carbajal, minister of foreign reations to assume the presidency." ballot was taken and the joint ession approved the report. Preside t Carbajal proceeded to the national palar under an escort of presidential guards, and all along the way was greeted; with tumultuou

The galleries of the chami deputies were packed before ginning of the session. Intense excitement chemicalized the gathering and at the close of the reading of Huerta's resignation the deputies and spectators broke into loud and continued applause. After the acceptance of Huerta's resignation, a commission was appointed by the president of the cham-American government result from a ber to escort Senor Carbajal to the desire that when the Constitutional- floor of the house. Senor Carbajal soon apeared in front of the chamcomply with the conditions prerequiber, passing through files of soldiers. site to formal recognition, there shall He entered and as he walked to the

WANTS NEW HAVEN TO OBEY.

the oath.

Washington Hopes New England Road Will Avoid Prosecution. Washington. - Attorney General McReynolds is waiting only for the outcome of a meeting of New Haven Railroad directors in New York before determining the course the Government will pursue in untangling the New Haven system. This meeting is expected to consider legislation recenly enacted by Massachusetts affecting the sale of Molly, she was dimly conscious of an- ing coal miners and their sympathiz. Boston and Maine Ratiroad stock now ers and 100 guards stationed at the held indirectly by the New Haven. It was not until two hours later dur- Prairie Creek mines of the Mammoth The road's executive committee has which ended in the rout of the dispose of the Boston and Maine in guards, tipples of three mines were view of this legislation, which gives "Jimmy-I never could see how you destroyed by fire and dynamite. The Massachusetts an option to purchase property damage is estimated at $200, the stock. If the directors also de-000. So far as can be ascertained no cline there is little doubt that a suit one was kiled or seriously wounded will be filed late this week in New retreated after their ammunition was legislation, a suit will be averted. Administration officials do not deny Rioters held possession of the mines they would like to see the New chusetts legislation and prevent an County officials went to the scene anti-trust suit. One argument adthrough New England will be ser-

> More New York Divorces. New York - In one borough of public by the county clerk. Enormous Wheat Sale. Chicago.-Twenty railroads from ister of commerce, Querido Moheno, the South and Middle West poured a mately $1,000,000 will be paid the Albany, N. Y .- That directors of a corporation have the right to pay last of the garrison, long hemmed in dividends from a surplus, was the by the constitutionalist forces of Gen. opinion in the case of the Equitable make it afterward—I will have a big eral Obregon, embarked southward Life Assurance Society against the amber light put in-just for you to with their horses and accountrements Union Pacific Railroad Company in six steamers and towing schooners. handed down by the Court of Appeals When Molly was permitted the use A provisional government has been and made public in full. The Equiof her lips for vocal expression, all established and order prevails table Society, as holders of preferred she said was, "I am giad I was not throughout the city. In accordance stock in the Union Pacific, insisted engaged, for I would have loved you with the armistice arranged several that the Union Pacific directors had

SOMETHING GOOD TO DRINK Bennington-Hall Bakerized Steel-

Cut Coffee The Votan Mocha and Java Coffee The Votan Tea is the Best in the World

Folger, Thornley & Co.

THERE !

days ago the citizens of Guaymas no authority to distribute $80,000,000 dividends.

> A mellow, fine and satisfying Coffee and Tea with a de-Toledo, O. lightful, lingering after-