Local and Personal

We'll bet it rains before the summer's over.

N. E. Garvin, of Pendleton, spent Sunday in Pickens.

The Pickens school will close the present session June 9.

Decorations at Cross Roads church, Thursday, May 6, 1915.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Perry J. Gillespie, Sunday, a son.

Mrs. Isiah Cox and Miss Mildred Cox spent Monday in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones Fuller of Greenwood were in Pickens this week.

Rev. B. K. Murphree is reported to be very sick at his home.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Carey, Jr., on the 27th ult., a daughter.

A severe hail storm visited parts of Anderson and Oconee counties Sunday.

Miss Essie Hagood of Easley visited Mrs. C. Bruce Hagood in Pickens last week.

Mrs. W. L. Matheny and Miss Grace McDaniel spent Monday in Greenville shopping.

Miss Margaret Attaway left Tuesday to visit her brother, Rev. Drew H. Attaway, in Rock Hill.

Besides other recent improvements Porter's Barber Shop has installed a Maywood water heater.

J. C. Stewart of the Keowee side spent Sunday with his father, Robert Stewart, near Pickens.

D. R. Evans, of Central route 2 paid The Sentinel an appreciative call while in Pickens last Saturday.

Miss Mattie Finley, Marie Elms and Nora Smith spent Sunday with Mrs. J. T. Partridge in Pickens.

Bascomb D. Mauldin of Gap Hill, one of the county's best citizens, was a visitor at the county seat Monday.

B. C. Ligon of Elberton, Ga., spent a part of last week at the home of his father-in-law, 'Squire John Gravley.

We regret to report that Mrs. T. D. Harris, who has been seriously ill for sometime, does not improve very fast.

Misses Ruth King of Easley, Ruth Rainey of Norcross, Ga., and Mary Adams of Greenville are guests of Miss Lorena Taylor.

O. C. Wilson has resigned as engineer at the Pickens mill and gone to Greenville. Tom Ligon is now engineer at the Pickens mill.

Ernest Patterson of Greenville has been elected chief of police for Easley to succeed J. T. McKinney, who was appointed rural policeman. W. W. Capell has been elected policeman in place of George Corbin.

Fred Collum, who lived at the old Neal place at Pickensville, near Easley, died at the home of his mother in Batesburg Monday. He was a traveling man and married a daughter of Col. W. A. Neal, formerly of this county.

T. W. Cochran, of Toccoa, Ga., is on a visit to his son, E. L. Cochran, near Pickens, and other relatives in the county.

Mr. Cochran is a native of Anderson county and lived for several years in Pickens county, later moving to Stephens county, Ga., near Toccoa, where he has made his home for the past three years.

In trying to board a moving train, Walter Evans, a negro boy, was killed at Latham crossing last Thursday. It seems that the freight train had slowed down for Latham and Evans with several others were trying to beat their way and in swinging the train lost his hold and fell under the wheels, his body being cut in two. The negro lay in the Latham section. No inquest was held.

A standing invitation is extended to all men to attend the Baraca class of the Pickens Baptist church. This is one of the best and liveliest class in the state and probably contributes more liberally than any other class its size in this section. It is constantly engaged in some good work. Every man in Pickens who does not now attend Sunday school should join this class. You will be welcome.

We were favored Monday with a short call from Rev. W. T. Abbott, of Liberty. Rev. Abbott is a prodigy in Biblical lore, his interpretations all being drawn from everyday life and experience, untrammelled by commentaries and denominational bias. He graduated from the theological school of Nature whose books are the broad fields where the wilds toll not, the sighing zephyrs and the rattling leaves. When you hearst a going in the trees' is his signal for action.—Seneca Journal.

Porter's Barber Shop
BEST shop—best barber work. Waterworks and other improvements. Satisfactory shop. Get your barber work done at the best place in town. First-class work at first-class prices. Agent Ideal Laundry. Pickens.

Elam Cooper, a young white man of this county, was arrested by Chief of Police Nealey last Sunday, on a charge of transporting whiskey. He was brought before Mayor Hendricks Monday morning and plead guilty to the charge and was fined $20 or thirty days on the gang. He paid the fine.

FREE MOVING PICTURES!

As agent for the Royal Tailors of Chicago I invite you to be my guest at the Pickens Moving Picture Show Monday night, May 10, and see how one of the largest tailoring concerns in the world makes clothes for men, from [the uncut cloth to the finished product. It will not only be interesting and entertaining, but will be instructive. Besides this picture the regular show will be given and it will not cost you a cent. Admission is free to all. Everybody invited.
