The Sentinel and The Progressive Farmer 1 Year each, both for $1.50

GARY HIOTT, MANAGER

The Sentinel is not responsible for the views of its correspondents.

Obituary notices and notices of respect for not over one hundred words will be printed free of charge. All over that number must be paid for at the rate of one cent a word, and to a company manuscript. Cards of thanks published for one-half cent a word.

"Blessings of the war" goes a headline. Tell it to the Belgians.

Neberry must be looking for trouble. He is arranging for a baby show.

Wonder how Mrs. Upton Sinclair ever found out where Columbia was located?

Can "Farmer" tell us what has become of the ancient Pleasant Grove men?

Wonder if there are any germs of the new money being issued by the government?

The wild animals cannot be imported now, next year will be campaign year. Unshakable!

It is said that a wife can be bought in Sumatra for three dollars. Some wives are worth more than that.

This dry weather may be thought of as a crop, but it's not near as profitable as the breath of the man who complains.

When the average small farmer gets up with the batting average of his favorite team it shows "his mind is in his business."

Columbia is said to be very dry now. Wonder if that had anything to do with Colonel Aftermath's presence from the capital city?

They have no fly-swating campaign in the British West Indies because they do not fly to swat. The moral of this is: See to it that there is no place for flies.

A good guess as to when the war will end will be when the Allies submit a plan that gets all the Allies in a row. As the rat the Teutons are going to the end seems not far away.

It is evident that President Wilson does not intend to recognize the government in Mexico which is not the result of orderly elections. In that case there will be no recognition.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who use to pay his subscription to a local paper with a load of wood, sugar, or hickory? He's busy now packing cotton and hauling fertilizer.

Those college boys who say they have never been kissed by a girl are either awful liars or else they have missed a heap of fun. In fact, we don't think they got what was coming to them.

British soldiers at the front are only allowed two drinks of liquor a week under the new rules, and that seems weekly dram amounts to just half a pint. Most as bad as the No. 10 Calumet law!

And what has become of the Irish liberator's cry that "England's opportunity is Ireland's opportunity"? It simply shows the Irish are a patriotic people when war comes in the shape of a foreign invasion.

Large numbers of Anderson parties have just been bitten by a fake fortune teller. And yet some people say the world is growing better.—Spartanburg Journal. (This said that one is born every minute, remember!)

Tarhelia has been booming Mr. Daniels of the navy department for governor of the Old North State, but "Spartan" says he's going to stick to Woodrow through this administration. A wise decision, though being governor of North Carolina is a great honor, and Mr. Daniels would make a great governor.

"You can almost see your parrot rowing today, can't you?" asks the Spartanburg Journal. We can't quite see it growing, Brother Booker, but we thought we heard it growing the other night, and when we investigated next morning discovered that our neighbor now had gotten in and laid it low by sick!

"It's said there is always some good in everything, however bad it looks on its face. Be that as it may, the Barnes-Josevelt trial now in progress has given beyond a doubt that Mr. Hughes, former governor of New York and now one of the honorable judges in the United States supreme court, is an honest man. A good many of the people of the country had formed that opinion of Mr. Hughes some time ago, but now it has been proven in a court of justice. And it was proven by a witness who had a different purpose in view when he gave the testimony, and it came out quite unexpectedly.

OUR WEEKLY RIDDLE.—What is it that a man, no matter how smart he is, can't look at?

See if you can answer this riddle. We will give a year's subscription to the person sending us the first correct answer.

Our Space Worth While!

By MOSS.

Newspaper advertising is a tangible commodity.

Take this paper, for instance. We sell our space to the merchants. They use it to attract the attention of our readers in order to induce them to buy. The readers in turn compare the ads. and go where they can get the best for the lowest price.

If this valuable commodity were done away with the merchant and the reader would have a hard time getting together. We'd be way back in the days of stage-coaches and muzzle-loading guns.

Letter From Catechee

The brumal days are gone and the festival are in their stead and with the change mother earth has donned her summer apparel, curled her bangs, pinned on a bouquet and is at her best. All she needs now is a good soaking rain to wet the clay so the dust will not rise and settle on her muslim.

When God created old mother earth he did a wonderful piece of work but when he took a rib from old Adam's side and made a woman we think this piece of work far exceeded anything he ever did. Undoubtedly Adam must have been a very ugly piece of humanity in a garden naked working with a shovel and hoe. We presume that Eve got ashamed of him and studied out a plan whereby she might get him to see himself and by so doing he would agree to put on an apron.

Well, from aprons the men have gone, some to "shot gun" breeches while others have chosen the "full pegs," and the women from "four-gored" skirts to hobbles.

Well, you know fashion is a grand thing and we have got to keep up if it does make us look a little funny at times.

But, however that may be, when the month of May comes and the fair sex makes her appearance at the big May meetings we don't believe but what Adam would, if he was back here, say if Eve had been dressed that way I had rather have had a sweet kiss than a bite from that apple.

Well, the farmers are about through planting. Corn is coming up very well, but cotton is not, owing to the dry weather. Small grain is not very good.

The pupils and faculty of the Central Wesleyan College picnicked at Lay's Bridge last Saturday.

The ball boys of the Easley old mill played the Catechee boys on the latter's diamond last Saturday. The game stood 7 to 1 in favor of Easley. In justice to the Catechee team it is well to say that this was their first game this season and they are not organized yet and just picked a team to play this game. They have spent $32.00 preparing their diamond and expect to give some good games this season.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Leopold of this place visited the former's brother, W. N. Leopold, of Santee Sunday. Luther is a jolly good fellow and always found on the right side of everything.

Our new magistrate, G. R. Campbell, we are proud to say, is dishing out the fines to the boys who violate the law till they feel it. That is right, George; go your route and while you are magistrate be magistrate and let no other man wear your judicial robe.

Rev. D. W. Hiott has been called as pastor to the Catechee church. Preaching every first Sunday night and on fourth Sunday at 11 a. m. Let everybody who can, come out. Brother Hiott is an able preacher.

Central S. S. Convention

The annual Sunday school convention of Central township met at Lawrence Chapel, Saturday, May 1, 1915. Mr. W. A. Matthews, the president of the convention, gave a short opening address and after the usual devotional exercises Prof. Morrison of Clemson College addressed the audience for about thirty minutes. He plainly showed the necessity of organized Sunday school work and the benefits to be derived thereby.

The next speaker, Mrs. Reed of Oconee county, made us to feel the great importance of the cradle roll department in connection with the S. S. work.

The third speaker, Mr. Ben Johnson of Central, gave a most inspiring talk on the temperance question. He is a well known resident of the township and was at one time a representative of his people in the state legislature, and we all felt that his words came "filtered through his personality, plus his appreciation" and our hearts received new courage to battle against the grim monster, rum.

When the dinner hour arrived, Mr. Matthews announced that the meal would be served on the ground and we felt that the friends of Lawrence Chapel neighborhood did great credit to themselves by providing such a bountiful repast, and a most refreshing and restful hour was enjoyed by all.

The afternoon session opened at 2:15. The first speaker for the evening was Mr. Robinson, who pictured most impressively the grand work which a good Sunday school can and does do for the church.

Mrs. Shelor then spoke on the importance of the home department, and after listening to her words we all felt that we better understood how to take up that part of the Sunday school work.

The last speaker was Dr. L. G. Clayton. He gave a very forceful and convincing argument against the use of coca-cola and against tobacco in all its forms. His words were much appreciated, as they came from a mind broadened by his knowledge in the scientific field.

Then followed the reports from the Sunday schools of the township, after which the convention adjourned. We all went our ways, feeling that the words of inspiration given us by our most capable president and the enthusiastic speakers would lead us to a stronger effort in our work of building up the Sunday schools.

Walk-Over Oxfords

WALK-OVER is a name that means something in Shoes. No man pays four or five dollars merely to have his feet covered with leather. He can do that for less money. WALK-OVER Shoes and Oxfords cost $3.50, $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00, because there is that much good material, good judgment and taste put into them. They are the best Shoes at their price made anywhere. ∴ Oxfords are the proper thing for summer wear and for men who want something up-to-the-minute in style as well as comfort. We would recommend a pair of WALK-OVER Oxfords. It is the one shoe that is safe to save on. Better leather has never been tanned that goes into WALK-OVER Shoes and Oxfords.

Remember the name, "Walk-Over"—it is as soft to the feet as its name is to the tongue.

And the Price, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00

Yours truly,
