Local and Personal

Miss Mildred Cox is visiting in Washington, D. C.

A. P. DuBose of Easley was a business visitor here Monday.

Miss Mary Lewis is visiting friends and relatives at Richland.

R. T. Jaynes, Esq., of Walhalla, was in Pickens last week on business.

The hardest rain of the season visited Pickens Monday night and Tuesday.

There's something for you in the Special Notice column this week. Read it.

Prof. Andrew Bramlett of Clemson College was a business visitor here last week.

Rev. Frank Murphree and wife, of Murphy, visited our town one day last week.

Register the first Monday so you can vote in the prohibition referendum September 14.

Mrs. A. B. Taylor attended the Syfan - Robinson wedding at Gainesville, Ga., last Wednesday.

C. M. Steele, a prominent young merchant of Central R 4, was in Pickens on business last Friday.

We regret to report the illness of Ebb Field and Furman Waldrop and hope they will soon be out again.

Frank Bunker of Easley is running a moving picture show at Walhalla and the Keowee Courier says it is a good one.

Members of the Philathea and Baraca classes of the Pickens Baptist church enjoyed a picnic at the power plant Friday evening.

In the recent election held at Six Mile the patrons of that district voted unanimously in favor of an additional two mill levy for school purposes.

The electric light company is extending its line on Easley street and installing lights in the homes of T. R. Allen, R. B. Waldrop and Arthur Trotter.

The Ladies' Cottage prayer meeting will meet Friday evening at 4 o'clock with Mrs. D. B. Finney. All the ladies of Pickens are cordially invited to be present.

It may be of interest to patrons and trustees of schools to know that schools may be consolidated by petition. See school law recently published in The Sentinel.

Mrs. N. S. Moseley of route 3 has been very sick, but we are glad to state that she is improving. Mr. John Tyler Cantrell of route 3 is also improving after being sick for some time.

Mrs. O. S. Stewart is very sick with fever, we are sorry to relate. Mr. Stewart who has been confined to his bed with fever for several weeks, is improving rapidly. We wish for them both a speedy and complete recovery.

Supt. R. T. Hallum spent last week at Winthrop college, Rock Hill, attending the conference of the county superintendents of education of this state and the summer school. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hallum who spent two days at Rock Hill.

We regret to state that Mrs. Bettie Hendricks, of the Griffin section, suffered a fall in her room one night last week and was painfully, tho not seriously, injured. While walking across the room she stepped on an untied lace of her shoe, tripping herself. We sincerely hope she will soon be entirely over the injury.

Notice of Election

State of South Carolina,
County of Pickens.

Whereas, a petition from the freeholders and electors of Ooleney School District No. 56 has been filed with the County Board of Education asking that an election be held to determine whether or not an additional special levy of four mills shall be levied on said district for school purposes.

Therefore, it is ordered that the trustees of the above-named district do hold an election in said district on the 17th day of July, 1915, at the school house. The trustees are hereby appointed managers, the election to be conducted in accordance with section 1742 of the general statutes.

By order of the County Board of Education.
R. T. HALLUM,
Secy. and Chairman.
