THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain :hild, and a distinct r results.

Danger in Delay

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease may follow as the kidneys get worse. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. It is the best recommended special kidney remedy.

LESSON FOR AUGUST 15

JEROBOAM LEADS ISRAEL INTO SIN.

LESSON TEXT-I Kings 12:25-33. GOLDEN TEXT-Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself down unto them, nor serve them. Ex. 20:4, 5a.

Whether Jeroboam incited Israel's rebellion or was summoned home because of his being known as an opponent to Israel, we cannot say. He must have remembered Ahijah's (12:22-24), though Ahijah afterwards deserted him (14:1-18). In Egypt, Jeroboam had learned of the worship in sterilized jars and so continue until of the bull Apis and upon setting up his kingdom, saw at once the need of thick and pour over the fruit. Seal centering the religious life of the people elsewhere than in Jerusalem.

I. "Calves of Gold" vv. 25-30. Given these ten tribes by God (11:31) the people had chosen Jeroboam without seeming consultation with God, and the result was a tragic future for the Hebrews. David's monarchy lasted scarcely two generations. Rehoboam's second attempt at coercion (12:21-24) do not squeeze the bag or the juice is rebuked and he settles down in Judea but fortifies many cities (II' Chron, 11:5-12; I Kings 12:24; 14:17). Jeroboam likewise built cities, Shechem and Penuel, but the result of the schism was a weakened people and Israel was the first to be carried into captivity and to extinction as a nation. Defensed cities are not adequate safety for a nation (11:38; 2 Chron. 20:20; Zech. 1:4, 5). Witness Liego and Antwerp. As a matter of political prudence Jeroboam's scheme of removing the center of worship from Jerusalem succeeded admirably. The center of gravity of a man and of a nation is that place where he centers his worship. The temple had no image, and his setting up of his images of bulls was a backward step, though doubtless it was regarded as best for the nation. Jeroboam's fatal error was in deflecting the people from the invisible Jehovah to the visible creations of their own hands. Mankind always prefers to trust to their own devices and to plan their own deliverance rather than to trust in God. The evidence of our trust in God is to obey him. Note Jeroboam took counsel, not as did Rehoboam, of the aged or the flavor. young, but "in his heart." We are not to lean to our own understanding but upon the Holy Spirit (John 16:13). Man is "slow of heart" and that one at all familiar with Hebrew history should repeat the mistake Aaron made is scarcely to be understood (Ex. 32:4. 8). The errors and "isms" of today are but a repetition of the false teachweek as the minimum wage for cham- ings of former days dressed in a new garb, labeled with a new name; such is the deceitfulness of the human heart (Jer. 17:9). Jeroboam's excuse was plausible enough (v. 28) and appealed to the ever-present weakness of the human heart to seek some easier way of serving God. But man's way always becomes the hardest way. Jeroboam today would be classed as a "liberal" and held up as a "broadminded man."

II. "Priests of the Lowest" vv. 31-33, Jeroboam's real concern was not that cut in quarters, a spoonful of orange of the people but the permanency of marmalade and a tablespoonful of his kingdom. Jeroboam was not intro- pineapple preserve with a little of the ducing a new God but a new way of worship. One step always leads to another, and to fully establish this new way, and at the same time entirely to control the situation, he selected from among 'all the people" priests who were to carry on Jehovah's worship. God had selected the sons of Levi and specially ordained them for this service (Num. 3:10). When the devil introduces a new religion, or any false idea of Christ, or the Bible, he always appeals to sacred memories, or else claims a "modern expression of the truth." Jeroboam not only chose those who would be beholden to himself, but he also selected positions in his kingdom, at either end, each of which was easily accessible. Thus to build and thus to select others than the sons of Aaron as priests was expressly forbidden. But such is the natural perversity and stubbornness of the human heart that it readily follows its leaders into all sorts of apostasy and error (Rom. 8:7). Jeroboam also changed (v. 32) the feast ordained of God on the 15th day of the seventh month (Lev. 23:33, 34) to one occurring in the eighth month. No possible appeal of local interests warranted any such substitution; to obey is better than to modify (Matt. 15:6; Mark 7:13).

III. The Main Teaching. Jeroboam's chief purpose was not the glory of God, but this new religion was for personal safety and glorification. His cunningly devised program became the agent of his own and the nation's destruction (13:34; 14:7-11; 2 Kings 10:29, 31), and his opprobious title has become "Which made Israel to sin." Graft and trickery succeed for a time, but only those who obey God in all things build on a solid and lasting foundation. "Nothing in this world is worth doing wrong for." Boys do not succeed by breaking the rules of the game.

Spiced Apple Jelly .- Take a peck of tart apples, one cupful of whole mixed spices, sugar, vinegar and water, not quite cover. Put the spices in a bag, cook the apples with the spices, vinegar and water in equal parts until the apples are soft. Strain through a jelly bag, allowing the juice to drip; will not be clear. Boil the juice twenty minutes, or until it jellies, with an equal quantity of sugar. Pour into glasses and seal.

Rhubarb and Fig Preserve.-Take three pounds of rhubarb, two and a half pounds of sugar, one pound of figs and two ounces of candied peel; wipe the rhubarb, cut into inch lengths and place on a large dish. Chop the figs and peel and scatter over the rhubarb; on this cover the sugar and let stand until next day. Boil the preserve slowly for an hour, the last half add a small piece of ginger root. Pour into jars and seal.

The following is a delectable conserve never to be forgotten by those who have tasted it:

Fruit Conserve.-Take a pound of raisins, two pounds of tart cherries, three oranges, juice and rind, four pounds of sugar. Chop the fruit, add the sugar and boil twenty minutes. Seal in small air-tight jars while hot.

SUMMERY FOODS.

Necessity being the mother of inrention is proved every day by the housekeeper who is suddenly assailed with the thought that there is no dessert and unexpected company, all in the same breath. A good emergency dish to keep on hand these warm days and one which will keep for several days is some form of fruit jelly. Lemon jelly is especially nice in combination with other things. If petizing to the thirsty palate. Curone has a dish of jelly in the ice chest, arrange small spoonfuls of it made last year will now be appreciin alternate layers of fruit in a sher- ated. Grape juice is another most bet cup. This is one that was tried delightful drink. A few bottles of the other day and was highly praised. A little lemon jelly, a preserved peach juice. This was topped with cream garnished with halves of strawberries and served with simple little lemon cookies and made a dessert most gratifying to all who partook of it. This pint of orange jelly in combination with other fruits like banana, orange and a few strawberries made dessert for another day, in fact it made all together eight servings in sherbet cups. Rhubarb Delight.-Rinse, wipe and remove the peel from tender stalks of rhubarb. Cut the stalks into an earthen dish, scattering sugar over each layer. Add two tablespoonfuls of water; cover and set in the oven. Raisins, dates and figs may be added to the rhubarb if desired. Cook until tender and pink.

Vegetable Salad .- Take two cupfuls of chopped cabbage, pour over it the cupful of sugar to each quart of juice hot fat from a slice of salt pork, cut in dice and fried brown. Add the bits | der the keeping quality. Cook for five of pork and a minced onion, stir and mix well, then heat hot enough vinegar to just moisten the cabbage and flavor it.

To Can Rhubarb.-Wash the rhubarb and cut in inch lengths without peeling. Pack in sterilized jars, then fill with cold water and be sure that there are no spaces which the water does not fill. Now plunge the jars in a pan of water and screw the tops on under water.
