

Just at this time of year most of us feel like sitting under the shade and letting some of the things that need attention go undone, but, pretty soon if we were to give way to our feelings we would regret having been so "lazy." There is much fruit and vegetables that need saving and it means now or never, hot or cold, rain or shine.

We have on hand a good supply of fruit jars, fruit jar rings for Mason jars, White Crown jar tops, rubbers, Economy jar tops, preserving powder, pure apple vinegar and white wine pickling vinegar; fly traps to catch the flies; kraut or meat jars; churns; pitchers for butter, milk, etc.; covered jars, jugs, etc.

Local and Personal

The next issue of The Sentinel will be edited by the county prohibition publicity committee.

A good revival meeting has just closed at Fall Creek Baptist church with seven additions to the church. This is said to be the best meeting held at Fall Creek in five years. Pastor R. C. Atkinson did most of the preaching.

The Woodmen of the World, of Pickens, Oconee and Anderson counties will hold a basket picnic at Clemson College Thursday, August 26. All Woodmen are especially invited to be present with well-filled baskets. Those who do not wish to carry dinner will be furnished this meal by the college for twenty-five cents each.

G. E. Chapman of the Griffin section last week brought us just about the finest peach we have ever seen. Mr. Chapman says the peach was of the "Stump the World" variety and grew on a tree he has had twenty years. The peach weighed over three-quarters of a pound and its size was far surpassed by the taste. If anybody has a peach any larger than this one we would like to see it.

Miss Meda Boggs entertained about fifteen couples at rook, on last Friday evening, in honor of her house guests, Misses Cunningham, Cochran and Robertson. Miss Cunningham and Mr. Ralph Hester, progressing greatest number of times were awarded the prize. Delicious block cream and wafers were served. Punch was served throughout the evening by Miss Ivy Mauldin, and Mr. A. J. Boggs.

Mr. A. J. Pace Easley route 3 brought to this office one day last week a sample of freak field peas. The pods were nearly three feet in length and each pod contained from 18 to 20 peas. The peas are red when ripe. Mr. Pace doesn't know where the variety came from, but he says he is going to save the seed until he gets enough to plant a field with them. Demonstrator Bowe will take some of the peas with him to the state fair for exhibition this fall.

The Gilstrap Family Reunion

The second annual reunion of the Gilstrap family was held on Saturday last, the 7th of August, at the old Hardy Gilstrap place, five miles northwest of Easley. It was estimated that there were between 250 and 300 of the descendants of John, Peter and Bright Gilstrap, the pioneer settlers of the family in this section present, besides a number of friends. The day was spent very pleasantly in the meeting and renewing of friendships and talking over old times.

Hon. E. F. Looper, of Pickens, gave a very interesting historical sketch of the family. From his remarks and from talking with the older members of the family present, we find that the Gilstraps were of Irish descent. The three mentioned above viz: John, Peter and Bright, came from Charleston, where doubtless they or their parents immigrated from the "Old Country" just after the Revolutionary War and settled in the upper part of this, then Pendleton District. They were a strong hardy family and soon gained a foothold in this then wild country. As the younger members grew up, they intermarried with the other pioneer settlers of the community until members of the family were settled on nearly every stream in the upper part of the district.

Forty or fifty years ago some of the older members of the family were Hardy, Ephriam and Ambrose Gilstrap, all well known citizens of Pickens county. The family is noted for being kind-hearted and friendly in disposition. Rev. W. Hardy Gilstrap, of near Seneca, who is a son of the late Hardy Gilstrap, Sr., who was a man of considerable means for his day, was present and had on exhibition a couple of family trees that he had made. One showing the descendants of his father, Hardy Gilstrap, Sr., was married twice. First to a Miss Crane, by whom he had several children, and next to Mrs. Hawthorne, widow of the late Jasper Hawthorne, who was killed in the Confederate war, and whose memory is perpetuated in the name of the camp of Confederate veterans at Easley. Rev. W. H. Gilstrap is a son by the second marriage. He made a nice talk, urging the members of the family to place their trust in Jesus. He said, among other things, that from the best information he could get, the descendants of the three pioneer members of the family now numbered about 1500 souls. At the last reunion there were about 300 present, and that there had not been a death or a serious case of sickness among them the past year. He has thirteen children.

There were several other talks of a reminiscent character by members of the family, all of which showed that they were alive to the progress of the times.

A splendid picnic dinner was served by the lady members from baskets and cloths that were spread out on the leaves beneath the spreading branches of the large oaks in front of the old Hardy Gilstrap homestead. After the singing of several familiar hymns, the crowd dispersed, all doubtless looking forward and hoping for many happy reunions.—Easley Progress.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. McDaniel of Easley, accompanied by J. H. G. McDaniel, Jr., and Miss Grace McDaniel of Pickens, have returned from a trip to Rutherfordton, Chimney Rock, Asheville, Hendersonville and other places of interest in North Carolina.

Don't forget to read the advertisements this week. It may save you money.

35 horsepower motor. High-tension magneto ignition. Electric starting and lighting. Left-hand drive, center control. Tires, 33 by 4 inches, non-skid in rear. Demountable rims (one extra rim). Full streamline body. Deep divan upholstery.

This is the Largest Four-Cylinder Overland That Will Be Produced This Year.

THE long, low streamline body is unmarred by angles or projections. From the rounded edge of the radiator to the full curved back, there is not a break in the lines. The hood slopes gently upward and blends into the beautifully curved cowl. The doors are flush, with hinges concealed and handles inside. The fenders are long and sweeping in their curves, with gracefully rounded surfaces. The running boards are clean and free from obstructions, the storage battery concealed, the tire carriers placed at the rear. The windshield is built-in, and conforms to the curve of the cowl—a part of the car itself, not an apparent afterthought. The car is superbly finished in a rich, deep Brewster green, delicately striped with pure ivory white, and set off in pleasing contrast by black enameled radiator, fenders and running board shield.

Model 83 touring car is a beautiful car. It asks no odds of any car at any price—it is at home in any company.
