James Henry Grace McDaniel

James Henry Grace McDaniel died at his home in Pickens on Tuesday night, September 21, 1915, at 9.15 o'clock, a brief account of which appeared in last week's Sentinel. For several weeks previous to his death he had been slightly indisposed, but his illness was looked upon as nothing serious and the news of his death was a shock to all. He attended to the usual routine of business on the day of his death, going home about dark, eating supper and spent a social hour with his family, when he was suddenly stricken with heart failure and his spirit passed away.

Mr. McDaniel was born six miles below Greenville court house, November 28, 1848, being nearly 68 years old at the time of his death. He was married twice, his first wife being before her marriage Miss Sarah Jane Ligon, daughter of Col. J. T. and Frances Ligon, and his second wife of Miss Margaret Haydon, of Rutherfordton, N. C. His first wife died November 13, 1903, and his first wife departed this life January 5, 1912.

Mr. McDaniel is survived by the following children: Ben T. McDaniel, Edward G. McDaniel, Miss Grace E. McDaniel, Mrs. C. L. Cureton, Preston P. McDaniel, Mrs. W. L. Matheny, Mrs. G. T. Mauldin, Mrs. R. E. Lewis, J. H. G. McDaniel, Jr., Mrs. G. E. Holley, Mrs. B. G. Moore and Miss Fannie McDaniel. One daughter, Miss F. Paulie McDaniel, preceded him to the grave twelve years.

Mr. McDaniel lived in Pickens county practically all his life with the exception of a few years spent in Rutherford county, N. C. He was one of the most prominent citizens of Pickens county. For twelve years, from 1892 to 1904, he was sheriff of Pickens county, and was postmaster at Pickens at the time of his death. He was one of the best known and best loved men of Pickens county. Honest and straightforward in all of his dealings, he had the confidence and esteem of all. He leaves to his children the priceless heritage of a good name—honored and loved by all.

Funeral services were held at the residence, conducted by Rev. J. E. Foster, and the interment took place at Second Baptist church, where he was a member. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends attended these services, attesting the love and esteem in which he was held.

To the bereaved ones The Sentinel joins with numberless friends in extending sincere sympathy.

Attention, Sunday Schools!

Central, Sept. 29.—It is difficult to keep a correct mailing list of superintendents owing to the changes that are so often made in the offices of Sunday schools, and in order that we may reach each school with a message or two before the annual convention, Oct. 15-16, I am going to ask that every superintendent in the county, whether old or new, send on a postal card their name and address, the name of their school and denomination. Do it as soon as you read this, as we need every day of the time between now and the convention to bring before the schools matters of importance. If you could have seen yesterday afternoon with what keen delight the local committee was working out every detail necessary to your comfort while here you would begin right now to make your plans to come. The entertainment committee wishes to address a cordial invitation to each school to send at least two delegates to be their guests, and a revised mailing list will greatly assist them in doing so. Just a word concerning the program. Special effort is being put forth to make the song services a delight to all. The singing will be in charge of a director of music and "old story in Song No. 2" will be used. Some of the speakers will be as follows: State General Secretary Prof. R. D. Webb, Rev. and Mrs. Gary Lee of Westminster, Rev. A. C. Bedford, president W. M. college; Prof. Wm. S. Morrison of Clemson college; Rev. G. M. Mitchell, S. S. organizer for the American S. S. union. Come.

W. A. MATTHEWS, County President.

P. S. As you finish this article just write your postal while it is on your mind. W. A. M.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, The Supreme Architect of the universe, in his all-wise providence, has called from our lodge-room to join the Eternal Lodge above the soul of our brother, Laban Mauldin; and

Whereas, Brother Mauldin was a member of Bates lodge, No. 189, A. F. M., for 40 years and served our lodge as W. M. for one year during this time and filled 1/2 of the various offices of the lodge with ability at various times during the forty years. Therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That in the death of Brother Mauldin the lodge has suffered a severe loss and Masonry a member who practiced in his life the tenets of the order, friendship, charity and benevolence.

2. That we extend to his relatives our deepest sympathy, assuring them that we, too, mourn with them in this dark hour, but we realize that He who rules the destiny of man never errs nor makes mistakes.

3. That a page in our minute book be dedicated to his memory, with these resolutions spread thereon; that a copy be sent to the family and a copy to our county newspapers.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted:

J. M. DEAN,
E. L. HAMILTON,
O. T. HINTON,
Committee.

Pickens County Items

Married on September 26, 1915, Mr. William C. Hendricks to Miss Eula Child, A. A. Jones, N. P. officiating.

The singing convention at Concord last Sunday afternoon was attended by a large crowd, who listened attentively to excellent singing.

The Pickens county singing convention will meet with the Mountain View Baptist church Saturday and Sunday, October 2nd and 3rd. Many good singers are expected to be present. Dinner on the ground both days.

J. Benton Robinson has gone to Seneca and is in business with Doyle & Grant. He says, "You will find us with good mules and horses on hand at all times and we will be glad to have our friends call on us at any time."

Mr. W. H. H. Ariail, one of the county's most prominent citizens died at his home near Enoch church last Sunday. He was buried the day following in the family burying ground near his home. A more extended account will appear next week.

There will be an old-time all-day singing at Mountain Grove church on the fourth Sunday in October. Everybody is invited to come, especially the old folks, for whom the meeting has been arranged. Prominent singers will be there. Come and bring well-filled baskets and enjoy a day of fine singing.

A notice sent to The Sentinel and published last week stated that the Pickens association would meet Thursday before the third Sunday in October. This is a mistake. The association will meet Wednesday, October 13. The association will meet with Peters Creek church and be in session three days.

Miss Mae Gilstrap, who has charge of McKinney's Creek school, near Salem, Oconee county, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gilstrap, of Pickens. Miss Gilstrap has taught a most successful term and has been re-elected to teach for the winter session. We are glad to hear such of our Pickens girls.

Mr. W. G. Hendricks came into The Sentinel office last Monday morning and gave us a bottle of "good old home-made" lasses, for which he has our sincere thanks. He never forgets the poor—last year he did the same thing. Mr. Hendricks says that this year he will have over 1200 gallons. They are good—yum, yum!

J. B. Jones a well-known citizen of the Griffin section, returned last week from a prospecting trip in Anderson and Laurens counties. Mr. Jones visited several sections of these counties with a view to moving there to live, but after taking a good look he came back convinced that old Pickens county is the best place to live. We are glad he is going to stay in this county.

Among the young ladies and men of Central who are attending the different colleges are: Misses Amanda Patterson, Lander; Fannie Belle Martin, Nettie and Corrie Watkins, Winthrop; Lorena Aiken, Greenville Woman's college; Bess Gassaway and Jessie Morgan, Columbia; Ethel Clayton, Peabody Conservatory, Baltimore; R. G. Gaines, Dagnall and Tom Folger, Willis Clayton, Henry Rowland and Clement Kelley, Clemson; Walter Ramseur and Carl Morgan, Wofford, and J. B. Falls, Dental college, Vanderbilt university.

John L. Thornley had the misfortune to be run into by a Ford automobile last Monday morning as he was coming from his home to town. As he was crossing the street at the Methodist church an automobile driven by Verner Christopher struck him. He was considerably bruised about the head and body but his injuries are not serious.

The Ladies' Cottage prayer meeting will meet Friday evening at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Wesley Garrett. All the ladies of Pickens are cordially invited to be present.
