PICKENS, S. C., OCTOBER 7, 1915

Number 22

SEPT. 1899 SEPT. 1915

We have just passed the 16th annual mile-post in business in Pickens. We think that the years of experience has been worth as much to our trade as it has been to ourselves. We have been able to learn more about merchandise. We have been able to locate better lines of goods that we can sell the trade—goods that fit better and wear longer thereby giving them better goods for the money, and at the same time giving us an opportunity to sell the same customer the same kind of goods again.

This fall finds us with the largest and best line of up-to-date merchandise it has ever been our privilege to own. We have our dry goods side filled with new, well-selected goods and the price is as reasonable as can be expected, quality considered. All sizes in corsets of the American Beauty line. Coat suits just in and all new styles, don't fail to see them. A new line of ladies', misses, and children's coats. Call and inspect them and let us quote you prices.

Blankets and comforts: Blankets $1.00 to $6.00 per pair. Comforts $1.00 to $2.50 each. Window shades 25 to 50c. Curtain poles 10 and 15c each. Feather pillows 75c to $1.00 each. A good line of trunks and bags always on hand.

Men's suits $10.00 to $17.50. Boys' suits $2.50 to $6. Our line of Lyon shirts and collars is complete. If you have never worn one of these shirts let us sell you one and prove to you that they are in every way what we claim them to be. A big stock of one of the best line of Overalls ever shown in Pickens. Work shirts that are full cut and put together to stay.

Men's and boys' Hats and Caps. This is one of our hobbies. We have a great line and those who have bought of us know it. Let us sell you one and convince you. Southern-made neckties that surpass anything in quality and style that we have ever bought.

When you enter our store cast your eye on our Shoe shelves and see how clean and fresh the boxes appear. We buy the kind that sell and please, therefore we do not have to keep old shelf-worn stock. The strongest line of medium-priced all leather-shoes for women, misses children and boys' to be found anywhere.

Come to see us.

REMEMBER EVERY

Third Monday
At Easley

Don't fail to remember that EVERY THIRD MONDAY in each month is a Regular Sale Day at Easley.

Not purposely for horse-trading, but any kind of surplus property you have to dispose of.

We have had good turnouts so far and are expecting larger crowds, as it is getting better advertised every month, and this is a good central point to meet.

Easley Traders' Association

Mrs. E. B. Stephens died suddenly at her home in Central Tuesday afternoon, September 28. She is survived by three daughters and one son—Mrs. Worley of Greenville, Miss Sue Stephens, assistant postmistress at Central, and Mr. Ransford Stephens of Newry. Mrs. Stephens was one of Central's oldest citizens and had scores of friends. She was buried at Mt. Zion cemetery, her pastor, Rev. Elzie Myers, conducting the services.

We have our ginnery in first-class shape to accommodate our customers this season.

We also have two grades of bagging—second-hand bagging and a heavy re woven bagging; so we are in a position to accommodate our customers along the bagging line.

If you have not been to see us bring us a bale and give us a trial and we will see to it that you go away satisfied.

Four days later the death angel came and carried the little one home to heaven. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church the day following its death. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of a host of friends.

Candidate for Solicitor

Mr. J. Robert Martin of Greenville was one of our prominent out-of-town lawyers attending court in Pickens last week. We understand that Mr. Martin will be a candidate for solicitor of this circuit in the next primary. Mr. Martin is a young man with an enviable record. He is a native of South Carolina, being raised on an Abbeville county farm. He secured his early education in the country schools of that county and is a graduate of Erskine college. He taught school for a number of years and then began the study of law and finished under Martin F. Ansel in 1902. He then served Mr. Ansel as private secretary during his administration as governor and remained with him until 1906. Since that time he has devoted himself to his private practice of law. He has represented individuals exclusively in litigation, preferring that clientele to corporate interests. He is a prominent Mason as well as being a member of other fraternal orders.

Bad Negro Caught

Alex Walker, a notorious negro who was sent to the gang in June by Magistrate Porter and who later escaped, was captured by Sheriff Sid Johnson of Hart county, Georgia, last week. Walker is a negro with a bad record. In 1909 he was convicted of killing another negro at Cherry's Crossing, in Oconee county, and received a life sentence. February 18, 1914, his sentence was commuted to 20 years. January 3, 1915, he was paroled by the governor during good behavior. On the 20th of June he was arrested at Calhoun by Sheriff Roark on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, carrying concealed weapons and transporting whiskey. He was brought before Magistrate Porter and received a fine of $200 or 90 days on the gang. He was sent to the gang and lacked one day of serving his sentence when he escaped. Sheriff Roark was notified of his capture in Hart county, Georgia, last week, and he has been turned over to the Oconee county authorities to serve the remainder of his 20 years.

Moonshiners Caught

Officers LaBoon, McKinney and Murph raided a still in Horse Pasture last week and captured two men, Asbury Cantrell and Wesley Reid. They were brought before Commissioner Robinson and bound over to court in Greenville. Cantrell was also bound over to court in Asheville, where he is wanted on a similar charge and is held under $1,000 bond. Two years ago Cantrell was caught near the same place by Officer LaBoon and served a sentence.

On the same day about five miles above and in North Carolina officers caught Alf Cantrell, Asbury Cantrell's father, in a big raid on a still.

W. H. H. Ariail

Mr. W. H. H. Ariail died at his home in this county, near Enon church, September 26, 1915, from dropsy. He was born in Pickens county, April 20, 1842, being 73 years old at the time of his death. In 1865 he was married to Miss A. D. Robinson, who survives him. To this union nine children were born, eight of whom are living: Mrs. Kate A. Andrews of Charleston, Mr. J. F. Ariail of Sanford, Fla., D. B. Ariail of Birmingham; Mrs. Eliza C. Allison of Montgomery, Ala., and T. H. and W. F. Ariail and Miss Mollie Ariail and Mrs. W. B. Hester of this county. Mrs. L. Dena Smith having died several years ago. Had he lived until October 5 he would have celebrated his fiftieth marriage anniversary.

He served throughout the Civil War as a member of Gist Rifles, Co. D., Hampton Legion.

He was a member of Enon Baptist church, joining that church in 1859 under the pastorate of Rev. W. B. Singleton. The funeral services were held at the residence on the 27th ult., conducted by Rev. D. W. Hiott, and the body was laid to rest in the Ariail family burying ground near Enon church, members of Camp Jasper Hawthorne, U. C. V., taking part in the services.

The bereaved ones have the sympathy of a host of friends throughout the county.

Political Rumors

The political pot of Pickens county is beginning to simmer around the edges just a little, but it is quite too early yet for it to boil.

The fact that each officer elected in the next election will hold office for four years will make each office worth striving for, and present indications are that there will be more than one candidate for each office, something that has not happened in Pickens county in eight or ten years. There is no doubt but that the people will have a large number of good men from which to pick their officers.

At the close of the last campaign Bennett Powers announced that he would again make the race for treasurer, but we haven't heard anything from Bennett in some time. Treasurer Stewart will likely ask for re-election on his record.

Henry Townes states positively that he will be in the race for auditor again next year. Auditor Christopher will probably give the people a chance to say whether they want him to serve them or not.

We have heard several names mentioned as probable candidates for sheriff, most prominent of them being present Sheriff Roark, C. L. Cureton and Wade H. Chastain.

If his health will permit, it is more than likely that E. P. McCravy will make the race for clerk of court. O. S. Stewart, who made the race four years ago, has also been prominently mentioned for this place, and it is not likely that the friends of present clerk A. J. Boggs will permit his name to be left out. O. R. Doyle has also been mentioned for this place.

Of course this nothing like a full lineup.

It is also possible that Pickens county may have a man in the race for congress.

Grand Jury Presentment

To His Honor, Judge R. W. Meminger: We beg to submit this our final report:

We have passed upon all bills handed to us by the court.

A committee of our body has visited the county home and their report is very favorable. A committee has also visited the county jail and find conditions there very much improved since the recent changes made. We have examined the fireproof vault that was recommended by our body and wish to thank our supervisor for the job, as it seems to be a good one and as near fireproof as could be built.

There has been a discrepancy charged to H. W. Farr in his final settlement as treasurer of Pickens county in 1906. We find after careful examination that his four years' administration, which has been grouped in one settlement, shows clearly that H. W. Farr was not short. We therefore recommend that the proper credit be given to balance the books.

We have had the various offices examined by an expert and his report is very favorable. A copy of his report will be filed with this presentment.

We have a report from the rural policemen recently put on, and will say that they have more than paid their salary in fines, etc. Their reports will also be filed with this presentment.

We wish to thank the court and officers for courtesies extended to us and beg to be excused. Respectfully submitted: T. L. BIVENS, Foreman.
