A goodly number of Norrisites went to Greenville Saturday for the circus.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Irwin were recent visitors in Liberty.

Miss Essie Clayton, accompanied by her aunt, Miss Tirzah Hughes, will leave Wednesday for Columbia, where they will attend the state fair. Miss Clayton will go from there to Monetta in Saluda county, where she will teach school.

Fred Brock is now operator at Liberty.

Pleasant Grove News

J. F. Rigdon and family took dinner at the hospitable home of Mrs. J. P. Anders last Friday.

Farmers are very busy trying to gather up their crops, but the recent wet weather has checked the progress very much.

A killing frost visited this section the night of October 9.

Our good friend County Commissioner Bowen visited us this week on business. We are always glad to see Mr. Bowen, because he never forgets the needy.

Rev. J. E. Foster was unanimously elected last second Saturday to serve as pastor of Pleasant Grove church for the year 1916. The writer bids Mr. Foster goodspeed in his coming year's work if God shall spare his useful life.

Mrs. Arminda Fortner died at the home of Jackson Howard on the morning of October 21, aged 80 years. Paralysis was supposed to be the cause of her death. She was a daughter of the late James Roach and the widow of the late Tandy Fortner, who died a soldier in the Confederate army. The day following her death the body was laid to rest by the side of her father's grave, Rev. J. E. Foster conducting the funeral services.

A FARMER.

We want you to read the "Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet" advertisement in The Sentinel today. There has been a large number of these step-savers sold in Pickens county and they seem to be giving general satisfaction. E. L. & G. B. Hamilton of Easley are distributing agents in Pickens county and they have opened branch agencies at the Cash Grocery in Liberty and B. F. Parsons' store in Pickens. You may see the cabinets at any of these stores. Be sure to read the ad.

Oolenoy News Notes

Oolenoy, Oct. 25.—Prof. W. M. Hammond and sister, Miss Pearl, spent the last week-end in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Southerland spent Sunday with relatives in Dacusville.

Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Crenshaw of Locust spent Saturday and Sunday with the latter's aunt, Mrs. E. J. Chastain.

Miss Mae Jones spent Sunday with Misses Bess and Frances Jones.

Dr. R. Kirksey was here on professional business last week.

The many friends of little Miss Vera Keith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Keith, formerly of this place but now of Greenville, are pleased to know that her condition is quite favorable. It is remembered that she suffered a broken leg and other injuries in a recent auto accident near her home.

S. M. Jones and son Ellerbe were business visitors in Greenville last week.

Little Miss Blanche Hendrix has returned home after a week's stay with Vera Keith, her cousin, of Greenville.

Mrs. W. F. Hendrix spent Sunday with Hon. and Mrs. M. Hendrix.

Miss Pearl Hammond, an attractive young lady of near Seneca, is spending some time with her brother, Prof. Hammond.

This section was represented at the Barnum & Bailey circus in Greenville Saturday.

May Belle is the name of the little girl who recently came to grace the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones.

Interesting Letter From Route 3

Editor Sentinel: As I have seen nothing in your interesting paper from up in this corner for some time, I thought I would write you some of the happenings of this section.

Everybody is badly behind with their farm work in consequence of the continued rainy weather. Peavines and most all kinds of hay are still lying in the fields as it was mowed. The greater part of the cotton is also in the fields, and by the continued damp, warm weather a great deal of corn is sprouting in the fields and scarcely no grain has been sown. But in the event of a week's fair weather a great change will be made.

Some sickness prevails at present, but Dr. Robert Kirksey is exerting his efforts to relieve the unfortunate.

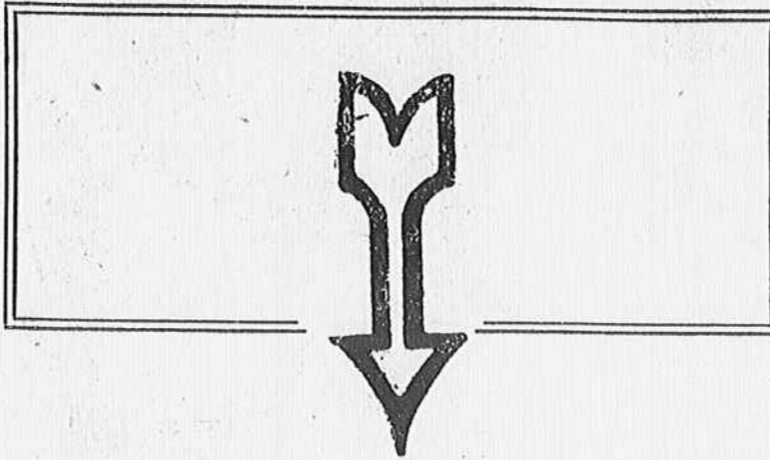

The all-day singing at Mountain Grove Sunday was attended by a large gathering of people, and fine music was rendered by the different leaders and congregation.

A great many from this section attended the Barnum and Bailey show Saturday. All enjoyed themselves and had an all round good time. The street parade alone was considered worth the admission fee. From appearances it was represented by at least eight or ten counties, but good order seemed to prevail throughout the entire day. Residents of the city remarked that it was among the largest crowds ever seen there.

The death of Mrs. N. S. Moseley last Tuesday cast a gloom over the entire community. She was one of our best women. She exercised great judgment in the management of her farm and other affairs, having been left by the death of her husband for more than twenty years with her seven children to raise, and raised them all to the habits of industry and morality. A good woman is relieved of the cares of this life and has gone to receive the reward promised those who doeth the Master's will.

I guess I had better quit for this time for fear this disinteresting article finds its way to the waste basket.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McCord, of Liberty, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage Monday, October 25.

Less Than 2c Per Week

Did you ever stop to think that your county newspaper costs you less than two cents a week—a small fraction of one cent a day—yet it comes to your home regularly, rain or shine, snow or sleet, with news of the world, your nation, your state and your county, and advertisements which oftentimes save you more than the cost of a year's subscription?

You can get more benefit for one dollar spent for a year's subscription to your county paper than for a dollar spent for anything else except food and clothing. There's no doubt about it.

Just think about how the price of practically everything has increased during the past twenty years, but your old county paper comes to you at the same old price, and it is bigger and better, comes more regularly and is worth more.

You are not doing yourself and your family justice if you do not take the county paper.

The Pickens Sentinel wants to be a welcome visitor in your home every week. It prints more general and Pickens county news than any other paper, is published at the county seat, official paper of the county, largest paper in the county, and is the biggest dollar's worth you can buy today.

The Pickens Sentinel is a necessity in every Pickens county home.

The subscription price of The Sentinel is one dollar a year, fifty cents for six months, twenty-five cents for three months, payable in advance.

The longer you put off subscribing the more you are losing.

Drugs Scarce, Prices Soaring

The enormous increase in the price of drugs, due to the European war, is causing the druggists everywhere much concern. Many drugs are practically off of the market and some of the large wholesale drug houses are trying to buy up the surplus supplies of scarce drugs all over the United States. Only last week the Pickens drug stores received letters from a large New York house wanting to buy their surplus drugs of several kinds. As the public is greatly interested in this we reprint below an article from the Atlanta Journal of Sunday:

The war situation has caused additional advances in the price of chemicals. When the war first broke out, due to the fact that most chemicals were made in Germany, this line of merchandise scored a sharp advance. As the war progresses, however, chemicals continue to rise in price, and some of them have gone so high that they are now practically out of the market.

"For instance," said Lynn Fort of Laurar & Rankin Drug Co., "bromides of potash and all bromides, in fact, have gone up about 800 per cent; quinine about 700 per cent; carbolic acid and salicylates about 1,000 per cent; glycerine 250 per cent in the last two weeks. Among the chemicals the manufacture of which Germany practically controls and which are now in effect out of the market are anti-pyrine and acetophenetidin and many others.

"The reason for the rise in the price of bromides is due to the fact that bromides are used in making explosives and also used in the manufacture of the poisonous gases used by both sides in the European war. The advance in quinine is caused from the fact that Germany before the war manufactured about a third of the quinine supply of the world. This is now shut off and Europe is therefore coming to the United States to get its supply. In addition to this there is much difficulty getting the bark from which this quinine is made to the United States from South America.

"Carbolic acid and salicylates are used in making explosives; and the sharp advance in these articles is credited to the fact that the English government has placed an embargo upon them. There are large quantities of glycerine made in the United States, but on account of the fact that European nations are coming here for their supply, the price of this article has gone to unprecedented high levels.

"I believe never before has there been and never again will there be such conditions as now prevail in the chemical trade. It takes the full time of one man at our house to keep up with the various changes in the price of chemicals."

Rev. L. E. M. Freeman to Marry

A marriage of unusual interest to the people of Pickens county will take place in Raleigh, N. C., Thursday, October 28, at 6 p. m., the contracting parties being Dr. L. E. M. Freeman, formerly of the Cross Roads section of this county but now professor in Meredith college, Raleigh, and Miss Katharine Parker, also professor of home economics in the same college.

Miss Parker is a graduate of Meredith and also of Simmons college, Boston, Mass. She has taught in Winthrop college and also in Porto Rico.

Dr. Freeman is a graduate of Furman university, Newton Center Theological seminary and a post graduate of the Southern Baptist theological seminary.

The Sentinel joins with their hosts of friends in wishing for them the greatest happiness in life.

W. O. W. Unveiling

Sunday evening, Nov. 7, at 2:30 o'clock, Keowee Camp No. 496 will unveil the monument erected to W. Arthur Thomas at Griffin church. All Sovereigns are invited to be present and participate in the exercises. The public is invited to attend.

T. A. SEAWRIGHT, Clerk.

Pickens County Items

Only about $500 tax money had been collected by the treasurer of Pickens county up to Saturday, October 23, since the tax books were opened October 15. At the same time last year about $1100 had been collected.

Hickory Camp, W. O. W., at the Easley mill, will unveil the monument erected to Sov. Eugene Connolly at Fairview church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, October 31. D. W. Hiett will deliver the unveiling address.

We were glad to learn from J. C. Stewart, who was in town Monday, that the health of Capt. R. E. Steele seems to be improved of late. We were sorry to learn, however, that Mrs. Steele's condition does not seem to improve.

There will be a box supper given by the ladies of Flat Rock church Saturday evening, October 30, at 8 p. m., at Mt. Carmel school house for the benefit of the church. The public is cordially invited to come and help them in this work.

The home of Mrs. Cornelia Rochester, of Central, was burned last Thursday and only a small part of the household goods were saved. No one was in the house at the time and the flames had made much headway before discovered.

Rev. T. V. McCaul, pastor of the Clemson Baptist church, is assisting Rev. E. V. Babb of the First Baptist church of Easley in a protracted meeting this week. Mr. McCaul is a good preacher, a sweet singer, and they will doubtless have a good meeting.

Mr. D. J. Fant, the christian engineer evangelist, will preach at Flat Rock Sunday, October 31, at 11 a. m., and at the Second Baptist church at Easley Mill No. 2 at 4 p. m., and at the First Baptist church, Liberty, at 7:30 p. m. Everybody cordially invited to attend these services.

At a recent meeting of the members of the Wesleyan church at Central, Rev. E. L. Henderson was elected pastor for the coming year. Rev. Mr. Henderson is a former student of the Wesleyan college and his wife will be remembered as Miss Nita Clayton. Their many friends will be delighted to have them in their midst.

What came near being a serious accident happened about two miles east of Easley Saturday night when an automobile bringing back to Pickens some of the circus visitors turned over and threw the occupants out, severely hurting Mack Christopher, who was driving the car, and slightly bruising the others with the exception of Hagood Pace, who escaped without a scratch. Those in the car were Mack Christopher, Roy Nealey, S. E. Merrill and Clarence and Hagood Pace. The car, which belongs to Ernest Christopher, was damaged to the extent of about $30.

A Double Wedding

On Thursday afternoon, at the home of Capt. J. R. Latham, near Dacusville, under the same ceremony, Miss Kate Latham became the bride of Mr. Norman Williams of Dacusville, and Miss Margaret Jameson of Easley became the bride of Mr. Marvin Latham of Miami, Arizona. Rev. D. W. Hiett performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family. It was a beautiful wedding in its simplicity.

These young people are among our very best and they begin life with bright prospects for future happiness and success.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams went direct to their home at Dacusville, where he conducts a large and successful mercantile business, and Mr. and Mrs. Latham will go in a few days to their home in Arizona, where he has been engaged in the mercantile business for several years.

The happy couples have the very best wishes of numerous friends.
