The Ladies' Cottage prayer meeting will meet Friday evening at 7 o'clock with Mrs. H. A. Nealy. All the ladies of Pickens are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. George Hall, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. O. Thompson, for several weeks, left Saturday to join her husband in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they will make their home.

Sunday's Columbia Record carried a picture of Casey Porter, of Pickens, and referred to him as "Gamecock's hefty center who will figure in both the Clemson and Davidson games this week."

Lawrence Mansell, colored, who lives on W. E. Findley's place near Pickens, found a bunch of keys recently and advertised them in The Sentinel last week. As a result of the advertisement the keys were returned to the owner Saturday.

It looks to us like the city council should either put a light at the crossing of the streets just above B. B. LaBoon's house or establish a life-saving station there. The streets are in such condition that it is dangerous for a sober man to travel along there after night.

The Pickens township singing convention will meet with Griffin church next Sunday, October 21, and hold an all-day singing session. Some of the most prominent singers in this section are expected to be present, and everybody is invited to come and bring song books and well-filled baskets.

Rowley Williams, a native of Pickens county, is now with the Stubbs Shoe Co., on Main street in Greenville, and will be glad to have his Pickens county friends call on him when in Greenville. As is well known, Jim Callahan is with Pride, Patton & Tilman's shoe house in Greenville, and there is no reason why Pickens people who buy shoes in Greenville should trade elsewhere than with these Pickens county boys. They have the goods and will treat you right.

Married, on Sunday, October 25th, at 3 p. m., at the residence of the officiating officer, Mr. H. J. McClellan to Miss Perrylee Paterson, J. Alonzo Brown, N. P., at the throttle. Mr. McClellan is our popular market man at Catechee and is liked by everyone that knows him, while his bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Paterson of Catechee and is a deserving young lady. The happy young couple have the congratulations of their many friends.

Renew your subscription to your county paper.

Otis Williams, a progressive young citizen of the Cross Roads section, was in town Tuesday.

A. H. Heaton, a good citizen of the eastern part of the county, was in Pickens on business Tuesday.

Don't forget the Majestic range demonstration at the Heath-Bruce-Morrow Co. all this week.

Miss Mattie Griffin of Pickens will leave this week for Ward, Saluda county, where she will teach school.

There seems to be a special attraction to Jay Robinson in the vicinity of Norris. He was there Sunday.

Besides buying crossties A. P. Taylor is in the market for a large amount of oak lumber. See his advertisement in this paper.

Carey & Richey, local agents for Overland automobiles, continue to find a good market for this popular car. Saturday they sold one to R. E. Bowen of Norris.

Married at the residence of Mrs. John Childress at the Pickens Mill, Thursday, October 21, Miss T. Bell Childress and Mr. James Nivens of New York state, M. F. Hester, N. P. officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boggs spent Tuesday in Calhoun. They went over in their Overland and were accompanied back home by Mrs. Aaron Boggs, who has been visiting relatives in Calhoun several weeks.

Ben Hendricks, local agent for Ford automobiles, received six—a carload—of these cars last week and sold four of them before the week was up. Those who purchased these cars are Robert Baker, W. E. Hendricks, M. W. Simmons and J. M. Smith.

Married by J. B. Newberry, probate judge, in his office Tuesday morning, October 26, Miss Effie Alexander of Norris and Mr. William B. Phillips, of Boyle, Ala. Immediately after the ceremony they left for their future home in Alabama, where Mr. Phillips is employed as Southern railway engineer.

A factory expert and representative will be at the store of B. F. Parsons in Pickens Thursday of this week to demonstrate the Hoosier cabinet. He will also be at the Cash Grocery store in Liberty Friday for the same purpose. You are invited to call at these stores any day this week and inspect this cabinet.

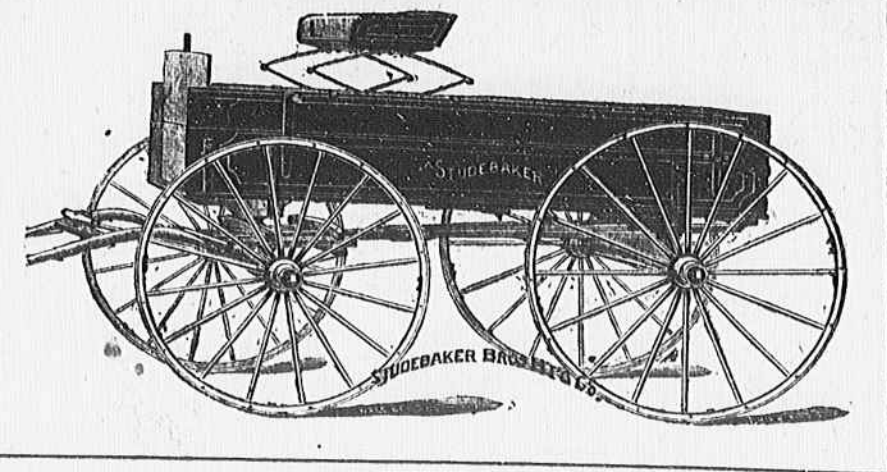

Children's day will be observed at the Pickens Methodist church next Sunday, October 31. A nice and interesting program has been arranged and will be carried out by the children with the exception of a short talk by the pastor, Rev. L. E. Wiggins. The exercises will begin at 11:15 o'clock and everybody is cordially invited.

A special from Newberry to the Columbia State says that Rev. E. V. Babb, pastor of the Easley Baptist church, has been called as pastor of the First Baptist church of Newberry and will accept. Mr. Babb has been pastor at Easley for several years and has numerous friends all over the county who will regret to see him leave this section.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Kathleen Bates Green of Greenville to Mr. Charles S. Glover of Charleston, which event occurred at the home of the bride's mother in Greenville, Thursday, October 21. Mrs. Glover is a daughter of Mrs. Ida C. Green, formerly of Pickens county. They will be at home after November 1 on Bee street in Charleston.

WAGONS!

STUDEBAKER AND NISSEN

We handle the Studebaker and Nissen because they always please the buyer. We go upon the theory that to get and hold your trade in the future we must give you the biggest value for the money.

You are not buying a pig-in-a-poke—a thing of unknown or questionable value. You know and everybody knows they are the Standard the world over.

Our stock is complete. Come in and let us talk it over.

Furniture Talk

We have just added to our stock of Furniture another Solid Car Load and everything is ready for your inspection. It will be a pleasure for us to show you through whether you are ready to buy or not. Investing in good furniture is almost like investing in real estate. It is something you can use a lifetime and then be handed down to your children or sold at your sale and the proceeds be divided between your heirs. You can't please your wife and your daughter better than by placing some good furniture in your home. Think of how you spend your money and you might find that some of the money you are spending could be more profitably spent in profitable merchandise. That sideboard your wife has talked about so long; a good time to buy. We have them $17.50 to $45.00.

- Dining Tables $7.00 to $17.50.
- Dining Chairs $1.00 to $2.50.
- Hall Trees $10.00 to $15.00.
- Lounges $12.50 to $18.50.
- Center Tables $1.00 to $5.50.
- Baby Cradles $1.50.
- Baby Carriages $6.50 to $11.50.
- Children's Rockers 75c to $2.50.
- Children's High Chairs 75c to $1.50.
- Kitchen Safes $4.00 to $11.00.
- Kitchen Tables varying in price according to size.
- Oak Beds $3.00 to $11.50.
- Bed Room Suite $15.00 to $65.00.
- Dressers $6.00 to $20.00.
- Wash Stands $4.00 to $10.00.
- Rocking Chairs $2.00 to $6.50.
- Iron Beds $3.50 to $11.50.
- Springs, Mattresses, Single Beds, Cots, Cot Pads, &c.

Remember, we buy Furniture in solid car lots, therefore, we get better prices, lower freight rates, and the Furniture reaches us in about as good condition as it was when it left the factory.

Come to see us. We appreciate your trade and will treat you right.
