

Plant Crimson Clover
Seed Now

Also Alfalfa Clover

We Have Them

PICKENS DRUG COMPANY
The Rexall Store
J. N. HALLUM, Proprietor
Phone No. 8

Local and Personal

D. C. Garrett of route 2 was in town on business Tuesday.

George Corbin, formerly a policeman at Easley, has been appointed chief of police at Seneca.

Mrs. S. L. Robinson of Dacusville is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Roper in Pickens.

Thomas S. Ramsay, a prominent merchant of near Calhoun, was in Pickens on business Monday.

W. C. Dobson of Central route 1 was among the business visitors at the county seat Wednesday.

D. B. Satterfield, a well-known citizen of near Central, was at the county seat on business Monday.

Mrs. R. L. Davis of Pickens has returned home after a visit to Mrs. Hovey Smith.—Greenville Piedmont.

We are indebted to our good friend Thomas Welborn for a lot of the finest sweet potatoes we have seen.

Wyatt Jennings of Raleigh, N. C., spent last week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jennings, in Pickens.

Boone Carey is able to be out again after being confined to his room for a week on account of an attack of appendicitis.

We don't know who put the "good" in Hagood Bruce, but we have had occasion to find out that it's there and lots of it.

Dr. J. N. Hallum has just placed on the market a new cough remedy known as "Hallum's Cough Remedy." It is put up in 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes.

The Ladies' Cottage prayer meeting will meet Friday evening at 4 o'clock with Mrs. E. B. Fields. All the ladies of Pickens are cordially invited to attend.

Messrs. J. P. Glenn, L. C. Posey and Arthur Boggs of Liberty were in Pickens on business Monday. Mr. Boggs has the contract to do the concrete work for the new Southern railway track between Easley and Central.

The Womans Missionary Society of the Pickens Methodist church is observing this week as a week of prayer and self-denial. Meetings are held each afternoon in the Methodist church at 4 o'clock and the public generally is invited.

The latest issue of the Progressive Mississippian, a lively weekly newspaper published at Corinth, Miss., carries the following at its masthead: "H. L. Robins, editor and business manager; J. L. O. Thompson, associate editor and manager of departments of publicity and printing."

It will be good news to many to know that D. J. Fant, the engineer evangelist, will preach in Pickens the third Sunday in November. There will be three services and they will be held in the school auditorium at 11 o'clock in the morning, 4 in the afternoon and 7:30 at night. Everybody invited to attend. Prof. John A. Durham will also be here and will lead the singing.

About the first of the month J. C. Alexander and family moved from the Charlie Hughes house near the school building to the W. Ed Stephens house, on the same street, which Mr. Alexander purchased last spring. Charlie Bowen and family have moved into the house vacated by the Alexanders, and Uncle Charlie Finley and daughter, who occupied the Stephens house, have moved to the old Hughes place on the edge of town.

The first lyceum number of the season for Pickens will be the Musical Entertainers at the graded school auditorium Friday night, November 12, at 8.15 o'clock. The company is composed of three ladies, Misses Edith Hockerson, Fay Ingram and Ethel Garten, musicians, readers and singers of merit par excellence. This company comes here from the Redpath Lyceum Bureau, which is a guarantee that it is high class. As this is the first and an attractive number it is expected that an extra large crowd will be out to hear and see it. Admission 25 and 50 cents. Those who wish season tickets may find them at the Keowee Pharmacy.

Whitsitt Hiott left Pickens Monday for Abbeville, where he has accepted a position with the Abbeville Press and Banner.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy McFall, Mrs. T. R. Allen and Arthur Allen attended the Jones-Howard wedding at Easley last Thursday.

T. S. Stribling and Hal Hiott were elected at the last meeting to represent Pickens K. of P. lodge in the District Convention at Seneca November 18.

Word from the Greenville hospital states that Mrs. W. C. Newton of Pickens is improving. Mrs. Newton was taken to the hospital about a week ago.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Avery Loooper at the home of his mother in the Cross Roads section, and we sincerely hope he will soon be restored to good health.

O. S. Stewart who has been ill quite a while was on the street last week. He is gradually regaining his strength and his friends are glad that he is able to be out again.

Thanksgiving is almost with us again and our mouths are beginning to water for the big fat turkey. In this issue of The Sentinel we have some very appropriate reading on Thanksgiving.

Quite a number of Pickens people went to Greenville Saturday and attended the football game between the University of North Carolina and Clemson College, which the North Carolinians won 9 to 7.

Mesdames J. M. Stewart, Lou Curtis, R. A. Hester and Melvin Holder, delegates from the ladies' missionary society of the Pickens Baptist church, left Tuesday to attend the state convention of women in Spartanburg.

A thief entered the cotton house of Mrs. J. C. Cooley, a widow residing several miles below Liberty, on the night of November 1, and stole between fifty and one hundred pounds of seed cotton. John Welborn, a renter on J. P. O'Dell's place, has been arrested charged with the theft.

Our good friend Burch Lewis has come to our aid again. Several days ago he drove up to The Sentinel office and brought some potatoes, two of which were extra large ones, being sufficient for two meals for a large family. The smallest potato Burch brought measured twenty-six inches in length. He brought us some pears too, which we enjoyed. Come back again Burch.

Last week we mentioned in the locals that the church at Norris had decided to build Sunday school rooms. We should have said the church at Catechee. The church which crowns the hill in the center of the village will be beautiful when the addition is made. Work has already begun and the money to pay for it is in sight. People can do when they try, and the people of Catechee have a mind to work.

Mrs. E. Frank Loooper is seriously ill at her home near Pickens and all the children have been called home. She is suffering from an attack of appendicitis and doctors have been in constant attendance at her bedside for several days. We are glad to report that her condition is reported as improving Tuesday afternoon and trust she may soon recover.

Last Sunday at Secona the W. O. W. unveiled a monument over the grave of Sovereign Cochran, and later in the day at Griffin a monument in memory of Sovereign Arthur Thomas was unveiled. Large crowds attended both. At Secona Hon. J. M. Daniel of Greenville delivered the address and W. E. Findley of Pickens delivered the address at Griffin. Both addresses were said to be fine.

Furman James and Jay McJunkin escaped from the Pickens county chaingang October 30. James was caught near Gap Hill, Wednesday morning, November 3, and taken back to the chaingang. McJunkin is still at large. Both were serving terms for housebreaking and larceny. This is the third time James has escaped from the chaingang. Twice he was caught in this county and last May was caught in Dalton, Ga., by Sheriff Roark.

WAGONS!

STUDEBAKER AND NISSEN

We handle the Studebaker and Nissen because they always please the buyer. We go upon the theory that to get and hold your trade in the future we must give you the biggest value for the money.

You are not buying a pig-in-a-poke—a thing of unknown or questionable value. You know and everybody knows they are the Standard the world over.

Our stock is complete. Come in and let us talk it over.

Heath-Bruce-Morrow Co.
PICKENS, S. C.

Furniture Talk

We have just added to our stock of Furniture another Solid Car Load and everything is ready for your inspection. It will be a pleasure for us to show you through whether you are ready to buy or not.

Investing in good furniture is almost like investing in real estate. It is something you can use a lifetime and then be handed down to your children or sold at your sale and the proceeds be divided between your heirs. You can't please your wife and your daughter better than by placing some good furniture in your home. Think of how you spend your money and you might find that some of the money you are spending could be more profitably spent in profitable merchandise. That sideboard your wife has talked about so long; a good time to buy. We have them $17.50 to $45.00.

- Dining Tables $7.00 to $17.50.
- Dining Chairs $1.00 to $2.50.
- Hall Trees $10.00 to $15.00.
- Lounges $12.50 to $18.50.
- Center Tables $1.00 to $5.50.
- Baby Cradles $1.50.
- Baby Carriages $6.50 to $11.50.
- Children's Rockers 75c to $2.50.
- Children's High Chairs 75c to $1.50.
- Kitchen Safes $4.00 to $11.00.
- Kitchen Tables varying in price according to size.
- Oak Beds $3.00 to $11.50.
- Bed Room Suite $15.00 to $65.00.
- Dressers $6.00 to $20.00.
- Wash Stands $4.00 to $10.00.
- Rocking Chairs $2.00 to $6.50.
- Iron Beds $3.50 to $11.50.
- Springs, Mattresses, Single Beds, Cots, Cot Pads, &c.

Remember, we buy Furniture in solid car lots, therefore, we get better prices, lower freight rates, and the Furniture reaches us in about as good condition as it was when it left the factory.

Come to see us. We appreciate your trade and will treat you right.

CRAIG BROS. CO., Pickens

PICKENS BANK

PICKENS, S. C.

Capital & Surplus $60,000

Interest Paid on Deposits

J. McD. BRUCE,
President

FRANK McFALL
Cashier

MORE GOODS for LESS MONEY

I say my Store is the place where you can get more goods for less money and my customers will tell you the same thing.

- Yard wide Sheeting, yard... 5c
- Danville Plaids, yard..... 5c
- Riverside and Southern Silk Cheviots, yard..... 9c
- All grades Dress Gingams, per yard, from 9 to 12c
- Heaviest weight Outings, per yard, from..... 6c to 9c
- Silks from 25c to $1 yard.
- Ladies' Corsets from 25c to $1.
- U. M. C. Shells, per box, 45c.
- Winchester Shells, per bx, 45c.

A complete line of men's and boys' Hats and Caps of the very latest styles.
A full line of boys' Clothing, prices ranging from $1.25 to $7.
A complete line of men's Clothing; prices to suit the buyers.
I now have the largest line of Shoes I have ever handled before.
A complete line of Fresh Groceries always on hand.
We carry in stock almost anything that trade demands.

We want your frying size Chickens, and will pay you 15c a pound up to 30c per chicken. We pay 10c pound for hens and 30c a dozen for eggs.

Yours for trade

J. W. HENDRICKS
PICKENS R4

Dock Pace has purchased the 'Gardo store house and stock of goods at Alice Mill, Easley, and Clarence Pace has gone there to take charge.

Word was received in Pickens Tuesday of the death of D. Hamp Russell at his home in Anderson. He was one of Anderson's prominent citizens and was well known in Pickens county.

While returning from Greenville in an Overland car last Saturday Mr. Morrell, one of the overseers at the Pickens Mill, had his car run into by a Hupmobile carrying Rev. T. V. McCaul, wife and child and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Robinson, of Clemson, to the football game at Greenville. As a result of the accident Mrs. McCaul was carried to the Greenville hospital and both machines were wrecked.

Auction Sale

Saturday, November 13

I will sell at auction in the town of Pickens a car load of Missouri and Illinois farm

Horses and Mules

Sale to begin promptly at 10.30 o'clock, rain or shine Don't fail to attend this sale whether you need a horse or mule or not. These horses and mules will positively be sold to the highest bidder and I will guarantee every one of them to be exactly as represented.

Don't forget the date—SATURDAY, NOV. 13, PICKENS.

J. G. DOUGLASS,
Greenville, S. C.

Special Values in

LADIES' HANDBAGS

You will need a new one this fall

A new assortment of

Combs, Brushes, Hand Mirrors, 25c Up

Latest : Style : Stationery

See Waterman Self-Filling Fountain Pens—$2.50 Up. Our Phone Number is 24. Use It.

KEOWEE PHARMACY

THE NYAL STORE

Phone 24

R. E. LEWIS, Prop