Hanpton Reese, formerly of this community, but now of Plains, Ga., was visiting here for several days recently and met many of his old friends, who enjoyed seeing him and are glad to know that he is prospering in his adopted state, tho he can't forget the comrades of his former home here and will steal off on a visit home once in a while.

Craig, Craig, Dave Stansell, Sydney Bruce, Harrison Edens, and Rev. J. C. Bailey of Liberty, pastor of the Pickens Presbyterian church. The convention was the largest attended of its kind ever held in the South, and each delegate brings back glowing accounts of it. The prayer meeting at the Baptist church tonight will be turned over to those who attended the meeting and they will make talks on their trip and how the convention impressed them.

Residence Burned

The residence of "Dock" Reese, at the Cureton mill place near Pickens, was destroyed by fire Friday night about 10 o'clock. Most of the household goods were also destroyed. The fire had made much headway before discovered and its origin is unknown. The family has the sympathy of many in this misfortune.

On account of rainy weather farmers are not getting to plow much.

Those Song Books

The Pickens Township Singing Convention appointed a committee at the last meeting of last year to select and recommend a book for this year. They have recommended Golden Gospel Bells for the convention and I most heartily sanction their choice. I think it will be the book for this year, as it is already going like hot cakes.

R. L. HENDERSON,
President Pickens Convention.

Bishop Denny to Speak Here

The Methodists of Greenville district are planning to hold a four days' district church extension campaign. Dr. W. F. McMurray of Louisville and Bishop Denny of Richmond have been secured to conduct the campaign and will make addresses at seven principal towns in the district. Pickens and Easley are in the list. Dr. McMurray and Bishop Denny will each make addresses at Easley Wednesday afternoon, March 1, and the Methodists of all the adjacent territory are expected to be there. Dinner will be provided at the Methodist church. Wednesday night Bishop Denny will come to Pickens and make an address in the Methodist church here. Everybody is invited.

U. D. C. Meeting

More than twenty ladies enjoyed an unusually interesting and instructive meeting of the U. D. C. at the home of Mrs. W. B. Freeman last Friday afternoon. Mrs. T. J. Mauldin, the efficient president, presiding. After all business and the report of the treasurer, which shows what a good work this chapter is doing, the literary program was given. A sketch of the life of three of Georgia's most famous writers, with specimens of their work, were read. Music, both instrumental and vocal, added much to the program. Four new members were added to the already long list. A delicious salad course with relishes was served by the hostess.

Will D. Upshaw's Lecture

The citizens of Pickens had a rare treat last Friday night, or at least all the citizens who went to the school-house to hear Will D. Upshaw, "The Georgia Cyclone." Mr. Upshaw is easily one of the best entertainers on the platform today anywhere in the south. He is different from any other humorous speaker we have heard. He not only amuses his audience, but leaves them great truths to think about. It would pay our state board of education to hire him to tour our state and lecture to our schools and the people generally, if they only had some fund to draw from. We sincerely hope he will come again soon.—H.

J. J. Gantt & Co. of Liberty have the largest line of Iron Bedsteads ever brought to Pickens county at one time and the prices are right.—adv.
