A. B. TAYLOR

The Pickens Sentinel
PICKENS, S. C.

MARCH 23, 1916.

Entered at Pickens Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.

PER YEAR, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE

GARY HIOTT, Manager.

Obituary notices and tributes of respect of more than one hundred words will be printed free of charge. All over that number must be paid for at the rate of one cent a word. Cash to accompany manuscript. Cards of thanks published for one-half cent a word.

Come, now, Miss Spring; we've been waiting for you long enough.

Wonder if Harold Booker remembers how to play "Pickety-pockety?"

Blessed is the neighbor who keeps his hickens at home during gardening time.

Germany and Austria have both declared war on Portugal. Next! Or is there any more left?

"Danger in Draft"—advertisement. Especially those drafts that come from the bank now and then.

The papers of our sister county of Boone are carrying the announcements of seven candidates for county offices.

Colonel Roosevelt is scheduled to arrive home March 25. Just in time to see the championship prizefight set for the same date.

We planted our first garden last week, and while we were very careful we are rightly afraid we got some of them seeds upside down.

If you ever expect to run for office in Pickens county now is the time. All county officers will hold over for four years after this election.

Our army is said to be badly in need of aeroplanes for the Mexican rucus. If all of our flying machine makers were too busy making them for foreign lands.

Some enthusiastic newspapers are wondering what we will do with Villa when General Funston catches him. Which brings up that old rabbit story gain.

The Greenville Piedmont has a new reading. This is the greatest improvement in Greenville journalism since the news used to give away scissors to subscribers.

When an army makes a "successful retreat" it means that about half of the soldiers get away with their lives and about ten per cent of their fighting equipment.

According to one of our Cracker exchanges, Georgia is in a bad way. Some of the people want to stop lynchings, while there are some others who would lynch prohibition.

A Chinese writer in the New Republic suggests that the only way to subdue a woman is to bind her feet, as they do in China. How about binding that unruly member?

"Cheap money for the South," goes a headline. Well, we know a man who has a bale of Confederate money that has never been spent; and if that isn't cheap money we don't know what is.

Miss Juanita Wylie, for several years editor of the Lancaster News, has resigned. She has made a good paper of the News, but when it comes to choosing between matrimony and a job, the job generally gets the worst of it from the fair sex.

New York World says "there are too many Americans in the pay of Germany." Also of England, France and barbaric Russia. The Metropolitan press is as one-sided and unreliable in its statements about the war in Europe as the Petrograd correspondent.

About the time of the bandit attack on Columbus a Mexican newspaper published an article which said that Villa had captured Texas and New Mexico and that President Wilson was fleeing to Canada. We have heard that Mr. Hearst owns a ranch or two in Mexico, but we didn't know before that he owned a newspaper down there, too.

OUR WEEKLY RIDDLE.—What is the proper length for a young lady to wear her dress?

A little above two feet.

Out of water
At all seasons
Comes the duck
For sun-dry reasons.

Our subscribers on the Easley routes received their Sentinel's one day late last week, and we had many complaints about it. In justice to ourselves we wish to state that the papers were printed at the usual time and put in the Pickens postoffice in time for all of our subscribers to get their papers as usual, but for some reason the Easley packages remained in the postoffice here until the next day. It was therefore not our fault that the papers were late in reaching our readers, tho we greatly regret it. We always try to get The Sentinel out regularly and often have to work late at nights in order to do so, and during the past three and a half years The Sentinel has not been issued late a single time, save at election time, when we waited to get election returns, and one time when we had to wait on a legal advertisement.

Senator Bankhead of Alabama, chairman of the postoffice committee, has introduced and had reported to his committee a bill that should become a law. The bill is intended to repeal the law requiring editors, publishers and owners of newspapers and periodicals to file with the postmaster-general every six months sworn statements of the names of editors, owners, stockholders, securities and, in the case of daily newspapers, sworn statements of average circulation. Senator Bankhead says he is acting on his own initiative in behalf of the small country newspapers, and it is hoped the bill will pass.

Here's a suggestion for the good ladies of Pickens who want to make this town "The City Beautiful." A lady in Pasadena, Cal., had a lawn full of weeds; so in order to get rid of them she gave a "weed-pulling party," with the result that her lawn was freed of the weeds, after which a nice lunch was served by the hostess. Weed-pullings are now the fad in that California town. There are plenty of weeds in Pickens—who'll start the parties?

Many American citizens of foreign birth are recorded as going back to their several countries to fight the enemy except the Russians. These foreigners were only too glad to be out of their native land, where living in peace and happiness was entirely out of the question. "The bear that walks like a man" does so only in barbaric Russia, yet the Russian is one of the Allies!

"All is not gold that glitters." A substitute for gold has been discovered by combining copper and antimony and adding a little magnesium carbonate to increase the weight. So when you want to invest in alleged gold ornaments they should be tested by competent authorities before purchasing. The substitute is worth about twenty-five cents a pound.

Curiously enough, the heaviest part of a match is the "light" end.

Gary Hiott of The Pickens Sentinel asks if isn't about time for a Greenville policeman to shoot somebody.
