IF MEN WOULD LOVE

BY L. S. CRITTENDEN If men would love and not despise No war clouds e'er would blot the skies; Disputes and strifes would all be o'er-

The din of battle heard no more. All people some day, soon or late, Will learn to love and not to hate; But not till then in any land Will civilization firmly stand.

This lesson yet we have to learn: That while we hate, despise and spurn, Seeking vengeance, mockery vane, A barbarous world will we remain. Pumpkintown, S. C.

Sing a Song of Europe

Sing a song of Europe, Highly civilized, Four and twenty nations, Wholly hyptonized. When the battle's open The bullets begin to sing. Isn't that a silly way To act for any king?

The kings are in the background, Issuing commands, The queens are in the parlor,

Per etiquette's demands. The bankers in the counting house Are busy multiplying;

The common people at the front Are doing all the dying. -Wm. Court in American Flint.

Little Edna Sentell

On February 23 the Death Angel entered our home and bore away our darling Edna. Her body was laid to rest on the 25th at Praters Creek church, Rev. W. C. Seaborn conducting the funeral services.

We loved her, yes, we loved her, but the angels loved her more, and she's gone to live with Jesus, happy there forevermore.

We ask every christian who reads this to pray that when we reach our journew. We are prepared to do the and be one unbroken family in that home above.

MR. AND MRS. M. S. SENTELL.

In Memory of Emmett Holder

While 'tis sad, words seem inadequate to express. The Saviour needs another star in his crown and little Emmett had to go, as He often takes our had to go, as He often takes our brightest jewels to bind our hearts to him. In his dying moments he smiled as if in submission to the will of Him who said "suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends. To them we would say, while you mourn, little Emmett is rejoicing in the paradise of God. Be ye consoled by the thought "the Lord lovjoicing in the paradise of God. Be ye consoled by the thought 'the Lord loveth whom He chasteneth.' Perchance, if little Emmett could speak out from his blissful home, he would say 'papa and mama, weep not for me; be faithful and true and in life, and train up little brothers and sisters in the fear of the Lord so when death comes each of you will be prepared to meet me in heaven where there is no sorrow, pain, nor death.' Little Emmett, we miss thee in our saddened home below, but the thought of heavenly meeting is the sweetest thought to know. sweetest thought to know.

Some Old Items

The following item appeared in The Pickens Sentinel of March 13, 1879:

Easley, S. C., March 10, 1879.
Mr. Editor: I delivered on Saturday last, to farmers, 390 sacks of guano (39 tons.) They will use more this year than ever. H. J. GIGNILLIAT. Mr. Gignilliat was at that time depot agent at Easley Station.

Another item tells of the death of Thomas W. Russell at Easley Station on March 9.

The market report in the same paper quotes egg at 5 cents per dozen.

Boosts Horton

Belton Journal.

Mr. John A. Horton is a formidable candidate for congress in this district. We have numbers of citizens in the state as good as Horton, but none better. He has risen from the common walks of life and is true to those who helped to make him what he is and if the halls of congress the masses will on the lookout for their best interests. Horton, the people's candidate for conand honest race two years ago made him hundreds of friends and while he did not win many have been heard to say recently that he is a winner in the approaching campaign.
