PICKENS TEAM WINS MOST POINTS, BUT WESTMINSTER TEAM IS AWARDED FIRST PLACE IN PIEDMONT TRACK MEET

The Pickens high school track team won first place in the ninth annual athletic meet of the Piedmont Inter-High School association held at Greenville last Saturday, but at a meeting of the school principals after the track meet was over, the school of Richland, who had won first place in the pole vault, was declared ineligible, and the Westminster school representative, who had won third place in the pole vault, was given second place. This new arrangement made after the meet had been held gave Westminster one more point than Pickens and Westminster was awarded first place.

The score as made on the athletic field was: Pickens, 28 points; Westminster, 27 points; Greenville, high school, 19 points. The score as revised after the meet gave Westminster 29 points while Pickens' score remained 28. First place was awarded to Westminster, second to Pickens and third to Greenville. Nine other schools participated in the meet.

Charlie Curtis was the star performer of the Pickens team, with Hansell Bivens, Steen Loper and Ralph Hester also doing good work.

This was the first time the Pickens team had participated in the Piedmont contests and the people here are proud of their good work.

The Pickens team will leave Friday for Columbia, where they will compete in the state athletic meet to be held Saturday. Pickens won this meet last year and now holds the state championship, with a good chance of repeating.

Liberty Wins Oratorical Contest

John C. Bailey, Jr., representing the Liberty high school, won first place in the Piedmont Oratorical contest, held at Greenville last Friday night. Tom Lewis of the Greenville high school received second place and Joe Norwood of Furman fitting school got third. Twelve speakers represented as many schools. Vauehen (inset), representing the Pickens school, did well. An immense audience heard the young orators.

Young Bailey is a son of Rev. John C. Bailey, pastor of Liberty and Pickens Presbyterian churches. His oration was "Shall the Statue of Lee Stand in the Hall of Fame?" As winner of the first place he was awarded the H. Endel gold medal.

Canning Club Work

Winthrop College offers two short course scholarships to the members of the canning clubs of Pickens county, who make the best record up to May 27, 1916. The work will be graded as follows:

1. General condition of plot—25 points.
2. Cultural methods—25 points. Preparation of soil. Subsequent cultivation. Freedom from weeds and grass.
3. Condition of plants—25 points. Pruning. Staking. Freedom from damage by insects and disease.
4. Daily record of work—25 points.

The course of study will consist of cooking, sewing, poultry, gardening and manual training. The girls who win these scholarships will leave Easley, on train No. 12, for Rock Hill, June 19, 1916. Railroad fare and money for other expenses will be furnished also. The girls will be under the care of the demonstration agents on the train and while at Winthrop.

Special entertainments will be arranged for the girls, making their stay at Winthrop very pleasant as well as beneficial. Every girl should make an effort to win one of these scholarships.

Attention, Confederate Veterans

The Pickens Chapter, U. D. C. will entertain the Confederate veterans and wives, of Pickens county, June 3, as has been their custom for many years. All applications for Crosses of Honor must be in the hands of the president of the local chapter by Monday, May 1. Do not delay, but get the application to us during the present week.

Let every veteran be present at this, the fourteenth annual reunion of the Confederate veterans of Pickens county.

MRS. T. J. MAULDIN,
Pres. Pickens Chapter U. D. C.

From Marietta Route 2

Everything is moving along smoothly in this section now; the farmers especially are making use of the beautiful spring weather, preparing the land and planting the corn and cotton seed.

Mrs. Nina Turner of Dacusville R 1 was visiting her daughters, Mesdames L. S. and E. T. Edens, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen K. Edens of Oolenoy were visitors in this section last week.

Frank Loper of Greenville and Miss Ethel Turner of Dacusville were visitors here last Sunday.

The Dacusville Township Singing convention at Mt. Tabor church on the first Sunday afternoon was attended by a large crowd of people, there being many more than the church house could accommodate. The singing was good and everybody seemed to enjoy it.

The residence of W. A. Edens is nearing completion, and when finished will be one of the most modern in this part of the county.

The first term of school at the Peters Creek graded school closed Friday, April 15. The trustees, teachers and pupils all did their parts well, and of course it was a successful term in every particular.

Lois, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Williams, who has been quite sick, is improving at this time.

Mrs. E. T. Edens visited Mrs. Robert McJunkin one day last week.

David P. Bates, the bright and efficient carrier on route 2, is delivering and collecting mail in his new touring car. Mr. Bates is an all round gentleman, but he sometimes beats us here; result, one day late in getting our mail.

Here is good luck to all the candidates, the editor, and all The Sentinel force.

The Pickens county democratic convention will meet in the court house next Monday.

Entertainment at Dacusville

It has been our custom to have a good play at the close of our school, so on the night of April 28 we expect to give the very best play we have ever had, a drama of the passing of the old and the coming of the new in rural life. It is especially adapted to suit the country, and will be well worth your while to come and enjoy it. We are fortunate to have in our local talent a natural comedian in the person of Lucius Thomas, who represents the negro servant girl, and to those who have heard him in negro dialect it is useless to say that he is hard to surpass. His make-up, songs, etc., are sufficient to amuse both old and young.

The cast of characters is as follows: Henry Wilson, farmer of the old style—Henry Hunt.

Sarah, his wife—Minnie Coleman.

Jack, their son—James Ponder.

Betty, their daughter—Miss Patti Major.

Silas Watson, money-lender—Fred Holcomb.

Gertie Bowers, teacher of the district school—Miss Edith Lenhardt.

Will Jefferson, a city youth with good clothes—Bates Aiken.

Truletta, the colored girl who helps out—Lucius Thomas.

Rastus Washington Lincoln, colored hostler of Silas Watson—George Williams.

Sam Snipes, the hired man—Joe Hunt.

Donald Brooks, Betty's sweetheart—K. Williams.

Abigail Jones, who sees villainess in all men—Bernice Hooker.

Prison guard—K. Latham.

There will be music for the evening and a general good time is promised those who attend. The admission fee for adults will be 25 cents and the school children will be admitted free.

J. Gilstrap and family visited at the home of his father-in-law, J. T. Gentry on Byars Mountain recently.

The Waldrop Reunion

The reunion of a large family is always an occasion of joy. On last Thursday, April 20, there was a reunion of the Waldrop family at the home of Mrs. Martha A. Waldrop, several miles north of Liberty. Over a hundred relatives and descendants were present, and it was a most delightful gathering.

The day was Mrs. Waldrop's birthday, she being 76 years of age. The guests assembled early in the day, and the time was spent in pleasant conversation and reminiscences. At 11 o'clock devotional services were held and a sermon was preached by Rev. G. H. Hodges, pastor of the Methodist church of Liberty, from Mat. 6:9. He brought out beautifully three sublime truths—the Fatherhood of God, the brotherhood of man, and heaven our eternal home. At the conclusion of the service many came forward and gave him their hand, declaring that heaven would be their home through eternity.

A bountiful picnic dinner was served, which was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody.

At 2 o'clock Rev. John C. Bailey, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Liberty, spoke on the subject, "The legacy of a good name."

Mrs. Waldrop was a daughter of the late Smith Porter and his wife, Vashti Cooper. Seventeen children were born to them, of whom twelve reached maturity. They are as follows: E. R. Porter, Phil Porter, James Porter, Joab Porter, David Porter; Mary, who married George Roper; Nancy, who married Billy Sanders; Martha, who married W. T. Waldrop; Hannah, who married Charles Sanders; Alexander, John Thomas and Robert. All of these reared large families except Alexander, who was never married. Messrs. E. R., Phil and James and Mrs. Sanders were present at the reunion.

W. T. Waldrop was a native of Spartanburg county, but the family removed to Georgia before the war. In some

Pickens Democratic Club

The Democratic club was organized here Saturday afternoon. Monroe C. Smith was elected president, with N. A. Christopher secretary. The following were elected delegates to the County Convention which is to meet at the court house next Monday, May 1:

I. M. Mauldin, W. T. Bates, C. E. Robinson, R. A. Bowen, M. C. Smith, R. E. Bruce, W. E. Findley, B. F. Parsons, A. C. Gravelly, F. L. Finley, J. C. Jennings, T. O. Allgood, T. A. Bowen, C. L. Cureton, W. E. Hendricks, McD. Bruce, W. L. Matheny, John L. Gravelly, W. W. T. Nalley, A. Cannon, W. H. Chastain, R. T. Hallum, J. E. Christopher.

A resolution was read and passed instructing the delegates to the convention to oppose the county to county campaign speaking.

way he came back to South Carolina and married Miss Martha Porter. He served gallantly during the war in Earle's cavalry, and died in 1893, much lamented. They had eleven children born to them, but two died in childhood. They are as follows: J. Thomas Waldrop, Dee, E. R., Sanford, Alexander, Philip, Elvira, who married Robert Sweet; Janie, who married Warren Martin, and Nettie. The last three are dead.

Forty-three grandchildren and twenty-nine great-grandchildren are now living and most of them were present.

The whole group had their picture taken before dispersing.

Mrs. Waldrop is still in vigorous health, and the many friends of herself and husband all over the county unite in wishing her many years yet of usefulness in our midst.

Mr. Abe Mauldin of Easley ran his new Ford into a ditch near the brick yard between Easley and Pickens Sunday afternoon and broke the radius rod.
