When the war is ended, will they continue to wear them?

Evangelist Mann Writes of Visit To Pickens County

BY REV. J. T. MANN

MR. EDITOR: Please give me space for a brief account of my visit to your section of the state.

On Saturday, April 1, wife and I were met at Norris by our good friend, Prof. R. M. Bolding, who conveyed us to his home.

The first Sunday in April was to me one of the most delightful days of my ministry. We had great services at Mountain View and Praters Creek. It was a joy to be with their respective pastors, Brethren Abercrombie and Seaborn. These pastors know how to make a visiting minister feel at home with them. It was also a joy to have with us in these services Bro. G. A. Martin, whose health, we are glad to know, is rapidly improving. On the first Sunday night Brother Martin delivered a fine sermon at Mountain View.

Prof. Bolding kindly conveyed us to a number of our appointments and rendered valuable help in the song service.

During the four Sundays we spent in your county we visited twelve churches, five of which we had never visited before. The names of these five follow: Pickens, Pickens Mill, Secona, Concord and Catechee. These new-made friends gave us a warm welcome. At Catechee we were delighted to meet Pastor

Willis and were deeply impressed by him.

Besides the churches mentioned above, we visited Six Mile, Norris, Cross Roads, Glenwood and Easley Mill. It was a joy to renew our association with old friends.

Space forbids more than a brief outline of our visit, but I may make a long story short by saying that no visit in the past has brought us more joy or helpful Christian fellowship than has this one. The guidance of the Divine hand was manifest from the first, a spiritual atmosphere having pervaded all the services.

To Pastor D. W. Hiott and Prof. R. M. Bolding, who had charge of the program of arrangements, and to all who kindly co-operated with them in the work to make it a success, we express our sincere thanks.

While at Easley it was a pleasure to be in the home of Rev. W. P. Holland. We appreciate the kind hospitality given us in each community, as well as very much more hospitality which was offered us by homes which we could not visit, owing to lack of time.

To all with whom we labored during the month we say, "God be with you till we meet again."

Pleasant Grove News

Noah M. Hollowell, formerly of Hendersonville, has purchased from Ora L. Jones the Sylvan Valley News, published at Brevard, in the adjoining county of Transylvania, N. C. Mr. Hollowell has had the News leased for the past several months and is publishing one of the best and breeziest papers we see. Mr. Jones retains the job department of the News plant and will continue to conduct it. This is a new arrangement for a country printing office, but should work well in this case.

W. T. Bosse, who was at one time foreman of The Sentinel office, is foreman of the News office, and we can see his good work sprinkled all over that paper.

Oh horrors! Somebody ought to shoot Gary Hiott, of The Pickens Sentinel, who says: We notice that Mr. Ng Poon Chew, a Chinese editor, has been visiting in this state. We don't know what 'Ng' spells nor what kind of a Chew he is but we believe we'll stick to Brown's Mule."

JUST RECEIVED!

Another Car of the Old Reliable Mitchell Wagons and a Car of Chase City Buggies.

These vehicles need no introduction to the people of Pickens County, as there are hundreds of them being used every day.

There are wagons you can buy for less money than you will pay for the Mitchell, but we can say without fear of contradiction that nowhere in the United States will you buy a wagon that will run lighter or wear longer than the Mitchell.

DON'T CONSIDER THE PRICE SO MUCH IN BUYING A WAGON, BUT BUY ONE THAT YOU ARE NOT AFRAID TO LOAD

If you are undecided as to which wagon to buy, just ask the man who owns a Mitchell, or ask your blacksmith; they will both tell you that repair bills are almost unknown to the Mitchell wagon.

A full line of Chase City Buggies, any color, in both steel and rubber tires. All we ask is for you to look at the make-up and finish of a Chase City Buggy, and when you buy one you will be surprised at how light it runs and how long it will last.

Just give one of these well-known vehicles a trial and you will be convinced that you will get more for your money than any other wagon or buggy you could buy.

Yours truly,
