D. E. Garrett Withdraws

To the Voters of Pickens County: My announcement for House of Representatives having appeared in the last issue of The Pickens Sentinel, I now say that I wish to withdraw from the race. Not because of doubting the co-operation of my friends, for since my announcement appeared I find I have really more friends than I thought I had. The cause of my withdrawal is the impressions of other duties. To one and all I tender my sincere thanks. The night will not be too dark, the roads too rough nor the day too cold for me to serve my friends in any possible way I can.
D. E. GARRETT.

W. C. Mann's Platform

Fellow Citizens of Pickens County: I ask for your support not on the demerits of my opponents, but on the following grounds:

1. The state or county should allow each thief so much per day until he has reimbursed the property taken or destroyed by him; then he should serve his given sentence with the state or county.

2. I stand for an increased pension for old soldiers.

3. Seeing that the present game law is in reality merely a statute, I stand for the repealing of said law, or to so amend it that it will serve its purpose. (My amendment will be explained on the stump.)

4. I stand for the amending of the Jim Crow law, making it unlawful for any white person or persons to teach in any colored school, as it is today unlawful for any negro to teach in a white school.

5. I stand for the adoption of the "County system" school law in this state.

6. I stand for better roads on a more economical maintenance plan; the establishment of a state highway commissioner's office, the duties of said commissioner being similar to those of the state superintendent of education.

There are numerous other needs that I might mention, but space forbids my doing so.

I have attended the legislature for the last three years while in college at Columbia and have studied closely the needs of the people, and despite my brevity in years (this, of course, I am not responsible for, but am remedying every day), I hope, is elected to a man's position, to give you a man's service.

I assure you that your vote will not be as seed cast by the wayside and that it will be appreciated.
(adv) W. CLARENCE MANN.
