Does Pickens need waterworks?

WILL the Thanksgiving turkey hash last till Christmas?

Now is the time for all good citizens to come to the aid of their county paper.

THAT big noise you heard the other day must have been the "fall of Mon-

"K" is the best story we have ever published. Not too late to begin reading it. IF you think Pickens ought to have a system of waterworks, say something about it.

WHERE is Pickens? - Spartanburg Journal. Ask the pickpocket. He doesn't know.

WONDER what would have become of that Democratic campaign debt had Mr. Wilson been defeated?

BET old Villa gave a sigh of relief when he heard that the South Carolina troops were to be sent home.

A LARGE boiler in the Orangeburg laundry exploded last week and cleaned up several nearby negro cabins.

As we predicted several weeks ago, Bill Folger of Pickens county defeated the University of Virginia football team Thanksgiving Day.

ONCE more the "last survivor" of the band of soldiers which captured Jefferson Davis is dead. He was from Ohio, as a matter of course.

THE advice many newspapers are now giving the farmers to plant more wheat so the price of bread won't be so high is very good, but that doesn't help a hungry man any just now.

AFTER telling all about when the war would end, the column and a half of wisdom in one of our big state dailies summarizes thusly:

'Cmftwypemftwypemftwyp,' but we thought it was worse than that.

PRESS dispatches say there is too much gold coming to this country from abroad, and the same agency says the poor people of the larger cities are facing starvation because they have not gold enough to buy rations. As they would ask in No'th Caliny, "Howcum?"

OUR WEEKLY RIDDLE. - Why did the salt shaker?

Because he saw the spoon holder.

A POPULAR man Is Mr. Ladd; He never does say "I'm feeling bad."

An Exceptional Offer

The Sentinel is now able to offer to the people of Pickens county the best reading bargain it has ever offered and we are sure it will appeal to those who want good reading for every member of the family the year round. We will call it our "All Winter Reading" club and you will agree with us that it's a dandy. We are offering The Sentinel, The Weekly Kansas City Star, The Progressive Farmer, Today's Magazine, The Farmer's Business Book and Almanac and four selected grapevines, all for $2.50. The cost of this club if subscribed for separately would be more than $4.00, and we are very glad to be able to make this exceptional bargain just now when everything else is going up in price. The family which subscribes for this club will not need any other reading matter, unless it is the the church paper. It will keep you supplied with good reading matter the year round, doesn't cost much and will greatly aid in keeping up your rural route. Read our advertisement in another column and take advantage of this offer today.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Martin

On page seven of The Sentinel today s an article written by Editor C. T. Martin of the Easley Progress and a reply thereto written by Mr. Joel H. Miller. We publish these articles at the very urgent request of Mr. Miller, who came into our office last week and stated that he had offered his article to the Progress for publication. but that Mr. Martin had refused to publish it in full. Mr. Miller wanted it published in full and says he Wilson carried New Mexico. And so it is entitled to a reply to Mr. Martin's article, and has no other way to get it before the people of Pickens county except thru The Sentinel.

and Miller first appeared in The Sentinel and as we have published several articles by them since, we have agreed to print Mr. Miller's reply. However, this and after this week we beg to be relieved We sympathize with the Piedmont. of printing further articles in reply to anything heretofore printed in the con-

That's All We Know About It

What does Editor Hiott know about that big still that was found in Pickens county by the revenuers one day last week? Newberry Observer.

All we know about it is that some Greenville revenuers came down here from the mountains and reported that they had destroyed a big un, and one of them called up the Greenville News and asked for a "big write-up." He evi-

Something not to worry about just now: Four hundred and forty-four years from now the timber of the United States will be all gone, according to a late government report.

TAMMANY HALL officials don't want President Wilson to mix in the mayoalty election in New York city next fall. l'ammany didn't mix in very much in the election of the president.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT "cussed out" quite a few voters during his speechmaking tour of New Mexico. Result: was most everywhere he spoke.

AFTER thoro investigation we are able to state conclusively that the As the article which precipitated this Spartanburg Journal was in error in controversy between Messrs. Martin showing a white speck just above Pickens in its recent prohibition map.
