LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. C. L. Cureton spent a day last week in Greenville.

Mrs. Troupe Partridge, who has been very sick for quite a while, is much improved.

Mesdames J. L. Valley and Earle Lewis were Greenville shoppers last Thursday.

Mrs. Lena Cox has been critically ill, but we are glad to report that she is improving.

Mrs. Howerton, of Kentucky, is visiting her nephew, Rev. J. C. Bailey, at his home in Liberty.

Mrs. Olga Goodwin and youngest son, of Rock Hill, spent a few days of last week with relatives here.

The local W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Gary Hiott next Thursday afternoon, January 18, at 3.30 o'clock.

Miss Moita Hodges left last week for Florida, where she will spend some time at different points visiting friends.

J. Ed Griffin has moved from his father's place, four miles north of Pickens, to the old Ben J. Williams place in the Maynard section.

The Entre Nous club spent a delightful afternoon last Wednesday with Mrs. Wayne Mauldin as hostess. Delightful refreshments were served.

Bennett Powers and family have moved into the house recently owned and vacated by Mrs. Thomas, who has moved near the school building.

Miss Ora McFall has returned to her home in Pickens after spending the holidays most pleasantly with relatives and friends at Kingstree and Sumter.

Larry C. Gilstrap, who has been farm demonstration agent of Cherokee county, N.C., for several years, is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Gilstrap, near Pickens. Mr. Gilstrap came from Murphy, N.C., to Pickens last week, making the trip in five days.

J. Butler Jones has moved from the Griffin section to the C. J. Ellison place, which he recently purchased, near the Glenwood cotton mill. In writing The Sentinel to change the address of his paper Mr. Jones says he likes his new home fine, the just at present there is lots of juicy mud in the community.

After spending about two months in Pickens abstracting titles for the Carolina Timber Co., Messrs. E. R. Freeman of Nashville, Tenn., and H. S. Guy of Corpus Christi, Texas, have gone to Wauhatchie, where they will spend some time in the same kind of work. While here they made many friends who would be glad to have them return.

The board of directors of the Keowee Bank held their annual meeting January 9. All officers were re-elected, and 8 per cent dividend was declared and a substantial sum placed to surplus. This bank is on a sound basis and the past year was a good one for it. J. P. Carey, Sr., is president and John C. Carey is cashier of the Keowee Bank.

A telephone message from Easley says fire destroyed Sitton's livery stable about six o'clock Tuesday morning and also burned five horses and mules to death. One of the mules was the property of a railroad construction company. We understand there was $1200 insurance on the stable and horses, which will not cover the loss. Origin of the fire is unknown.

Miss Elizabeth Mauldin, County Demonstration Agent, is spending the month of January at Winthrop College. All the county agents meet at Winthrop every year to be given training and plans for the next year's work. Experts in special lines of work from all parts of the United States assist the state agents in giving these instructions. Miss Gladys Smith has charge of the course in dietics and nutrition.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Pickens Bank, held January 8, all the old officers were re-elected, as follows: J. McD. Bruce, president; Frank McFall, cashier, and J. H. Bruce, assistant cashier. The past year was a good one for this old established institution and the usual dividend was declared and the surplus increased. At present the deposits in the Pickens Bank are more than $400,000, the largest in its history and more than any other bank in the county has.

Misses Hughes and Gravley, teachers of Twelve Mile and Hampton schools, respectively, were in Pickens Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Mauldin of Greenwood attended the funeral of his brother, Elbert Mauldin, at Pickens Saturday.

There will be a box supper at Roanoke school house Friday night, January 26, beginning at 7.30 o'clock. Public cordially invited.

Miss Margaret Attaway, who teaches the Mt. Carmel school, has had grip for over a week. Her sister, Miss Sarah, is teaching the school.

J. Wesley Julian continues very sick, but is slowly improving. Mrs. Nickells, a trained nurse of near Easley, is at his bedside and we trust he will soon recover.

Presiding Elder Turnipseed of the Greenville district preached a most interesting and forceful sermon at the Pickens Methodist church Sunday night, after which a quarterly conference was held.

The January Clearance Sale at Hobbs-Henderson Co's. store will continue thru this week. Many exceptional bargains are offered, as anyone can see by reading their large advertisement in The Sentinel today.

Ed Hendricks is in Columbia taking the Pasteur treatment. Mr. Hendricks was bitten on the hand by a dog last week. The dog's head was sent to Columbia for examination and it was found to have had rabies.

John B. Craig has gone to High Point, N. C., where he will personally select and buy a large shipment of furniture for Craig Bros. Co. This firm expects to do a big furniture business this year and are making their plans accordingly.

Earle E. Mauldin of Texas is visiting his father, E. E. Mauldin, near Easley, and other relatives and friends in this county. This is Mr. Mauldin's first visit to his old home in fourteen years and his many friends are delighted to see him.

A beautiful home wedding took place in Easley on the 14th inst. at the home of Mrs. B. W. Duckworth, when her youngest daughter, Miss Margie, became the bride of Mr. Alexander Cal McMahan, youngest son of Mrs. Mamie Barton McMahan, Rev. D. W. Hiott officiating.

Monday and Tuesday of this week were probably the most disagreeable days of this winter. Cold rains fell and everything outside was covered with ice. However, it was a very pretty sight to see the fences, trees, telephone wires, etc., covered with ice and gleaming like diamonds and silver.

Mr. Warren Sutherland and son, of Gordon county, Georgia, formerly of the Dacusville section, are visiting relatives and friends in the county at present. Mr. Sutherland has been residing in the state of Georgia about four years. Says he is getting along fine and likes the section where he is located well.

After an illness extending over a period of several years, Adolphus G. Smith died at his home four miles below Easley, January 6, of dropsy. He was about 72 years old and is survived by a wife and two children. Mr. Smith came to Easley about twenty years ago from Blacksburg and was for some time chief of police at Easley.

Two petitions asking for the position of postmaster for the city of Easley were being circulated in the city Monday. One by Mr. A. G. King, the present incumbent, the other by Mr. J. E. Craig. Both petitions were receiving a number of signatures. Postmaster King's present term expires some time in July next.—Easley Progress.

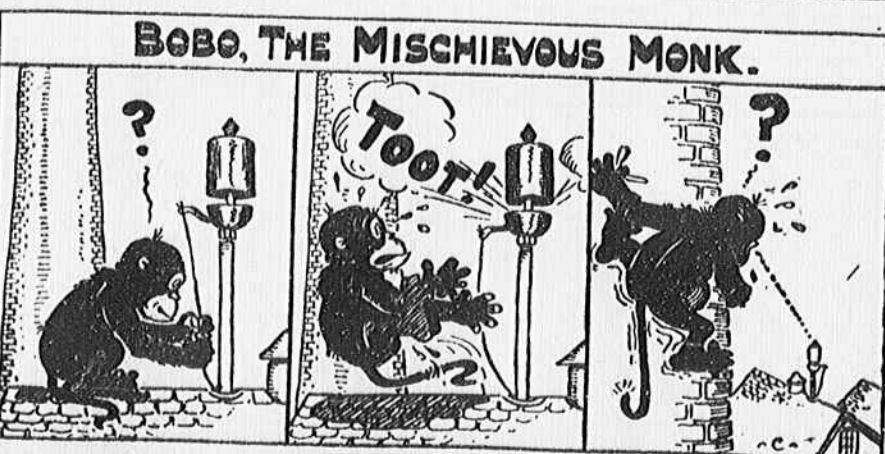

Fielding A. Lewis died at his home at Wauhatchie, January 4, after an extended illness. He was 74 years old. Mr. Lewis was well known in Pickens county, having at one time lived at Central, when he was a member of the firm of Gaines & Gassaway, and later lived at Pickens several years, during which time he served as supervisor of registration of this county. He was twice married and is survived by his second wife, two children by his first marriage and four children by his second marriage. He was a gallant Confederate soldier and member of the Methodist church.

GERM-PRUF UNDERWEAR

YOUR first impression of Germ-Pruf Underwear is its CLEANLINESS. The transparent, sealed, glassine bag in which each garment is packed guarantees absolute freedom from germs, dust, exposure and handling. You are further impressed by the underwear itself. You recognize QUALITY in the fine, soft, strong fabric, in the high grade workmanship, in the character of the facings, in the "stitched" and "stayed" buttonholes and in the big, handsome pearl buttons.

To men and women, as well as to the younger folk, the snug fit and wonderful elasticity of Germ-Pruf is a revelation. Smooth and supple as your own skin and as comfortable. It gives with every movement of the body but never stretches out of shape. No binding, no irritation. Wherever strain comes there's ample reinforcement. Not a weak place from neck to ankle.

The snug-fitting collar and shoulders; the wrist-clinging and ankle-hugging cuffs; the reinforced crotch; full-size armholes; the rip-proof seams and gussets—these are among the many desirable and exclusive features which make Germ-Pruf the choice of particular people—the one underwear which YOU will adopt as soon as you see it.

Come and inspect this line. We guarantee a perfect fit for every member of your family and satisfactory service.
