The biggest bunch of rats we ever saw was killed by R. H. Hayes at his barn near Griffin church last Wednesday. There were 115 rats in the bunch.

Gus Hagood, a respected negro who has been very sick for the past several months, was able to resume his work as drayman here Monday.

R. P. Mogridge, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Burnett, for the past few weeks, left Friday morning for Richmond, Va.

There was no preaching service at the Pickens Baptist church last Sunday night, Pastor Ramsay having been called to Belton on account of the death of his step-mother.

Col. C. L. Cureton of Pickens will attend the inauguration of President Wilson in Washington next Monday. Gov. Manning and his staff will go in a special car Saturday.

Miss Nellie Powell, charming milliner for Hobbs-Henderson Co., arrived this week and is getting ready for the spring millinery opening at this popular store.

We appreciate the items sent us by "A Friend," and we are sorry we are unable to publish them. We must know who writes every article we publish.

E. C. McWhorter of Norris has secured the agency for the Chevrolet automobile in Pickens county. Clark is a popular fellow and the Chevrolet is a popular car. They ought to make a good team.

In ordering his paper changed from Tom Bean to Sherman, Texas, N. R. Hendricks writes: "I notice from some of your correspondents that you have a wet winter. It has been dry here, but we had a good rain this week."

As Sam B. Craig, Pickens' only red-headed lawyer, was going home in his automobile one night last week he ran over an opossum and killed it. The lights of the automobile blinded the possum and it was unable to see to get out of the way.

Reports from the meeting of the Pickens Township Singing convention, held with Pickens View church last Sunday afternoon, was the best in its history. The Vaughn quartet failed to show up, but its place was more than filled by a ladies' quartet from Greenville and some of our own singers. The ladies' quartet was composed of Mrs. Bertha Proffit, Mrs. Sophia Chadwick and Misses Myrtie Hughes and Nornie Sawyer.

There will be no early spring cabbage plants for sale in Pickens, or anywhere else for that matter. The cold weather this winter played havoc with all truck growers down as far as middle Florida and killed all of their early plants. Truck growers all over the country are daily returning money for orders which they are unable to fill. It is possible that later plants may be on sale here the latter part of March or early April.

W. L. Dillard, a well known citizen of Calhoun, suffered a stroke of paralysis last Thursday. He was stricken while at his work on the double tracking of the Southern Railway between Calhoun and Central, and was carried to his home in Calhoun in a precarious condition, his left side being completely paralyzed. He is improving and his many friends hope that he will soon be in his usual good health.

The Best Proof

OF THE POPULARITY OF

The Anderson Phosphate & Oil Co.'s 'Fish and Blood Guano'

Is that their customers use it year after year. They know there is nothing better and they don't believe there is anything quite as good. The best proof of the gilt edge value of this "Fish and Blood" goods is the crops made when it is used. — "Word to the wise."

We can furnish you with Potash goods. We have Soda for Sale.

Anderson Phosphate and Oil Company

W. F. FARMER, Secretary.

Sold at the same price as the others, but the results are so much better. — "Word to the wise."
