LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Hagood Bruce, April 4, a daughter.

Mrs. J. M. Stewart visited her sister, Mrs. Floyd, in Greenville last week.

Mrs. Bruce Hagood of Easley spent Monday in Pickens with relatives.

Misses Florence Bowen and Vesta Ashmore spent Monday in Greenville.

The sale conducted by the Baptist Ladies' Aid society last week was a great success, the proceeds amounting to $67.

Dr. A. A. Odom, the well-known Greenville optician, will be at the Keowee Pharmacy in Pickens next Friday, April 13.

The Parent-Teachers' association will hold a meeting at the school house Wednesday afternoon, April 11, at 3 o'clock.

The local W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday afternoon of this week at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. T. R. Allen. All members urged to attend.

The collection for the anti-saloon league, at the Methodist church the first Sunday, was $256.30, instead of $56.30 as stated last week.

The ladies of Grace M. E. church will conduct a spring sale in Pickens, April 20. They will also serve dinner at the same time. Everybody invited.

County Demonstration Agent T. A. Bowen will take pleasure in assisting any of the farmers of the county in procuring Soy and Velvet beans for planting.

The Entre Nous club met last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. L. Valley and a most delightful afternoon was spent. Fruit salad, tea and wafers were served.

Rev. Henry Stokes, pastor of the Clinton Methodist church, will preach at the Pickens Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11:15 o'clock and at night at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

At a meeting of the newly elected city fathers of Pickens, held Tuesday night of last week, the new mayor and councilmen were sworn in, and Ernest Alexander was elected mayor pro tem and city clerk. H. A. Nealey was re-elected chief of police.

Rev. D. M. Ramsay will preach at Montvale school house the fourth Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Dr. Ramsay is one of the leading Baptist ministers of the South and every one who has the opportunity should hear him.

Pickens chapter U. D. C. will meet next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the school house. This will be an important meeting and all members are urged to attend. Officers will be elected. All who have not paid their dues are asked to attend this meeting prepared to pay them.

Corporal Reuben W. McClanahan, who has just returned from the Mexican campaign with the 17th Infantry of the U. S. regular army, has been on a few days' visit to his parents near Liberty. He returned Monday to his duty at Fort McPherson, where his company is now stationed.

In the Pickens county girls' expression contest held at Easley Friday night, first place was awarded to Lois Evatt of Easley, second place to Clara Ballenger of Central, and third place to Valeria Posey of Liberty. Other speakers who did well were Evelyn Farr, Reunion; Ollie Mae Durham, Six Mile; Annie Grayley, Pickens; Lola Baker, Norris; Nannie Ponder, Dacusville. An unusually large crowd attended the contest.

The Caveny Company will be the next lyceum attraction for Pickens and will be at the school house next Tuesday night, April 17. This will be the last lyceum number for Pickens this season, as the attractions are so late getting here the local promoters have cancelled all other engagements. Those who have paid for season tickets will get a fair refund.

Mrs. Dora Dee Walker, assistant home demonstration agent, will visit Pickens county April 13 and 14. She will address the women and girls on the subject of True Patriotism During the Crisis. FORD
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

320,817

Have been built and actually delivered to retail buyers since August 1, 1916. These figures—320,817—represent the actual number of cars manufactured by us since August 1st, 1916, and delivered by our agents to retail buyers.

This unusual fall and winter demand for Ford cars makes it necessary for us to confine the distribution of cars only to those agents who have orders for immediate delivery to retail customers, rather than to permit any agent to stock cars in anticipation of later spring sales.

We are issuing this notice to intending buyers that they may protect themselves against delay or disappointment in securing Ford cars. If, therefore, you are planning to purchase a Ford car, we advise you to place your order and take delivery now.

Immediate orders will have prompt attention.

Delay in buying at this time may cause you to wait several months.

Enter your order today for immediate delivery with our authorized Ford agent listed below and don't be disappointed later on.
