

CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK, UGH! IT'S MERCURY AND SALIVATES

Straighten Up! Don't Lose a Day's Work! Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels With "Dodson's Liver Tone."

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. Take a dose of the vile, dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you feel sluggish and "all knocked out" if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store or dealer and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it cannot salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't grip and they like its pleasant taste.—Adv.

THOUGHT IT "REGULAR TALK" WAS DETERMINED TO ENLIST

Little Kindergarten Attendant is Very Much Surprised When Told That She Can Speak English.

Proof positive that each one of us is for himself the center of the universe, that what "our folks" do is the proper thing, and all else mere eccentricity, is seldom lacking, but it comes out most engagingly in childhood.

"She can speak French most beautifully!" concluded Elsie's big sister, Sara, after having described at length to the family at the supper table the charms and accomplishments of a new friend, a girl who had lived several years abroad and had come recently to Sara's school.

"I know a girl," put in Elsie at this point, with an air of importance, "and she used to live in England. She's in my kindergarten, and she can speak English, I guess."

"Well what of that?" demanded Sara. "Son can you speak English."

"No, I can't; I don't know how! Why, of course I can't speak English! Elsie appealed from the laughing faces now toward her, "can I, mother?"

"Certainly you can speak English, child; it's what we all speak; we're speaking it now."

"What? Is it English we're talking right this minute? Is it truly, mother?"

"Of course, my dear. What language did you suppose it was that we 'talk'?"

"Why, mother, I didn't suppose it was English, or any other language. I thought it was just regular talk, of course."

Relieved Her Feelings.
One warm summer afternoon little Helen was on the porch with her mother. She became quite restless; up and down and around she would walk and finally, with a big sigh, she seated herself in her little rocking chair and said: "Oh, darn the goodness gracious."

Her mother said: "Why, Helen, what made you say that?"

"Oh, I just had to say or do something."

All some men do in this life is to hope for a reaction.

NEWSPAPER MEN PUSHING CAMPAIGN

EDITORS MEET IN COLUMBIA AND DISCUSS THEIR PART IN PREPAREDNESS.

COUNTIES ARE ORGANIZING

Several Counties Reported Whirlwind Canvasses and Will Urgue Growing of Food Crops.

Columbia. — The press conference held at Columbia at the instance of President William Banks, to consider co-operation in the food preparedness campaign, continued for more than two and one-half hours. The exchange of views demonstrated the practicability of the undertaking and showed how much real work has already been done within the last few days in stressing the importance of larger food crops in South Carolina.

David R. Coker, of Hartsville, state chairman of the movement, discussed it from every angle, first emphasizing the patriotic and then the economic phase. Mr. Coker made it plain to the newspaper men that more food crops was one of the vital issues in the war, and that it was not fair to the balance of the nation that South Carolina should be a drain, as it had been, upon the reserve stock of other sections, and that the more than $100,000,000 that this state has annually spent for the purchase of food stuffs that could and should be raised in South Carolina was an economic waste. Mr. Coker showed how prices had been increased within the last two years on the ordinary food stuffs used in South Carolina, and why, from a purely selfish standpoint, these articles should be raised here. He said that if this country should have a food famine the price of cotton would likely go down instead of upward, and that with 20-cent cotton it was essential not to pay three times the present value of food stuffs, if money is to be made out of the cotton crop, regardless of the price.

There were present at the meeting and co-operating the following: E. H. Aull, Newberry Herald and News; H. G. Osneet, Sumter Daily Item; Thos. M. Seawell, Winnsboro News and Herald; J. L. Mims, Edgefield Advertiser; G. E. Moore, Honea Path Chronicle; George R. Koester, Greenville Piedmont; Charles H. Platt, Mullins Enterprise; August Kohn, News and Courier; W. W. Ball, Joe Sparks, The State; A. B. Jordan, Dillon Herald; Sam Leaphart, Lexington Dispatch; Allison Lee, Laurens Advertiser; T. H. Coker, Jr., Hartsville Messenger; W. H. Greever, American Lutheran Survey, Columbia; John K. Aull, Charleston American; William F. Robertson, secretary Greenville Chamber of Commerce; O. K. Williams, Rock Hill Record. Robert Lathan of the Charleston News and Courier and others sent messages saying they were unavoidably detained but pledging their full co-operation.

During the course of the discussion all angles were viewed and every one received a stimulus towards more effective work.

Eminently Qualified.
Ira B. Dunlap, president of the South Carolina Bankers' Association, supplemented Mr. Coker's talk along practical lines. He told of the 32 meetings held Monday in York county alone, at which teams of speakers stressed the importance of raising food stuffs at home. Mr. Dunlap outlined the plan of organization in York county and suggested how these views could be adopted in other counties.

H. G. Osteen, of the Sumter Daily Item, gave a detailed statement of how Sumter county had organized for the food production campaign, and, especially how the negro farmers had been enlisted. Mr. Osteen has taken an active hand in this organization, which is now perhaps the most thoroughgoing in the state.

George R. Koester, of the Greenville Piedmont, made an interesting talk, emphasizing the idea of gardens among the mill operatives and the importance of domestic science in the homes.

E. H. Aull, of The Herald and News, Newberry, and E. H. DeCamp, of The Gaffney Ledger, were particularly interested in the marketing phase, and made many suggestions along this line. Messrs. Aull and DeCamp both claim the distinction of being the authors of the "hog and hominy" propaganda.

Joe Sparks, secretary of the commission, outlined what work had already been done, what had been planned and how the newspapers could further the cause. There will be no lack of material from headquarters, he said.

Mahon Appointed Major.
Columbia.—Capt. G. Heyward Mahon of Greenville, adjutant of the First regiment recommended by Gov. Manning to the secretary of war for appointment as major to succeed Maj. R. F. Watson, resigned.

Sergt. Major R. W. Hudgens has been recommended for appointment as captain and adjutant of the First regiment.

Sergt. James Anderson of Company A has been recommended for appointment as second lieutenant of Company K.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 29 JESUS WELCOMED AS KING.

LESSON TEXT—John 12:12-19.
GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord—John 12:13.

This lesson marks the beginning of that last tragic week in the life of our Lord, the most important week in all history since creation. The date was probably April 1, A. D. 30.

I. The Lesson of His Kinship. (vv. 12-16). Reading carefully the record of each evangelist, regarding this triumphal entry, we are still at a loss fully to describe the scene. It occurred the day following the supper in the home of Mary and Martha and Lazarus, i. e. on the Jewish Sabbath. From Bethphage Jesus sent two of his disciples into Jerusalem to secure the colt. They were to loose him without asking anyone's permission, and bring the ass and her colt to him to whom all things belong, with no other explanation than, "The Lord hath need of them" (Matt. 21:3). This command was in line with the prophecy (Zech. 9:9). The young ass was a symbol of peace, but the going of the disciples, in obedience to his command, was an act of faith, and obedience is the supreme test of discipleship (John 15:14). In response to their faith, they found everything just as he said it would be (Luke 19:32). Placing their garments upon the colt (Matt. 21:7) Jesus rode upon it toward the city, the people crying, "Hosanna"—literally, "Save, I beseech" (Is. 19:37-40; see Luke 19:38; Mk. 11:9-10; Matt. 21:9). The enthusiasm of the moment was tremendous. For the moment this great crowd (Mk. 11:8) believed that Jesus was really the Messiah, threw the garments of their holiday attire in his way (Matt. 21:8), and cast their palm branches before him. The Pharisees protested (Luke 19:39-40), but the enemies of Jesus for the moment were impotent (John 12:19). The Pharisees forgot their dignity to such an extent as to get excited along with the multitude, though with another purpose (See Luke 19:37-40). Unfortunately the enthusiasm of the people was not long-lived. Many of the same ones were soon crying, "Crucify him" (Ch. 19:14-15). Jesus himself did not join in the general joy (Luke 19:41-44), for he, with prophetic eye, saw the outcome (Luke 19:41-44).

II. The Lesson of Reverence (vv. 17-19). It is one thing to acknowledge Jesus as a King. It is quite another to reverence him as Lord and Savior. Never was there a time when we need more to have reverence for things holy and for constituted authority than the present day. The act of reverence on the part of this multitude for the God-anointed King ought to be a suggestion to those who look upon Jesus merely as a man.

Ride triumphantly:
Behold his way
Our lusts and proud wills in Thy way.

Jesus' grief is in strange contrast with the joy of the multitude. The practical application for us today is: "Have we cast our talents before him, God's rightfully anointed King?" There had been a large company of people present when Jesus was at the tomb of Lazarus, and raised him from the dead. The testimony of these eyewitnesses to the power of Jesus must have had great weight with the multitude. The enthusiasm of this crowd for Jesus excited the hatred of the Pharisees, making it all the more intense, for they saw the crowd forsaking them, and following one whom they envied and hated. To one another they exclaimed, "Behold, how ye prevail nothing." Notice the personal pronoun "ye," seeking to lay the fault upon others rather than taking their own share of the burden, another touch of human nature which is evident even today.

III. The Lesson of the Greek Pillars (vv. 20-26). These Greeks came first to Philip, who himself was a Greek. The hour had come (v. 23) when the work of Jesus for the Jews was to be finished. The Jews had been threatened with Greek religion, and that assault had been stopped by the Pharisees. Christ came first to the Jews that through them he might reach the Gentiles. Now his work for the Jews is done. He rejoices as he sees the Greeks coming to him, for it was to be in Greek dress and in Greek form of expression that Christianity was to conquer the world. But this rejoicing is tinged with sorrow, for it was a prophecy of the price that he must pay for the redemption of the world.

The Son of Man was glorified by his death; he was glorified by his reception on the part of the Gentiles; he was glorified by the approval of the Father.

Verse 24 expresses one of the most tremendous facts in the life of Jesus (Cf. I Cor. 15:30).

Think of the rich fruits of Christ's death, the countless lives that he reached and ennobled, and the effect of his life on the practical affairs of the world, the hospitals and every movement for the advancement and the well-being of mankind which can be traced to the influence of his life.

PAIN? NOT A BIT! LIFT YOUR CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

No humbug! Apply few drops then just lift them away with fingers.

This new drug is an ether compound discovered by a Cincinnati chemist. It is called freezeone, and can now be obtained in tiny bottles as here shown at very little cost from any drug store. Just ask for freezeone. Apply a drop or two directly upon a tender corn or callus and instantly the soreness disappears. Shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it off, root and all, with the fingers.

Not a twinge of pain, soreness or irritation; not even the slightest smarting, either when applying freezeone or afterwards. This drug doesn't eat up the corn or callus, but shrivels them so they loosen and come right out. It is no humbug! It works like a charm. For a few cents you can get rid of every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, as well as painful calluses on bottom of your feet. It never disappoints and never burns, bites or inflames. If your druggist hasn't any freezeone yet, tell him to get a little bottle for you from his wholesale house.—adv.

Getting Old Too Fast?

Late in life the body shows signs of wear and often the kidneys weaken first. The back is lame, bent and aching, and the kidney action distressing. This makes people feel older than they are. Don't wait for dropsy, gravel, hardening of the arteries or Bright's disease. Use a mild kidney stimulant. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands of elderly folks recommend them.
