

Oolenoy News Notes

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robinson of Easley were the week-end guests of Hon. and Mrs. M. Hendrix.

Other visitors to relatives at this date are: Miss Cleo Hendrix of Central high school of Greenville, Misses Viola and Merle Hendrix of Pickens graded school, Miss Pearl Sutherland of the G. W. C. of Greenville, L. Vernon Jones, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Crenshaw of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sutherland, Mrs. Cox and Will Cox of Belton, Miss Josie Chastain of Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Batson of Marietta, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Chastain of Holly Springs section, Messrs. Ernest Looper and Dacus of Cross Roads, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morris and Mr. Baker of Pickens, Mrs. Wellborn and family of near Pickens.

Hon. Matthew Hendricks left this week for Atlanta, where he will again have his eyes examined and treated.

Miss Clarice Keith, who has been quite ill, is somewhat improved. She is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Keith.

Mrs. Warrior King of Asheville is spending some weeks with her mother, Mrs. Sallie Jones.

Miss Merle Hendrix, who has the distinction of being Pickens county's most successful tomato grower, has started on her second year's club work in a way that makes us believe that another record is to be made. One-half of her one-tenth acre was set in tomato plants two weeks ago, just as the other half was sending forth a good stand of "Kentucky Wonder" beans. "Truth is stranger than fiction," and we hope to give you later a story in facts of this bean patch which will recall the time when you listened with wide open eyes, parted lips and strained ears at "Jack and the Beanstalk." Miss Hendrix has also had quite exceptional success in growing tomato plants this spring. From the amount of seed given by the home demonstrator she has sold 2,000 plants besides setting her own patch. Several hundred more plants are on hand. If other club members in the county can or have done so well, let us hear. "Speak up and 'specify' yourself." While we only mention this one member of the club especially, all others are busy, too, and are making splendid headway.

Condemn Cheap Newspaper

Ithica (N. Y.) News. There is not much weeping over the passing of the dollar-a-year weekly newspaper. Most readers appreciate the fact that a decent living cannot be made by the publisher under existing conditions. We honestly believe the majority of intelligent people condemn the publisher who is afraid to demand a reasonable remuneration for his labor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wiggins and little daughter were in Pickens Tuesday.

A Confession

(James Edwin Kerr in Columbia State)

I wish I were a boy again— This grown-up life's a cheat; I want to paddle thru the rain— I want to go "bare feet."

I want to feel the funny grass Come trickling thru my toes; I hate this front of bluff and brass— I hate these "Sunday" clothes!

I wish I had my old big hat And fishing rod— I wish That Johnnie Jones was here—hod drat! How we two boys could fish!

I'd love to sit there by the creek With no one 'round but him, And play and prank it for a week, And fish and fish and swim!

I wish I were a boy again— This grown-up life's a cheat; I want to paddle in the rain— I want to go "bare feet!"

The Pickens Oil Mill was sold at public auction Monday morning and bid in for $8,000 by R. E. Bruce representing the stockholders.
