Recommended by Doctor Cothran

Dr. T. E. Cothran is a well-known pharmacist of Alexis, Ala. And when he gets bilious or needs a purgative medicine, what do you suppose he does? Out of his whole big stock of liver medicine he selects and uses Granger Liver Regulator. He says "There is none better." That's a pretty strong endorsement, don't you think, from a man who knows all about the merits of the different medicines on the market? Granger Liver Regulator is purely vegetable, does not grip nor irritate the delicate lining of the stomach and bowels and always gives quick and pleasant results. It is the best system purifier known. Your druggist can supply you—25c for large box. Accept no substitute.

HOGWALLOW

MISS GONDOLA HENSTEP was smiled at by a bachelor near Bounding Billows one day last week, and she is planning to pass there again soon.

Atlas Peck believes there is a fine opening for some good, energetic English sparrows to build a nest at his home since the chimney has got to leaning away from the house.

Clab Hancock, who dropped from sight some time ago, when he married a widow near Bounding Billows, has regained his self control and is again coming into public view.

Raz Barlow is in receipt of a letter that was forwarded to him from Tickville without extra cost.

Hogwallow is improving in spite of the European war, Tobe Moseley having built a calf shed last week.

Luke Mathewsia, who has been in the feather business for several years, will discontinue that line this season and engage in some heavier work.

The kinks are being taken out of the road leading from Hogwallow to Tickville since the quart-a-month likker law went into effect.

Raz Barlow spent one day last week in Tickville and took dinner at a restaurant where a square meal was served. The proprietor advertised all a person could eat for 25 cents, but after Raz left he took down the sign.

Poke Eazley and his wife have been having trouble again. She got the best of it, as it is her third husband.

There is some talk of another store being started at Rye Straw. The storekeeper, who has been operating there for several years, is not in favor of it, as he needs all the business himself.

The Blind Man of the Calf Ribs neighborhood will take his fiddle and go to Tickville next Monday. The last time he went business was dull, as he got only three plugged nickels.

There seems to be considerable uneasiness among the public here of late, as two strangers passed through Hogwallow this week.

The directors of the Tickville railroad are going to call a meeting to vote bonds for the extension of their road about ten feet at the Tickville terminus.

While business was dull this week the proprietor of the store at Rye Straw figured it out that there is not much money in running a store unless there is a profit made on nearly everything sold.

Musket Ridge is some taller every summer on account of Jefferson Potlocks' corn crop.

It was believed for a while last week that Little Fiddity Flinders had been bitten by a mad dog, but it later developed that he had been eating soap.

Eight years ago this spring the Hogwallow Improvement Association appointed Atlas Peck a committee to investigate and report on whether or not the school house needed repairs; and after a thorough and lengthy consideration, coupled with a determined investigation, he is now about ready to report at the association's next meeting. Each year since he was appointed he has worked diligently on the job of investigation by tireless observation, and the public has such confidence in his ability that they are sure to abide by his recommendations, whatever they may be. While Mr. Peck will not give out the full text of his report, he having not quite completed it in all of its thorough detail, it is reported that there are no repairs especially needed at the outset of his appointment eight years ago, complications have since arisen which will necessitate certain improvement at no distant day. Therefore he will not do like some committees and ask for further time on the matter, as was predicted. Mr. Peck has the hearty co-operation of the community at large, and is to be commended upon his deliberate action in the case.

Local and Personal

Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Wiggins of Columbia spent some time in Pickens last week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hendricks. Mr. Wiggins was formerly pastor of the Methodist church here, and both have many friends here who were delighted to see them.

According to instructions received by him, Chief of Police Nealey has been appointed building inspector of Pickens. It will now be necessary for all persons in town to get a permit before beginning work on a building of any kind or making repairs on any building.

As the third of June will come on Sunday this year, the usual basket picnic given by the U. D. C. to the old soldiers will be at the court house on Saturday, June 2. A good speaker is promised and a large crowd is expected. A full program will be given later.

Among those from Pickens county who are attending the officers' training camp at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., are Prof. Andrew Bramlett of Clemson College, H. R. Chapman and J. W. Hunter of Liberty, W. B. Johnson and Paul B. Robinson of Easley, W. C. Hodges of Pickens.

Presiding Elder Turnipseed will preach at the Pickens Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11.15 and will hold the second quarterly conference immediately after preaching service. The presiding elder will also preach at Bethlehem church next Saturday morning and Sunday afternoon.

The Glenwood mill baseball team defeated the Pickens team on the Pickens mill diamond last Saturday by a score of 14 to 5. It was an off-day for the home team, while the visitors seemed to be going at top speed. Glenwood has one of the best teams which has been to Pickens in several years.

Rev. John T. Mann in Pickens

Rev. John T. Mann, the blind evangelist, and wife will spend the month of May in Pickens county and will fill the following appointments:

Third Sunday—Mountain View, 11 a. m.; Secona, 3 p. m.; First Baptist church, Pickens, 8 p. m.

Fourth Sunday—Crossroads, 11 a. m.; Georges Creek, 3:30 p. m.; Glenwood, 8 p. m.

If for any reason the above appointments do not suit the church and pastor, please notify me at once so we can make a change. Any other church not mentioned in the above list which would like to have a visit from Bro. Mann, if they will write to me at once I will arrange for him to make an appointment. Brother and Sister Mann are great workers in protracted meetings and if any of the churches and pastors desire their help in meetings, please write me at Easley, or Bro. Mann at Belton, S. C.
