

JUNE 15 IS THE LAST DAY FOR BUYING LIBERTY BONDS

GOVERNOR MANNING JOINS LIBERTY BOND COMMITTEE IN URGING PEOPLE OF SOUTH CAROLINA TO ACT QUICKLY

Columbia, S. C.—(Special)—June 15 is the last day upon which Liberty Loan bonds can be purchased; and between now and that day, it will be necessary for the state of South Carolina to finish raising her allotment, which now is ten millions of dollars.

In the great drive that was instituted on registration day, June 5, about twenty-five per cent of this amount was subscribed; but there still remains a remnant to be taken in spite of the very vigorous work which has been going on since that day in every part of the state.

People in the cities, towns and country districts are realizing more and more the great responsibility that rests upon our people to take up all the bonds that have been assigned us; and in the closing days of the campaign, there has been a series of short and powerful drives instituted that will very probably result in the desired total.

In every section, there have been speakers provided for every kind of occasion. At the cotton mills and other industrial plants, the operators are being addressed at the noon hour; speeches are being made in the picture shows between films; and wherever a crowd is gathered, a speaker is being provided to carry on the task of Liberty Bond education.

The women of the state have taken hold of the idea with great enthusiasm. They have been quicker to see the possibilities for saving and for thrift than the men in many instances; and now the slogan, "A bond in every home," and its running mate, "Buy a bond for baby" may be heard on every side wherever women are gathered.

Mrs. Richard I. Manning, the first lady of the state, has been giving much of her time and efforts toward the sale of the bonds in the capital recently. In connection with her work in the Woman's League for National Defense, she has directed her forces to do all in their power to carry the idea of the bonds into the homes and interest the women in the movement. Her committee on registration day manned the registration booths and did missionary work on every hand among those who registered and those who looked on.

The Liberty Loan committee has calculated that the money paid for a fifty dollar bond, the smallest denomination that can be secured, will equip one soldier for the front; or it will buy sixteen shelter tents, accommodating thirty-two men; or buy eight pair of army blankets; or provide a thousand rounds of ammunition; or furnish three standard rifles. The sum of $500 will keep a soldier at the front for a year.

It is believed that when a man realizes that his money is put to very definite use in fighting the battles of the country he will be much more willing to put up the ready cash.

And further than that, every man should realize that he is not making a donation of fifty or a hundred dollars when he buys a bond. For he gets in return a government certificate that is much better than the five dollar bill that he has in his pocket. He can keep the five dollars for ten years and be none the richer; but if he keeps a Liberty Bond for ten years, it is working all the time, and bringing in more money for him.

And at any time that a man wants to secure ready money for the bond, all he has to do is to take it to any bond broker, who will buy it outright, or to a bank and secure a loan equal to the face value of the bond without a moment's delay. By special ruling of the treasury department recently, any bank can negotiate a paper that has Liberty Loans for collateral, through the Reserve Bank, whether the bank is a member of the reserve system or not.

Millions of government money are being brought into the state of South Carolina because of the war. The farmers are getting the benefit of it and the cities are also getting the benefit of it. It will be gross ingratitude if the citizens of the state are not willing to subscribe their part towards the loan which makes these expenditures possible.

It will be impossible to buy a bond from the government out of the first of the present bond issue after Friday. All who wish to invest must do so immediately so that the local bank may get the application through without a moment's delay.

South Carolina is expecting all her sons to do their full duty.

Newton-Maxwell

The wedding bells were ringing very gaily in Pickens last Wednesday. They began at half past seven, on Hampton Avenue, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Marion Newton, when Mr. John H. Maxwell led Miss Clara Newton to hymen's altar. Rev. J. C. Bailey of Liberty was the officiating minister who performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few friends.

Mr. Maxwell is a son of the late G. K. Maxwell of Walhalla and is an engineer on one of the Blue Ridge railway passenger trains. He is a handsome young man of more than ordinary good qualities and his pretty bride is remarkable for her sweetness of character and many christian graces. She is the youngest of Mrs. Newton's fourteen children.

Immediately after the ceremony they started on an auto trip to Asheville and other points of interest in Western North Carolina, after which they will be at home in Anderson.

May they live a long, useful and happy life.

Baker-Yongue

A wedding of unusual interest on account of the wide number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties was that of Miss Ruby Baker to Dr. Douglas Yongue, which took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. B. C. Baker, in Pickens last Wednesday morning, June 6, at 7.30 o'clock, Rev. D. W. Hiott officiating.

Only a selected number of invited guests and immediate relatives were present. The home was beautifully and tastefully decorated for the occasion, and Miss Edna Earle served delightful punch to the guests on the front porch. Miss Elinor Knight played the wedding march.

Mrs. Yongue is one of Pickens' fairest and most charming young ladies. She taught in the Pickens school last session and her friends are many among both young and old.

Dr. Yongue is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Yongue of Pickens and is a young man of fine character and commendable traits. He is a graduate of the Charleston College of Pharmacy and is at present connected with the Pickens Drug Co. These young people have both been reared here in Pickens and have unnumbered friends who have known them since childhood and who wish them all that is best in life.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for a bridal trip to Charleston and other points. They will keep house on Hampton avenue in Pickens.

Craig-Alexander

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred in Pickens last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. M. Craig, when her daughter, Miss Ada, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank E. Alexander of Anderson.

Quite a large concourse of relatives, together with friends and pupils of the bride, were present. Precisely at five o'clock Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed forth and ten young girls preceded the bride and groom, forming a "body guard" on the wide porch. The bride and groom stood beneath a lovely arch of green and white, presenting quite a handsome appearance as they stood facing Rev. D. W. Hiott, the officiating minister, and the crowd assembled in the front, on the porch and beneath the beautiful green trees and shrubs on the lawn. Immediately after the ceremony they were the recipients of hearty congratulations. Delicious block cream, cake and mints were served by the "pretty ten."

The bride looked unusually lovely in her handsome going-away suit of cadet gray with navy blue and persian trimmings, and hat, gloves and shoes to match. She is a woman of lovely character, a winning disposition and deep christian fortitude. For a number of years she has been teaching school in various sections of the county and numbers her friends by her acquaintances.

Mr. Alexander is a native-born Pickensite, his parents having lived in the eastern part of this county twenty-five years ago, but for several years he has been living in Anderson, where he is in the real estate business. He has a most affable disposition, winning the admiration of all with whom he comes in contact.

At about half past six the bridal party left for their home at College Place, Anderson, carrying with them the best wishes of many friends for their future happiness.

Allgood-O'Dell

Married, June 7, at the home of the bride's father in Liberty, Miss Vivian Allgood to Mr. Durward O'Dell, Rev. D. W. Hiott performing the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Joel Allgood and is a lady of fine christian character and clever mind, while the bridegroom is a popular traveling salesman and a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. O'Dell. The wedding was of great interest on account of the prominence of the contracting parties and it binds closer together two of our most prominent families. Many friends are offering congratulations.

Cochran-Boggs

A wedding which was rather a surprise to friends in Pickens was that of Miss Myra Louise Cochran and Mr. Paul P. Boggs, which occurred at the home of the bride's mother at Calhoun last Wednesday, June 6, Rev. W. H. Mills officiating.

Both these young people are well known in Pickens. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Alice Cochran, is a graduate of Winthrop College and a successful school teacher. She taught last term at Honea Path. She is an accomplished and charming young lady.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. M. E. Boggs of Nimmans and a brother of Mesdames J. N. Hallum and W. F. Mauldin of Pickens, and is a splendid young man. He is a graduate of the Presbyterian College of South Carolina and expects next year to pursue his ministerial studies at the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Boggs are at present keeping house in Charlotte, N. C., where he holds a position, and numerous friends are offering congratulations.

Gilstrap-Martin

Miss Lillie Gilstrap and Dr. J. A. Martin were married at the home of the bride's parents near Pickens on Tuesday, June 5, Rev. J. R. Copeland officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Gilstrap and a young lady of many charming manners, while the bridegroom is a prominent citizen of Cowpens, where they will make their home.

Immediately after the ceremony they left on a bridal tour to Washington and other points.

Many friends offer congratulations.

Gantt-Hubbard

On Thursday morning, June 7, at the home of the bride's parents at Liberty, Miss Mary Gantt became the wife of Mr. Robert C. Hubbard of Seneca, Rev. D. W. Hiott officiating. Miss Gantt is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gantt, while the bridegroom is a prosperous young farmer and both are very popular. They have congratulations of hosts of friends.

Cassell-King

Married, Thursday afternoon, May 31, 1917, at the residence of Rev. T. E. Durham in Easley, the officiating minister, Mr. Addison King and Miss Ora Cassell, both of Alice Mill. The happy couple have the congratulations of their many friends.

The Irishman's Story

Most everybody is familiar with the Irishman's story. A merchant told him that a curry comb was half feed, and the Irishman said "By faith, I'll just take two and save the whole feed bill."

Never before can we remember when it was more necessary to economize on feed than now. Keep your stock in good health by feeding Blackman's Medicated Salt Brick. We have on hand a large, fresh lot. No trouble to feed, just put brick in trough and the trick is done.

We also carry International Stock Food in packages or loose in pails. We have many customers who will have nothing else for hogs.

Conkey's Poultry Tonic is a good, honest poultry food, 25c per package.

We have on hand a lot of Flour Pots in different sizes, also some home-made churns. Churns have been real scarce the last few months. Call and inspect our line.
