Going to Church a Good Habit, Says Champ Clark. Go to Church

In a letter to Edwin B. Lord, secretary of the Massillon (O.) chamber of commerce, who conducted a "GO TO CHURCH" campaign, Champ Clark says that he doesn't know of a better place that people could be on Sunday than in church. A reproduction of Speaker Clark's letter follows.

THE SPEAKER'S ROOMS
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Mr. Edwin B. Lord,
Massillon, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

I do not know of a better place that people could be on Sunday than in church. Going to church is a good habit.

Your friend,

Champ Clark

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. R. R. Roark is visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bright, at Northumberland, Pa.

We received an account of the Childress-Clyde wedding too late to publish this week. It will appear next week.

Olin Craig, a good stock raiser who lives over on Keowee, sold one of his 11-months-old Hereford bulls to Elbert E. Perry of near Easley this week for $100.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Hendricks and small son of Liberty were in Pickens Monday. Mr. Hendricks says his prospects for a good crop are far better now than last year.

Miss Rachael Dickinson, who has been making her home in Pickens for the past year or so, has gone to Pendleton, where she will make her home with her niece, Mrs. James Hunter.

Frank E. Hitt, 45 years of age and a resident of Greenville, dropped dead on South Main street in that city last Thursday night. He was a brother of John Hitt of Pickens county.

During an electrical storm Saturday lightning killed a mule and severely shocked another mule and a cow belonging to John S. Gilstrap, who lives on C. L. Cureton's place near Pickens.

Mrs. Ivy Mauldin and daughter have gone to Columbia to join Mr. Mauldin and make their future home there. Mr. Mauldin was recently made vice-president of the largest bank in Columbia.

The Pickens Township Singing convention will meet at the Wolf Creek school house next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Good leaders are expected and everybody invited to come and bring songbooks.

Miss Olive Boggs Newton of Pickens is the guest this week of her sister, Mrs. O. T. Hinton. Miss Newton has just returned from Stateburg, S. C., where she has been engaged in teaching the past session.—Easley Progress.

We see by the Greenville papers that Edd Bowen of Pickens has been winning some more orator's medals at Furman University. Mr. Bowen has won about all the medals for oratory at the university during his four years there. He was a member of the class which graduated this month.

T. Riley Allen has returned from a trip to Chickamauga Park, near Chattanooga, Tenn., where he visited his son, Roy, who is a member of Uncle Sam's regular army. While there Mr. Allen says he also saw several other Pickens county boys, all of whom seemed to be getting along well.

Mr. Horace Davis is at his home in Pickens recuperating from an operation in which he had an eye taken out. Several years ago the head of a nail which Mr. Davis was driving flew off and struck him in the eye and it has since been giving him trouble until recently it became necessary to have the eyeball taken out.

Israel Ferguson, one of Pickens county's most prominent colored citizens, is arranging a meeting to be held in Pickens on Saturday, June 16, for the purpose of arousing colored people to the necessity of growing and saving food-stuffs. Both white and colored speakers are expected and everybody is asked to attend.

For the second time within a few months, a dog last week visited the chicken yard of Mrs. J. L. O. Thompson and killed chickens and geese. This time it killed ten chickens and three geese and injured several other chickens. Last March it killed twelve geese, five ducks, two turkeys and a rooster. All of the chickens were valuable, one rooster being valued at $5.

Mrs. W. F. Hendricks, a good lady of Oolenoy, was in town Monday to secure 1000 cans for her daughter, Merle, who is a member of the county canning club and who last year won first prize in the tomato club work. Miss Merle expects this year to put up many beans and her prospects for a successful season are bright. Mrs. Hendricks did not forget ye editor and wife, but presented us with a fine mess of snap beans, which we greatly appreciate, especially so since a recent hard rain washed away our early ones.

The following item from the Newberry Herald and News of June 5 will prove of interest to many friends and relatives of Mr. C. W. Garrett in Pickens county: "Howdy, Central; give us Heaven, please." We just wanted to phone that the manager of the Newberry office of the Southern Bell Telephone company—Mr. W. C. Garrett—had a little angel come down to his home Friday morning, and the phone bells rang gladly and harmoniously from telephone to telagirl and the Bell Telephone people had a good time telling it, no doubt.
