"My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty."

FAMOUS Crosses—
Red—
Iron—
Double—

THE best thing out—a big fire.

WHAT we need is a smashing big navy.

THE next real big stop is Fourth of July.

THE Red Cross ladies are sew-sew, thank you.

CRANKS are men who make other people think.

WE trust that President Hung of China will not be.

You certainly must have the dough to have biscuits these days.

WHENEVER a musician gets a bright thought he makes a note of it.

THE Kaiser's moustache is still turned up, but his spirit is drooping.

THE U. S. didn't begin this war, but we have an idea she is going to finish it.

You can't tell from the size of a woman's mouth how many hairpins it will hold.

THE British probably think that if they ever capture Lens they will be able to see Germany's finish.

AND just to think that all these years we've been sending missionaries to China instead of Germany.

WE are thinking of writing a play and calling it "Prespiration." It would have a great run this summer.

SOME folks, we notice, are more concerned about doing their fellowmen than they are about doing their bit.

You bet your best boots
This is a nice land,
But this weather makes
Us long for Iceland.

"WOMAN is a silent power in the land", warbles a magazine writer. This will be news to many married men.

THE Rev. Mr. Pidgeon, who has been elected president of the Association of Rotary clubs, is most likely some kind of a bird.

A MAN who is trying but is unable to pay his debts is to be helped; a man who is able but will not pay his debts is a thief.

WHEN making up a list of books to take to the mountains with you, don't forget old Col. Pocketbook if you want to have a good time.

A New York physician says "it is dangerous to go into the water after a hearty meal." And we presume if he did go in after one he wouldn't find it.

At the request of agents of the government and for the information of our readers The Sentinel is publishing the names of all persons in Pickens county who registered for selective draft. About half the names are published this week. The others will appear next week.

OUR WEEKLY RIDDLE.—Who may marry a wife and yet remain single all his life?
A clergyman.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

We're all just people after all,
We all compose the masses
I think it's queer how we arrange
Ourselves in little classes

THE Greensboro, Ga., Herald-Journal knows when a man is happy. It says: The happiest man on earth has been discovered in an adjoining county. He has six fiddles, ten children, five hounds, a deaf and dumb mother-in-law, and a moonshine still that the government can't get to.

Rev. D. W. Hiott, of Easley, has no cause to complain of hard times. He performed about a half dozen marriage ceremonies week before last. Grooms generally pay the preacher in proportion to the value they place upon the bride. —Tugaloo Tribune.

That shows how little Editor Gossett knows about this marrying business. Bridegrooms never pay the parson in proportion to the bride's value. Now, if we had paid that way it would have taken all we ever have made or ever can make to pay the preacher.

WITH THE BRETHERN

How Long Have You Been Back?

Gaffney Ledger.
Wonder if Gary Hiott has suspended The Pickens Sentinel for the summer? We haven't seen a copy of that "funny sheet" since we got back home.

Back to the Farm

Greenville News.
The country cousins are beginning to receive letters from their city relatives. —Pickens Sentinel. In a little while they'll be receiving the relatives.

Come Over, Bro. Gossett

Tugaloo Tribune.
Move to Pickens if you want to marry. The Sentinel recorded eight weddings in its current issue, all among the best people of the town and county and all taking place within less than a week.

Water Suits Us

Jeffersonian.
Editor Gary Hiott of Pickens, says: "We will be present at the State Press meeting at Beaufort if the necessary arrangements can be made." We have been informed that a fish dinner will be served. Remember, Gary, fish do not swim in buttermilk.

Thanks!

Greenville News.
Editor Gary Hiott of The Pickens Sentinel says that after he gets up the local news for his paper, puts it in type by hand, prints the papers, mails them, washes the forms, distributes the type for the next issue of the "only paper in Pickens," does some job printing and book binding which he promised a month ago, sweeps out the office so that visitors can move around without falling down, he then writes his column of paragraphs. Well, the last is the best thing you do, Gary, although the rest is O. K.

You can readily see that Dry Goods are not near so high as they were several years ago. Compared with the price of cotton and other farm products today, cotton goods are the cheapest articles on the market.

With cotton selling today at 25c a pound, and liable to go higher, you can readily see that cotton goods are bound to go higher. We have a large stock of staple Dry Goods that will not be advanced in price 'till we have to replenish our stock.

Yours truly,

FOLGER, THORNLEY & CO.
