LOSENEARS in bloom!
 HUCKLEBERRY pie is ripe in Pickens!

WONDER what's happened to that net which was scheduled for this morn'g?

THIS is the last straw. On account the war the price of canary birds has w'n almost out of reach.

THIS swatting the fly business is about useless as swatting the trusts. The re you swat the worse they get.

RISH potatoes will soon be as common as in the old days. Saw a man use the other day for an oil can stopper.

EUROPEAN rulers should not complain out losing their jobs. Time was en they didn't get a chance to abdicate.

MR. HOOVER calls the food speculators skunks. Skinning a skunk is not a pleasant work; so we'll let Her-rt do it.

A MAGAZINE writer has an article on how I Think Middle Age Should Be T." Just stand still, brother, and it I meet you.

'CORN liquor makes good mint juleps' is a heading in the Anderson Mail. But where, O friend of mine, can the business end of a julep be found?

GREENVILLE NEWS says "The skeleton of a prehistoric man with a long tail and horns on the head has been unearthed in West Virginia." And yet West Virginia is a prohibition state.

REV. BAYLUS CADE of North Carolina has invented a new type-setting machine, for which he claims wonders. It is called the "Comptotype;" and, if it is as good a machine as Rev. Baylus is a poet and preacher, it will sure be SOME machine.

JAMES R. GRAY, editor of the Atlanta Journal, who died suddenly at his home last week, was one of that city's most progressive men. The Fourth Estate lost one of its most useful members and the south one of its ablest writers. Mr. Gray has made the Journal a power in southern journalism. It was he who coined the phrase for his paper, "It covers the south like the dew." Peace to his memory.

THE South Carolina Press association convened in Beaufort last Thursday and Friday and a great amount of important work was transacted. The date set for the next annual meeting was left with the executive committee to decide. The association tabled a resolution 23 to 12 favoring national home-dry prohibition as a war measure. The editors took President Wilson's view that the matter was not a war measure and therefore voted the resolution down. The association elected officers as follows: President, J. L. Mims of the Edgefield Advertiser; vice-president, A. B. Jordan of the Dillon Herald; second vice-president, H. G. Green of the Sumter Item; Joe Sparks of the Columbia State; secretary, B. P. Davies of the Barwell People; treasurer; chaplain, Rev. W. P. Jacobs of Clinton. The meeting was considered one of the most successful ever held.

OUR WEEKLY RIDDLE.—What is it that a gentleman has not, never can have, and yet can give to a lady?
 A husband.

SILLY WILLIE
 (Contributed)

Did you ever hear of anyone so silly
 As my little cousin Willie—
 How he used to treat with scorn
 The boys and girls who hoed the corn?
 Oh, how he laughed
 When he read the select draft!
 And he said 'twill do no harm—
 'I'll hide myself behind the farm."

So to school he quit going,
 Now the corn and peas he's hoeing;
 And he prates of patriotism
 While he hoes the crops that isn't
 'his'n."

Birthday Celebration
 We had the pleasure of attending a birthday dinner and family reunion at the home of Richard Fortner, near Pleasant Grove, Sunday, June 24, that date being Mr. Fortner's 78th birthday. A large number, composed of children, grandchildren, other relatives and friends of Mr. Fortner were present, and the occasion was a delightful one. At noon a long table was set out of doors in a pretty grove just back of Mr. Fortner's residence, loaded with all manner of tempting viands. Brief addresses were delivered by Messrs. J. M. Fortner of Greenville and W. W. Jolly of Pendleton; and then all were invited to help themselves—and say, didn't we tell you it was an enjoyable occasion? In the afternoon we were entertained with some delightful music until all too soon, other duties pressing, we had to disband and go our several ways. However, we hope God may continue to bless both Mr. and Mrs. Fortner with good health and that they both may celebrate many more birthdays. L. C.

Mrs. B. Lewis, of Easley, visited her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Boggs, Jr., last week.

NUX-IRON-PAW-PAW
3 POWERFUL FORCES IN 1

The New Remedy Now Known as Ironized Paw-Paw—The Tonic of the Twentieth Century, the Muscle Builder for Old and Young—Makes Beautiful Women and Strong Men.

THE FIRST DOSE PROVES ITS WORTH

"Iron Man" Receiving Orders

For years PAW-PAW was the only vegetable Pepsin known, and everywhere it was welcomed for indigestion and stomach trouble and has a record of 20 years of established dependability. Then the chemists discovered that IRON and NUX produced rich, red blood and steadied the nerves. After many trials IRON and NUX were combined with PAW-PAW, the result being a tonic of wonderful body-building qualities, plus a nerve steadier and a muscle developer. In other words, IRONIZED PAW-PAW is a combination of three well-known ingredients of real merit, and instead of getting the three you get the same results—if not better—in one dose of IRONIZED PAW-PAW.

Don't be grouchy, run-down or ruin your disposition by poor health. IRONIZED PAW-PAW is a constructive stimulant and can be taken by young and old. Call and get a free test and be convinced.

This reliable tonic, IRONIZED PAW-PAW, can be had at all drug stores. Formula on every bottle. Mail orders filled promptly.

On sale and recommended by Pickens Drug Co., where you can meet the "Iron Man," who will give you all information and advice you may need. You will be shown the right path to ultimate good health. You will never regret your decision to meet the "Iron Man." INTERSTATE DRUG CO., INC., NEW YORK.—Adv.

You can readily see that Dry Goods are not near so high as they were several years ago. Compared with the price of cotton and other farm products today, cotton goods are the cheapest articles on the market.

With cotton selling today at 25c a pound, and liable to go higher, you can readily see that cotton goods are bound to go higher. We have a large stock of staple Dry Goods that will not be advanced in price 'till we have to replenish our stock.

Yours truly,
FOLGER, THORNLEY & CO.

Farm Demonstration Agent T. A. Bowen has arranged, through Bivens & Co., to get another carload of cans which they will let the farmers have at cost, provided they get enough orders before July 10. Mr. Bowen asks that all who want cans please notify him or Bivens & Co., before July 10, how many they want.
