Boy Scouts Organized at Pickens

County Superintendent of Education Clayton has organized the Boy Scouts of Pickens and twenty-two members are enrolled. The boys seem enthusiastic and new members are expected all along. Officers have been elected, as follows: F. V. Clayton, scout master; Theo Smith, leader of Whipperwill Patrol; Ralph Parsons, leader of Bob White Patrol; Charlie Cureton, Jr., scout scribe. The Scouts meet every Monday and Thursday night. Prof. Clayton has had much experience in Boy Scout work, having organized the boys of several towns.

The Boy Scouts of America is a well-known and highly successful organization of this country and has many members. The aim of the organization may be found in its two slogans which are "Do a Good Turn Daily" and "Be Prepared." The three principles of Loyalty, Patriotism and Chivalry are instilled in Boy Scouts, and each member subscribes to the following oath: "On my honor I will do my best: To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the scout law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

The Pickens Scouts have already organized a baseball team and they expect to take a hike or two soon. No boy under twelve years of age may belong.

In each town where there is a Boy Scout organization there is a troop committee of three prominent citizens, who take an interest in the work and make suggestions for the benefit of the boys. The troop committee at Pickens consists of Judge T. J. Mauldin, Dr. F. S. Porter and J. P. Carey, Jr.

Remembered Ye Editor

We reckon people are too good to us but we like it just the same. As we were going home the other day J. D. Simmons hailed us and said he had something for us. It was a basket of a variety of luscious fruit. About the next day A. A. Pace came into the office and presented us with some of his good water-ground meal and flour, which for taste cannot be beat. Then about the next day L. D. Gravely brought us a peck of what he called jelly apples and they are about the finest cooking apple we ever saw. To these people we take off our hat and give three cheers. Their actions take us back to when we first went to working in a printing office and subscribers would often "drop in", with something for the editor. "Them was the good old days, too, boys."

We thank you each.

Hobbs-Henderson Co. Leaves

Hobbs-Henderson Co., who have conducted a store in Pickens the past two years, have sold the stock of goods to a Greenville mill store and will close their establishment here this week. Bivens & Co. will open a dry goods store in the room vacated. Earle Seaborn, who has been manager of the H.-H. Co. store here, will go to Central to manage a larger store for the same concern.

Mr. Seaborn states that his business here has been good, but that his company needs a manager for their large general store at Central, where they think they have a better field. There are many people in the town and community who regret to see Mr. Seaborn leave here, but who wish him success in his new field.

Robert L. Ambler Dead

Robert L. Ambler, son of the late James H. Ambler of Pickens county, died Thursday night at the Greenville hospital after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Ambler had been a resident of Greenville for the past 30 years. He is survived by one son, Hagood Ambler; also a sister, Mrs. Barrett of Washington, D. C.; two brothers, James L. Ambler and William H. Ambler of Pickens county, besides many relatives. The body was laid to rest in the Hagood burying ground above Pickens Friday, after funeral services conducted by Rev. E. T. Hodges.

Death of Alvy Griffin

The funeral and interment were held at Dacusville on the day following. Mr. Griffin was a member of the Dacusville Methodist church and was well thought of as an honest, christian man in the community.

Pickens County Bridges

Editor Pickens Sentinel:

Without reflections on anyone, I wish to say a few things about our bridges. Undoubtedly, the bridges of Pickens county are the worst in the state, unless we give thanks to the existence of Oconee county. The rule, and not the exception, seems to be bridges above the roadbed, middle spans below the roadbed with the planks heaped up—not nailed down—at irregular intervals. Going from Pickens to Liberty a short time ago, I had to stop and repair a bridge before I could cross. The bridge had fallen off one bank of the branch, three planks were out of place and the surroundings were such that you could not have forded the branch anywhere near.

Then, only yesterday, I started to a point six miles above Pickens. While crossing a bridge composed of four planks, one of the four tried for a heavenly flight, which was stopped only after tearing off a duspan and sitting a casing—and rubber is higher than nails. Why not have a nail or two in the bridge and save the expense of buying a crippled horse or an axle and wheel for an automobile?

There is a bridge about one-third of a mile from the Alice cotton mill which is a disgrace to any county in our country. Every time I cross this bridge with a stranger I say, "Here is the line between Pickens and Greenville county." This bridge is near Mr. Robinson's home, on the road from Pickens to Easley. Anyone having traveled from one place to the other distinctly remembers it. If this bridge is not rebuilt soon the county will have to pay for someone's life!

It is becoming so that anyone hates to go off the main street of a town! Personally, I feel sorry that I haven't a big life insurance policy every time I go to cross a bridge! If these bridges are not soon bettered there will be a clause in our life insurance policies which will read like this: "This company is not liable for accidents on Pickens county bridges." Let's fix these places or at least don't make them so doggone high that it is certain death for one to fall in!

O. B. BOGGS.

From Mr. Gilstrap

Editor Pickens Sentinel:

In the issue of The Sentinel for week before last I notice that you say that the mass-meetings which are being held in various parts of the county might do harm. In reply I want to say that the people have that right as guaranteed by the Constitution, the supreme law of the land. Let anybody who doubts this right of the people to assemble turn to Amendment I of the Constitution, which reads: "Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of the press or the right of the people to assemble peaceably and petition congress for a redress of grievances."

Now, this right of the people has never been denied before, during war or peace, and if we are to be deprived of it now, then our government is setting a bad example when it pretends to be fighting for "world democracy." To try to suppress these meetings either by intimidation or by any other means would be a step in the direction of having a dictatorship. A democratic government (if it is really democratic) should give the people this right, and we are not going to surrender this right to newspaper editors or anybody else.

No treason has been committed or advocated at any of these meetings. On the other hand, the meetings have been peaceable and the people have been advised to use lawful methods.

At our Cedar Rock meeting we even had the officers of the law with us one time and they decided that we did nothing which was unlawful. Let no one be afraid of attending these meetings. You can not commit treason by doing so. The Constitution plainly says what treason is—that it must be an overt act against the government. Get it clear in your heads now that you can not commit treason by anything you say or write. There is no law even to keep a man from criticizing the congress or the president; no, not even in times of war.

GERMANS BELITTLE AMERICAN TROOPS

Say They Will Prove Small Factor in Great Struggle—Claim Our Men Are Not Equal to Task.

DON'T KNOW WHAT THEY'RE UP AGAINST

It appears from news which leaked out of Germany, in spite of the unusually close censorship, that the German officials are telling their men and women that the American troops will cut little figure in the big war. If the German people knew what they were up against they would refuse to listen to such foolish assertions.

The funniest part of it is that they claim that Americans can't think quick enough. What a joke! That's our reputation—quick to think. The Germans will find that out soon enough. In the meantime, we at home should get ready for the big drive.

Of course we can't all go to the front but we can do our bit in just as important a manner right here at home. Let us keep fit to carry on the industries of the nation, till the soil, work the mines, and keep the ammunition flowing to the front in a steady stream.

Backaches must be gotten rid of; those stomach disorders such as indigestion, constipation, etc., must be eliminated; weak, anemic bodies must be made strong and vigorous; weak kidneys and bladder must be strengthened; in other words we must keep fit!

Acid Iron Mineral will keep you fit. It is not a patent medicine. It is a pure natural iron preparation obtained from the only natural iron mineral deposit of its kind known to the world. It aids digestion, increases weight, creates appetite, strengthens dormant muscles, brings a healthy color to the skin, and builds up the body in general; and is free from alcohol, will not injure or discolor the teeth.

Southern Railway System

An Ambition and a Record

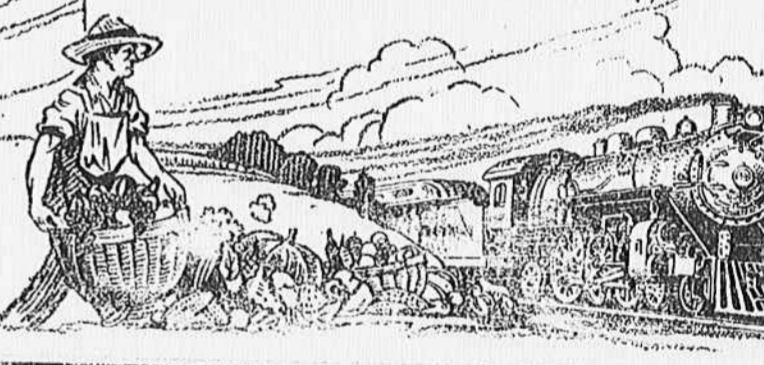

THE needs of the South are identical with the needs of the Southern Railway; the growth and success of one means the upbuilding of the other.

The Southern Railway asks no favors—no special privilege not accorded to others.

The ambition of the Southern Railway Company is to see that unity of interest that is born of co-operation between the public and the railroads; to see perfected that fair and frank policy in the management of railroads which invites the confidence of governmental agencies; to realize that liberality of treatment which will enable it to obtain the additional capital needed for the acquisition of better and enlarged facilities incident to the demand for increased and better service; and, finally—

To take its niche in the body politic of the South alongside of other great industries, with no more, but with equal liberties, equal rights and equal opportunities.

"The Southern Serves the South."
