"GANTT SELLS IT FOR LESS"

J. J. GANTT

Liberty, S. C.

Of Course

The price of most goods have advanced, but the farmer that gets about and has something to sell never feels the advanced prices, for he is constantly selling something that is advancing, too.

Our prices are not as low on a lot of goods as they were five years ago, but we are offering many excellent values all thru our stock, considering the present market price.

We want you to bring us what you have to sell and we will treat you right.

OOLENOY NEWS ITEMS.

OOLENOY, Sept. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Batson of Marietta, and Miss Margaret Ataway of Pickens, who is teaching near Marietta, spent last Sunday at the home of Hon. and Mrs. Matthew Hendricks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Vickery are spending some time with relatives at Six Mile.

Misses Jay and Williams of the graded school, spent Saturday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Crenshaw.

Miss Jennie Griffin, who has been spending some time in Anderson, is expected home.

Hal Hiott, of Easley, was in this section one day last week. Henry Hamilton, of the same place, is often seen here of late. Nothing remarkable in this. Nature has furnished this locality with many attractions to visitors. In both of the above mentioned, we understand, the object of interest is natural beauty.

Senator and Mrs. W. T. O'Dell of near Liberty, with their entire family of children and grandchildren, spent last Thursday at Table Rock. The children are: Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Ross O'Dell, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Allgood, Mr. and Mrs. Almo D. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Bowen.

Oolenoy was well represented at the picnic at Pickens on last Friday, in honor of the boys who went as members of the selective draft army. In numbers of instances the entire family went. All seemed anxious to be a part of the throng to wish our soldiers God speed on their journey. A number were from this section.

Large Crowd Says Goodbye to Soldiers

A crowd estimated at 2,000 men, women and children gathered in Pickens last Friday to do honor and bid Godspeed to the young men of Pickens county who were to leave next day for Camp Andrew Jackson at Columbia to enter the National army of the United States. Ninety young men were present ready to go, but only eighty were sent, which, by the way, was seven more than the county's quota.

It was a day the like of which has never before been seen in this grand old county. Mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters and sweethearts of the soldiers were present to give what encouragement they could and to let the boys know they loved them. It was no Fourth of July celebration nor a hip! hip! hurrah! meeting; neither was it a funeral occasion, but a serious and solemn affair, enshrouded with a certain kind of enthusiasm.

Long before time for the formal exercises to begin the court house was crowded and when the meeting was called to order hardly half the people could get in, tho the house was packed and jammed.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. D. W. Hiott. J. P. Carey, Jr., made the first and brief address and introduced Dr. John E. White of Anderson, the principal speaker of the day. He came here with a big reputation and he added to it with a masterpiece of eloquence and information. It is safe to say that no address ever made in Pickens surpassed that delivered by Dr. White on this occasion. To try to reproduce even a part of it in cold type would detract from it. He went back forty years and told step by step how Germany had made preparations to become a world empire, and how she brought this war on. He said that a year ago he was opposed to the United States entering the war, but showed how events had shaped themselves so that this country could not remain out of the war and retain its liberty. Defined autocracy and democracy, and said if Germany should emerge from the war victorious all countries would from necessity become autocracies, while if the United States and the Allies won all countries would become democracies. It is a fight for world-wide democracy and the right of the people to rule themselves. Predicted the war would end before next September. The speaker was frequently interrupted by applause and closed with an ovation.

C. E. Robinson next introduced J. P. Carey, Sr., who delivered one of those addresses for which he is famous—full of meat, practical and "soaks in." His talk was of an encouraging nature to the boys, and we haven't the least doubt but that they will make better soldiers for it. He told the boys how well Uncle Sam treated his soldiers and what Uncle Sam expected of them. He was vociferously applauded.

E. P. McCravey made a short talk and corrected several erroneous reports which slackers had attempted to circulate.

Rev. H. K. Williams dismissed the audience with prayer, after which a picnic dinner was served on a large table in the court house grove.

At 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon the court house was again overflowed with people to hear the roll of soldiers called and see the presentation of comfort bags and razors to the boys. The comfort bags were made by good ladies in all sections of the county and filled with articles which will be useful to the boys in camp life. Mrs. J. P. Carey, Jr., presented them in a most graceful and charming manner. Rev. D. W. Hiott then made a short presentation speech and gave to each soldier a safety razor, presents of the men of Pickens. The new soldiers were then asked to stand up so the audience could see them. They were given the chautauqua salute, hand shakes and were hugged and cheered to the echo. People from every part of the county were here and it was a great day—a history-making one—and one which will be long remembered.

Miss Ethel Roper Dead

Miss Ethel Roper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roper, died at the home of her parents near Cross Roads church September 23 and was buried at Tabor church the day following. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. W. Hiott in the presence of many relatives and friends. Ethel was nearly 13 years old and was a good child. Her mother said she was so helpful to her; so kind and good to the other children. May God comfort the hearts of the sorrowing loved ones.

County School Notes and Information

There will be a meeting of the trustees and patrons of Palestine school district No. 26 October 4 at 2 o'clock. The object of this meeting is to discuss ways and means of having a better school. We wish that every man, woman and child that is interested in the welfare and uplift of their community will be present and take an active part in the meeting.

There will be a meeting of the trustees, patrons and friends of Bethlehem school district October 3 at 2 o'clock. The object of this meeting is to discuss the propriety of building a new school house and also running the school a longer term. All are earnestly requested to be present and help devise methods of building up their school.

The regular teachers' examination will be held Saturday, October 6. The examinations will begin promptly at 9 o'clock, and I urge that all be present promptly with pen and paper.

An applicant attaining an average of 80 per cent, with not less than 50 per cent on any one branch shall receive a first grade certificate.

An applicant attaining an average of 70 per cent, with not less than 45 per cent on any one branch, shall receive a second grade certificate.

An applicant attaining an average of 60 per cent, with not less than 40 per cent on any one branch, shall receive a third grade certificate.

In estimating for a second or third grade certificate on first grade questions, algebra need not be included, unless it be to the applicant's advantage.

County Supt. Education.

Davis-Merck

Miss Florie Davis and Mr. Noah Merck were married at the home of J. R. Davis on Sunday, September 16, W. S. Gantt, N. P., performing the ceremony. The bride was most becomingly dressed in blue satin with white trimming. Many presents were received. As this is written the happy couple are on their honeymoon.

The bridegroom is one of our substantial citizens and the bride is a most popular young lady. Both have many friends who are offering congratulations.

REDBIRD.

Boroughs-Bolt

A marriage of much interest in this section was that of Miss Hattie Boroughs to Rev. Will J. Bolt, which took place at the home of the bride's brother, Claud C. Boroughs, at Norris, Tuesday, September 18, Rev. J. L. Willis performing the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of the late James Boroughs of the Praters section of Pickens county and is a noble young lady of many charms. The bridegroom is a young Baptist minister and is now taking a course in the Southern Baptist Theological seminary at Louisville, Ky. He formerly lived in Pickens, conducting a drug store here, and is a nephew of Dr. J. L. Bolt of Easley.

For the next year or more they will make their home in Kentucky.

MARRIAGE AT CATEECHEE.

The officiating officer, J. Alonzo Brown, N. P., says he is by advertising in a newspaper like the little boy was when his mama told him she was going to whip him, and the little fellow replied he would believe it when he saw the result and felt the effects.

After our notice in The Sentinel last week about the old matrimonial mill having been put in first class shape for business and Mr. Jay Green of Central seeing the notice and having a "turn" ready, decided to try the old mill. Securing a public service car wended his way to the old mill on last Sunday, Sept. 23, about 11 a. m. After arriving Mr. Jay Green and Miss Ida Perkins were soon made man and wife. The old miller's "toll box" is a little heavier and we take it for granted that the public service man's treasury has been replenished. All parties are of Central.

PICKENS BOY MAKING GOOD.

C. E. Robinson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Robinson, of Pickens, has recently been elected a director and treasurer of the newly organized Citizens Trust Co., of Greenville. Speaking of Mr. Robinson in this connection the Greenville News says: "Chas. E. Robinson comes to the Citizens Trust Co., October 1st from the firm of Gillfillin & Houston, where he has had several years' experience in his line of work. He will be manager of all insurance lines represented by the Citizens Trust Company, other than life insurance. Mr. Robinson came to Greenville from 'The State of Pickens' and has made his home in Greenville ever since. He is well posted in his line of work, and a man of no small ability."

Central Local and Personal News Items

*The Red Cross Chapter here is not auxiliary to any other county. We have a Pickens county chapter, and I am informed by our chairman that we have for our territory, Central, Norris, Six Mile and Calhoun and Liberty. Why not Pickens county be represented at the front as such, and not be lost in some other county?

Those who went to the patriotic meeting at Pickens from here were: J. R. Falls, Dr. L. G. Clayton, Joe Werner, Garvin Smith, R. G. Gaines, Misses Ethel Clayton and Myrtle Dunwoody.

There are more ways to make your hair stand on its end than a pompadour. The best way is to hear John E. White of Anderson, deliver his patriotic address.

From the throng of people on Main street here last Saturday one would have almost mistaken it for Pennsylvania Avenue or Broadway.

There were fifteen bales of cotton sold here last week. The highest price paid was 23 and one-fourth cts., per pound. Oh you farmer.

Miss Ida McAlister, daughter of S. A. McAlister, who is a prominent farmer here, returned from Charlest recently, where she is in charge of the Y. W. C. A. of Confederate College. Miss McAlister had accepted a position at Anderson College as head of the Home Economics Department.
