VERILY, Sherman was right about war. Brown's Mule has gone up to fifteen cents a plug.

BOESCHE'S German syrup may be a good medicine, but just now that is not a very popular name.

OUR WEEKLY RIDDLE.—What is it that is queer about flowers? They shoot before they have pistols.

"WHEN the American people decided to enter the war, all discussion of the propriety of that entrance must cease."—William Jennings Bryan.

SENATOR TILLMAN says he will run for re-election if the people "conscript" him. We fear Uncle Ben is past the age limit.

SCORE one point for Old Mather-Eve; She never said, "I gotcher, Steve!"

FROM reports it seems that when Governor Manning appointed Mr. Fortner a whiskey constable in Greenville county he got the right man to help put it down.

Editor Williams of Greensboro, Ga., opines that "the wooden-legged man has one consolation; he can tuck his socks up and avoid the high cost of buying garters."

THE U. S. government is going to make all German newspapers published in this country print their news and editorials in English. This doesn't affect Mr. Hearst, however, as he printed his in English before.

ALL subscribers to The Sentinel whose subscriptions expired on or before October 15 were sent notices to that effect. We suppose those who paid no attention to the notices do not want the paper any longer and we will act accordingly.

SOMETIMES we feel like we don't care if the boat never lands, but just about that time we happen to think that we have not yet seen Rion McKissick all dolled up in his colonel's uniform and astride his trusty steed, and it makes us feel like we still have something to live for.

WATSON BELL of the Spartanburg Journal, who avers that the Bible starts off with the expression, "In the beginning," will no doubt find comfort in Genesis VI, 4, "There were giants in the earth in those days."—Greenville News. But they didn't have Benton and Schupp pitching for them.

We regret very much that we were unable to see Watson Bell when we passed thru Spartanburg last week. However, we inquired about him and also regretted to learn that since Bell has gone back to Spartanburg he has got so mean that he has to tote a rabbit in his pocket to make his dog follow him.

SUBSCRIBERS, dear, And did you hear The Sentinel editor shout? Our pants are worn Until they're torn And the seat has given out! Come in today And to us pay Subscription in advance, And we'll be glad Instead of sad, And maybe we will dance.

We feel real sorry for some supposed-to-be Democratic newspapers and politicians. Mr. Bryan has refused to oppose the administration in this war because he is a patriot and loves his country more than he loves office. His opponents had hoped he would join the pacifists and slackers and thus give them a chance to kill him politically again. The Colonel has been killed that way so often that he has become immune to it.

EDITOR'S CONFESSION

Our wife is gone. Gone to visit our mother-in-law. Gone back to the old home and the real cream. Back to the old oaken bucket and mud pies of memory. We are not saying this to make other men envious whose wives are not gone. But it is sort of a whistle to keep up courage. For a long time the opportunity to hang out all night and make a monkey of ourselves has looked good. Now, with no restraint on our conduct, no tearful wife waiting to throw her hooks into our hair, no one to lie to, nobody to pacify with artful inventions, no person to care a whoop whether we go to the bughouse or not, now that the very hour and moment is pregnant with witchery and our horoscope is psychologically correct for a period of debauchery, we get to sleep at 8.30 and mope off to bed like a mollusk. It is enough to drive an unostentatious drinker to the Keeley institute. Solo bath lost its charms and highballs are a mockery. We now pass up as natural the hundred or so disreputable things that a few days ago seemed so entrancing. If things had planned out as anticipated we would be an actor in the jollification drama instead of its playwright.

A GOOD PRINTER

Mr. Lewis Bartlett left Pickens Sunday for Hopewell, Va., where he goes to join his wife and two sons and they will make their home there. Mr. Bartlett has been a printer on The Sentinel for the past four years and we greatly regret to give him up. He is not only a good printer, but the steadiest one we ever saw, and a gentleman with it. He is also endowed with that rare but happy faculty of attending to his own affairs and letting other people attend to theirs. The best wishes of The Sentinel are with Mr. Bartlett at all times and wherever he may be.

CAPPS-GILSTRAP.

Miss Beulah Capps and Mr. Morris Gilstrap were married at the residence of and by J. B. Newbery on Sunday afternoon, October 7. The bride was most becomingly dressed in blue and white. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple hurried to the home of the bridegroom's parents, where a bountiful repast was awaiting them. Only a few friends and relatives were present. The bride is a charming young lady of the Cross Roads section and the bridegroom is a splendid young man of the George's Creek community. Both have many friends who are offering congratulations. One Present.

M. E. Church's Pastor Praises Iron Remedy

Doctors Had Almost Given His Daughter Up to Die—No One Thought She Could Live.

WAS A LIVING SKELETON

Through Use of Acid Iron Mineral Daughter Was Restored to Health, Says Rev. C. B. Newton.

The following tribute to a medicine from Reverend Doctor O. B. Newton, Pastor M. E. Church, speaks volumes for the medicinal value of natural iron as it is now concentrated, tested, and bottled by the Ferrrodine Chemical Corp. under the name of Acid Iron Mineral. He said:

"My little girl suffered from gastritis, acute Bright's disease, and developed symptoms of pellagra. For several months she was an invalid and reduced almost to a skeleton. No one who saw her thought she could possibly live. The best medical skill available was applied but with no results. She only grew worse until physicians told us not to be surprised at her death at any time. Our attention was first called to a kidney and bladder pill and we gave her part of one fifty-cent bottle, after which we gave her Acid Iron Mineral regularly. She is now well and has all her faculties well developed again and you would not guess she had ever had a sick day in her life by her appearance. We have recommended A-I-M to several friends and do most heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from any trouble which it claims to relieve." Respectfully, (signed) O. B. Newton, Pastor M. E. Church, South, Chatham Va.

Unlike many prepared remedies containing iron, Acid Iron Mineral does not act as a laxative, but the necessity of keeping the liver and bowels working normally being so apparent, the Ferrrodine Chemical Corp. puts up an A-I-M Liver Pill in 25c boxes which are recommended as part of the treatment when using Acid Iron Mineral. These little pills are the best we can recommend and are very inexpensive.

Note:—Acid Iron Mineral is just a highly concentrated form of natural medicinal iron, non-alcoholic and very economical. Whole families should take it. It never injures the teeth, goes from two to six times as far and is many times more powerful and efficient than other inferior preparations. A half teaspoonful in a tumbler of water after meals makes a delightful, invigorating and most unusual tonic, stomach, kidney, and bladder regulator. Cleansing the blood, enriching and purifying it, watch how quickly the appetite increases and the user gains weight. Most druggists sell Acid Iron Mineral in both a large and small size bottle. Get a bottle today.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

I did a foolish thing this week; I'm just ashamed as I can be—I'd like to call an echo names so it would call them back at me.

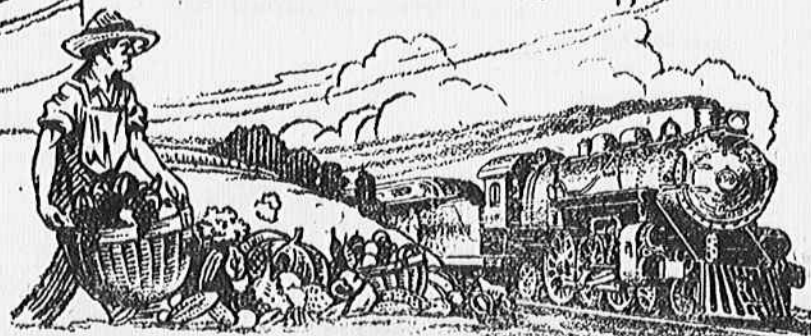

We've Quit.

Journal and Review. The corn crop in Pickens is reported to be the best in many, many years. Congratulations, Gary!

Southern Railway System

An Ambition and a Record
THE needs of the South are identical with the needs of the Southern Railway; the growth and success of one means the upbuilding of the other.
The Southern Railway asks no favors—no special privilege not accorded to others.
The ambition of the Southern Railway Company is to see that unity of interest that is born of co-operation between the public and the railroad; to see perfected that fair and frank policy in the management of railroads which invites the confidence of governmental agencies; to realize that liberality of treatment which will enable it to obtain the additional capital needed for the acquisition of better and enlarged facilities incident to the demand for increased and better service; and, finally—
To take its niche in the body politic of the South alongside of other great industries, with no more, but with equal liberties, equal rights and equal opportunities.
"The Southern Serves the South."

NEW FALL GOODS With Prices Right!

On account of the congestion in freight, our Fall Goods have been rather slow coming in, but they are beginning to arrive now, and we are receiving shipments of new goods by freight and express nearly every day.

We are glad to say that prices are not as high as we expected them to be, and taking into consideration the price of cotton they are not as high as they will doubtless be later.

A big majority of our Staple Dry Goods were bought last spring—all of it brand new, pretty stuff that we can sell you at old prices.

The Ready-to-Wear lines are as cheap, or cheaper, than last season, and we have bought a beautiful line of Shirtwaists to sell from 50c to $3.50. Skirts, in all colors and styles, from $2.00 to $8.50. Coat Suits from $10.00 to $32.50. Cloaks for children, misses and ladies from $2.00 to $16.50.

Watch for our fall announcement that will appear later, and remember we have bought the best merchandise that money can buy. Cheap goods in price means cheap in quality. It pays to buy the best. Pay more attention to quality in merchandise, for it means dollars in your pocket.

Yours truly,

FOLGER, THORNLEY & CO.
