7 More Days

On account of the large number of people who have told us and sent us word that they intended to take advantage of The Sentinel's special two-year subscription offer, but were unable to see us on account of the bad weather, we have decided to extend the offer one month. So during January we will accept two-year subscriptions at $2.50. This is open to old and new subscribers alike. More subscribers have already taken advantage of this offer than we expected, but we want all to have the same chance.

This Is Campaign Year

And of course you will want your county paper. If you are interested in the welfare of your county you can't afford to do without it. Then of course you want to keep up as much as possible with Pickens county boys in the army.

The Legislature Is In Session

And we expect to keep you posted on the things it does, especially that which affects Pickens county.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

D. H. Kennemur and J. M. Hunt, prominent citizens of Liberty, were business visitors here Monday.

B. A. Hagood of Pickens and Charleston was elected a trustee of the University of South Carolina last week.

Mr. James Wood of Murphy brought to The Sentinel office last week a gourd which is five feet and three inches long.

Until further notice Rev. E. T. Hodges will preach at the Pickens Mill church at 2:30 o'clock every fourth Sunday afternoon instead of 7:30 as heretofore.

Up to January 1, 1918, there had been 14,028 bales of cotton of the 1917 crop ginned in Pickens county, as compared with 14,646 of the same date last year.

Messrs. Ernest Folger of Pickens and W. W. Robinson of Easley are in New York this week buying spring and summer goods for their respective stores.

All dry goods and clothing stores in Pickens were closed Monday by order of the fuel administrator. They will also be closed every Monday during the next nine weeks.

Pickens Township Singing convention will meet with Secona church next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A new supply of song books is expected to be on hand at this meeting.

T. J. Mauldin was re-elected judge of the Thirteenth Judicial circuit without opposition by the legislature last week. He is considered one of the best judges in the state. He is holding court at Charleston now.

If the weather permits the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church will be held at the home of Mrs. W. T. McFall next Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Sallie Sutherland, who has been spending some months with her son, Homer, in Charlotte, N. C., has returned to Pickens to the pleasure of her many friends. Homer has joined the Mexican corps of the army.

We are sorry to state that Probate Judge Newbery slipped on the ice Sunday and was considerably bruised. He was unable to get to his office Monday morning, but no bones are broken and his hurts are not considered serious.

Mrs. Inez Crump, one of the teachers of the Pickens graded school, accidentally fell on the ice Sunday afternoon at the home of her father, W. C. Keith, a few miles out of town, and sustained quite a shock. She was unconscious for some time. Medical aid was summoned at once. No bones were broken and Sunday night she was resting quietly.

All cotton mills in Pickens county were closed down from last Friday morning until Wednesday morning—five days—in compliance with Fuel Administrator Garfield's coal-saving order. The Pickens and Easley mills paid their operatives half time during the five days. The other mills may have done the same thing, but we have not heard from them.

Married at the residence of Augustus Gantt at the Pickens Mill village, Sunday morning, Miss Mildred Bailey and Mr. Virgil Lewis, M. F. Hester, N. P., performing the ceremony in his usual happy and felicitous manner. After the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room where a splendid dinner was waiting and it made them forget all about the war.
