It Cost the Average Family Less Than 10c Per Week for Packer's Profit in 1917.

The Meat Bill is one of the large items in the family budget but less than 10 cents per week of it goes to the packer in profits.

In converting live stock into meat and getting it into the hands of the retail dealer, the packer performs a complex and essential service with the maximum of efficiency.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1918, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 7.

JESUS SETS MEN FREE.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 7:1-37.
GOLDEN TEXT—If the son, therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.
ADDITIONAL READING—Isa. 72:1-17.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Matt. 15:1-31, 11 Cor. 3:17, 18; Gal. 5:1-25.
PRIMARY AND JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus and the deaf man.
MEMORY VERSE—He hath a... all things well, he maketh even the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.—Mark 7:37.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—Christian Liberty.

This lesson deals with the last of those four events which mark the crisis in the life of our Lord at Capernaum. It occurred just before the third period of his Galilean ministry and the time of his final departure for Jerusalem. We have seen what the attitude of Jesus was toward the law of his nation. In this lesson we see his attitude toward the rabbinical traditions of the people which were the opinions of men and not the law of God. Just so many today look upon the forms and ceremonies of the church as being verily the law of God. Moreover, these traditions were made a pretext whereby men evaded the law. So today we find men very religious and punctilious in their churchly duties, who fall miserably in their application of the moral code to conduct. The analysis falls into four general divisions: One, the accusation, (vv. 1-5); two, the answer, (vv. 6-13); three, the application, (vv. 14-23); and four, the illustration, (vv. 24-37).

I. The Accusation. (vv. 1-5). The growing hatred of the Pharisees, led them to make long journeys from Jerusalem that they might spy on Jesus and find a pretext for accusation. While they were studying him, they revealed their ideas of the kingdom of God. They took special notice that the disciples of Jesus ate without washing their hands. We must not understand this to mean so much the removal of defilement, as the neglect of a ceremonial observance over which the Pharisees were punctilious, (vv. 3, 4). Verses three and four illuminate certain traditions to which the Jews adhered tenaciously. Thus exemplified we can see that their ideas of man's relation to God were largely a matter of external ceremony. Purity to them was an outward matter largely governed by the traditions of men, (v. 4).

II. The Answer. (v. 6-13). The answer of Jesus reveals the very opposite ideal. He begins by calling the Pharisees hypocrites. A hypocrite is a play actor—one who hides behind a mask. Applying the prophecy of Isaiah, Jesus plainly tells the Pharisees that they are hiding their true character behind the mask of ceremonial cleansing. Such play acting is but a poor imitation of the real heart condition demanded of God, (Psa. 51:10). Their hearts were far from God, even though with their lips they professed to serve him. The love we express to God consists not in ritualistic worship, but in doing his will from the heart.

III. The Application. (v. 14-23). Jesus takes advantage of this discussion, and, turning to the multitude, upon whom the Pharisees would bind a grievous burden of ceremonialism and falsehood (Matt. 23:4), warns them that it is not so much that which enters into a man that defiles him, as that which issues from him (v. 15). It seems quite natural that in their perplexity the disciples should ask Jesus what he meant by that. In his reply (vv. 18-23), Jesus shows very clearly that "the issues of life" (Prov. 4:23), reveal the corruption which is within. (See Matt. 12:34, 35; Gen. 6:5; James 3:10-12). If the heart be not cleansed, what will it avail if we wash the hands? What then is the application for this present day? Clearly we are taught the danger of lip service without a change of heart. Substituting good for the best is sin. Forms and ceremonies are good and have their place; they are significant for they are important teaching factors; but they must not be substituted for a pure heart. We must beware lest we hide behind such a mask.

There is here also plain teaching as to Jesus' estimate of the Pentateuch and inferentially of the prophecy of Isaiah. He specifically calls it "the Word of God." Surely we can accept his estimate as contrasted with the tradition of the elders or the "consensus of modern thought."

Less talk and more walk,
Less wishing and more doing,
Less preaching and more practicing,
Less organization and more of the spirit.

Finally, we have two illustrations as to how Jesus sets men free. (a) Jesus' silence appears to deepen faith in the pleading Syrophenician woman (v. 24-30).

(b) We have the cure of the deaf and the dumb man, (vv. 31-37); instantaneous healing, showing divine power.

Jesus was setting his people free from their bodily infirmities and at the same time delivering them from their sins and imperfections and bringing them into his spiritual Kingdom. This he is still doing.

ALMOST BLIND FROM DIZZINESS

This Virginia Lady Tells of Constant Suffering From Dreadful Backaches, Permanently Relieved by Cardui.

Norton, Va.—Mrs. E. S. Clouse, of this place, writes: "In about 1901 I seemed to get in bad health, I had been married about a year... I called in Dr. ... of ... who treated me ... and gave me medicine, which didn't do me any good. I suffered agony for about 4 months and felt I must have some relief, for I was so bad off that I was really unable to be up out of bed during all that time.

I could hardly walk, every step was painful and a drag. I would be almost blind from dizziness. I'd have dreadful backaches that never ceased, and severe pains... I read of Cardui in the Birthday Almanac and friends urged me to take it... I used one bottle with such beneficial results that I gained hope of recovery. After the use of 2 or 3 bottles, I felt so much better that I was able to get up and go about my work. My improvement was steady and after about the 3rd or 4th bottle, I was entirely cured and the cure has been permanent... For the past seven years I have had perfect health and my work has been a pleasure."

Try Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles. It is safe reliable and of proven merit. All druggists.—Adv.

All She Could Be Sure Of.

Mr. Brown, widower, had advertised for a housekeeper. On the applicant's arrival, Mr. Brown was out and his three-year-old daughter answered the door.

"What's your papa's name?" the woman asked.

After a pause the little girl answered, "I don't know what it was before he was married, but it's Mr. Brown now."

Putting Her Foot in It.

Not long ago a miscellaneous party of visitors was being shown over a dual palace. One of them, a stout, over-dressed woman, feeling herself socially considerably above her fellow sightseers, turned to the housekeeper and said:

"And how is the duke? He wasn't very well when I saw him last."

"His grace has a slight cold," replied the housekeeper, "but otherwise is in the best of health."

After allowing the company sufficient time to recover, the lady resumed:

"And how is the dear duchess?"

"The duchess, madam, has been dead these thirty years."

Prison Camp Just Like Home.

It comes as a distinct surprise to learn that Lieut. Pat O'Brien of the Royal Flying corps is a bachelor, for when he says that the conversation of the captives in the German war prison from which he made his escape centered around "food and escaping" he talks just like a married man.

When Mr. Gotha Family returns to the fold at nightfall, after a day at his desk, his cardinal concern is of dinner and ducking out.

"I am afraid," said the preacher, to whom he had gone for advice, "you haven't been inclined to be a companion to your son."

"Yes, I have. I've tried my best to be a companion to him. But how can a man be a companion to his son if his son can give him a handicap of a stroke a hole and beat him at golf and talk seven kinds of slang that the man has never had time to learn?"—Deyton News.

The Makers.

Booth Tarkington, the novelist, met in a New York book store a young lady who was buying books to send to the soldiers.

"I think I ought to send them serious, heavy books—history and so on—don't you?" she doubtfully inquired.

"Good gracious, no!" said Mr. Tarkington. "Send them novels, rousing novels, and nothing else. History? What do they want with history? Why, they're making it!"
