LOCAL AND PERSONAL

—J. W. Langston has changed the name of the Pickens Garage to Langston's Garage.

—If you have visitors at your home let The Sentinel know about it so we may put it in the paper.

—Mrs. Cynthia Garrison of Columbia is visiting her brother, Auditor Townes, and other relatives in Pickens county.

—W. F. Townes and daughter and Mr. Blevie Young and daughter of Honea Path spent Sunday with Auditor H. A. Townes and family.

—Sheriff Roark collected $1,414.55 delinquent tax money up to the end of the fiscal year, June 30. This is about 30 per cent more than usual.

—The regular campaign meeting of the candidates for governor and other state offices will be held at Pickens Wednesday morning, July 17, beginning about 11 o'clock.

—Sam J. Looper, who is connected with the constabulary force at Charleston, spent several days last week with his father, E. Frank Looper, and other relatives in Pickens county.

—Mr. and Mrs. James P. Carey, Jr., and little daughter Katherine motored to Hendersonville last week. Mr. Carey returned by rail and Mrs. Carey and daughter will spend some time at this resort.

—W. A. Edens of Easley has received a letter from his son James stating that he is in Italy, arriving there sometime in June with the first contingent of the American ambulance corps to go to that country.

—The Sentinel's supply of soldiers' testaments is exhausted for the present and we are unable to fill several orders received by mail. More are coming, however, and we will fill all orders as soon as possible. If you order by mail, add five cents extra for postage.

—Lem D. Gravelly reports that he killed a rattlesnake 31-2 feet long with 13 rattles while it was crossing the road near Hagood's mill last Friday. Snakes are reported scarce this year and it is supposed most of them froze during the recent severe winter.

—The Mile Creek school will begin its summer term of school July 22. All children are requested to be present on the opening day. A list of books for each grade will be found at the Pickens Drug Co. In order to know what work your school is doing you must visit the class rooms frequently.

—E. L. Henderson of Central was in Pickens on business last Friday chock full of good things to say about his town and praise for The Sentinel. He says this paper is the best advertising medium he ever used and he has never offered anything for sale thru its columns but what he sold it.

—Pickens county officers have captured four more soldiers who deserted from Camp Sevier. Two of them were caught near the rock quarry last week. They were from Alabama. The other two were from Tennessee and were caught Monday about two miles below Pickens on the Easley road.

—B. H. McWhorter, of Douglasville, Ga., was recently lodged in the Pickens jail charged with selling stolen automobiles. Two stolen cars which were bought from McWhorter were found in this county and identified by their owners who lived in Georgia. McWhorter was taken from here to Atlanta and lodged in jail there.

—The state War Savings committee urges that those who pledged themselves in the June W. S. S. campaign to purchase War Savings Stamps during the remaining months of the year should not wait until the last minute but should co-operate with the government by purchasing the specified amount of stamps at the earliest day possible.

—Fifty-two Pickens county selectmen left Monday morning for Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, to enter the army. As usual, a meeting was held in their honor Sunday afternoon and addresses were made by Dr. D. M. Ramsay of Greenville and B. A. Hagood, Esq., of Charleston. The court house was not large enough to hold the audience. A large crowd was also at the depot Monday to see the boys off.

—A house owned by Elmore Chapman and occupied by Leo Gillespie and family, located between Liberty and Pickens, was destroyed by fire Monday of last week. Mr. Gillespie also lost most of his household goods. It is supposed that the fire originated from a defective chimney. A new house will be built soon where the old one stood. Mr. Gillespie wants to thank his friends and neighbors for much kindness shown him and his family in their misfortune, some contributing money and some contributing other things, all of which is appreciated.

Catarh Cannot Be Cured
with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. —While Pickens county did not buy as many War Savings Stamps as she was asked to in the recent drive, the county made a most creditable showing and it is hoped that during the next few months we will succeed in buying our proportionate share.

Advertising in The Sentinel pays big.

—James A. Hendricks is announced this week for county commissioner. He lives in the upper part of Pickens county, is a son of Hon. Matthew Hendricks and well known.

—Sheriff Rickman of Rabun county, Georgia, was in Pickens recently looking for James Moss, a horse trader, who was charged with swindling a Rabun county man in a horse trade. Moss and a companion passed thru here shortly before the arrival of the Georgia sheriff and was apprehended near the North Carolina line.

Columbia Grafonola and Columbia Records

Feel Welcome in Our Store

Step in some day and let us show you a Columbia Grafonola. You will be allowed to play as many records of your own selection as you wish, on different Columbia Grafonola models. You may feel free to ask as many questions about phonographs as you wish—the more you ask the better we will like it.

You are to be the judge and the jury. We will be glad to send a Columbia Grafonola to your home on trial.

Compare the Columbia Grafonola with any machine in the world. In direct comparison it always appears at its best. A Columbia Grafonola may be bought on convenient terms.
