LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Ethel Kilpatrick of Brevard is visiting Miss Pearl Hester in Pickens.

The Sentinel has several soldier letters on hand which will be printed just as soon as possible.

Howard Sutherland of Calhoun, Ga., is on a visit to his mother, Mrs. A. A. Jones and family.

Miss Leila Jones and Mr. J. J. Trotter of this county were married by J. D. Vickery, N. P., last Sunday.

Hon. C. E. Robinson of Pickens will deliver an address to the Sunday school at Oolenoy next Sunday at 11 a. m.

Cotton weathers election will be held at Pickens next Saturday. Felix Finley is the only candidate for the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lewis and baby of Lockhart are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lewis in Pickens.

Arthur Jewell, son of Sam Jewell of Calhoun, was run over and seriously injured by a hand car Thursday afternoon. He is improving.

The series of meetings scheduled to begin at the Pickens Baptist church last Sunday have been postponed on account of the serious illness of Pastor Ramsay's son.

Dr. G. H. Abernethy, of Liberty, who had announced as a candidate for the house of representatives, failed to file his pledge last week and is thereby eliminated from the race.

Miss Lillie May Shirley of Liberty route 3 and Mr. James A. Chastain of Pickens route 2 were happily married by Judge Newbery at his residence last Sunday afternoon, August 11.

Miles Allgood, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allgood of near Pickens, has been visiting his parents. Miles is a railroad detective with headquarters in Salisbury, N. C., and has many friends around here who are always glad to see him.

Messrs. Houston and S. W. Craig of Greenville spent Saturday night in Pickens on their way to their old home on Keowee to spend a vacation. On account of trouble with the engine of their big Chandler car they were forced to also spend Sunday here.

Rev. C. B. Atkinson is conducting a protracted meeting at Pleasant Hill church. Services are being held out doors and much good being accomplished. Report says that up to last Friday night twenty-eight new members had joined and Mr. Atkinson had not yet begun to shell the woods or pull in his drag net.

J. R. J. Anthony recently received a letter from his son Ernest who is in France in which he says he has been in the first line trenches and likes it better there than back behind. Also says he is enjoying good health. Young Anthony is a member of a machine gun company and a corporal. He has been in France about three months.

J. Frank Williams and family of Sumter county are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney H. Williams, of the Cedar Rock section, and other relatives and friends in Pickens county, all of whom are glad to see them. Mr. Williams is farm demonstration agent of the rich county of Sumter and one of the most successful planters of that progressive county.

Two candidates announced for the house of representatives since the last issue of The Sentinel. They are W. E. Finley for re-election and Judge M. Welborn, both of Pickens. They are well known over the county and need no introduction at our hands. Their announcements appear this week. All candidates for county offices, except magistrates, have their announcements in this paper.

Mr. Keed Powell, a resident of the Glenwood mill village, died on the 3d instant, at his home, after a lingering illness from typhoid fever. He was about 36 years of age. Besides a wife he leaves several children. Mr. Powell came to Easley several years ago from above Pickens. The remains were interred the day following in West View cemetery, this city.—Easley Progress.

Capt. W. E. Scarboro, of the aviation squadron signal corps of the army, is visiting his wife who is spending the summer at the home of her brother, W. L. Matheny, in Pickens. Capt. Scarboro is a very pleasant gentleman. He is at present stationed at Langley Field, Hampton, Va., but is expecting soon to be sent across the sea.

Joe Acker has resigned his position with the Easley Lumber Co. and will go to the shidyards at Charleston. His family will remain in Pickens. Will Crane has taken Mr. Acker's place with the lumber company. Mr. Acker is one of the best wood workmen in the country and feels like he ought to give Uncle Sam the benefit of his talent.

Two members of the state tax commission will be in Pickens on Thursday, August 29, for the purpose of discussing with the people the present tax situation. They will try to explain why it was necessary to place land at the present valuation and will endeavor to answer any questions in regard to it. This is a live question with the people just now and a large audience is expected. The meeting will be in the court house. If you are interested, be there. Anyone having figures which they think show why the land values should not be increased are especially invited to be here and present the figures.
