

Second Primary's Results "Different"

In the second primary Tuesday some offices were closely contested, and it may take the official count to decide who wins. With all boxes heard from, with the exception of Norris, the vote for county officers stands as follows:

For State Senator
Alexander.....	1267
Earle.....	1143
Representative
Finley.....	1042
Leopard.....	1250
Supervisor
Looper.....	1264
McKinney.....	1280
County Commissioners
Bates.....	1096
Finley.....	1430
Hendricks.....	1230
Lesley.....	1249
Coroner
Beasley.....	857
Mauldin.....	1456

In the supervisor's race unofficial returns have been received from all boxes in the county and McKinney seems to be elected by 16 votes.

At 2 a. m. Wednesday morning partial returns from every county in the state gives the following vote for the various state offices:

U. S. Senate, Short Term—Peoples,	20,114; Pollock, 35,013.
Attorney General—Sapp,	22,736; Wolfe, 31,263.
Railroad Commissioner—Arnold,	30,184; Richardson, 23,533.
Commissioner of Agriculture—Garrison,	24,644; Harris, 28,782.
Comptroller General—Elmore,	14,484; Osborne, 21,392; Summersett, 12,398.

From the returns now in it appears certain that the election of Pollock as U. S. senator for the short term is assured. From present indications the lead Wolfe has over his opponent, Claude N. Sapp, can not be overcome, and that the Anderson man will be nominated.

The result of the other offices are in doubt, and there is the possibility of a third race between the candidates for Comptroller General, Osborne contesting with one of the other opponents.

James K. Latham Dead

Mr. James K. Latham, familiarly called "J. K.," by those who knew him, died at his home near Mt. Carmel church, in the eastern part of the county, on Thursday evening, September 6th, after an illness of less than a week, from an attack of indigestion which developed into inflammation of the stomach. He was taken sick Sunday afternoon but was not considered in a serious condition until the day of his death.

Mr. Latham was a prominent citizen of the county and was about 63 years of age. He was born and raised on the place where he died. He was a good Christian and a member of Carmel church.

He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Emma Lenhardt, and the following children: B. D., Mrs. Viola Brockman of Greenville county, R. L., J. G. at Camp Jackson, Henry in France, Kay, Misses Alma and Nancy Jane, and two living brothers, L. O. Latham of Greenwood and G. W. Latham of this county.

The funeral was conducted at his home by Rev. R. P. Mitchell, pastor, and the body laid to rest in the family burying ground near his residence, attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Truly a good man has gone to his just reward. To the bereaved family we extend our heartfelt sympathies in this hour of sorrow.

—All the money you lend Uncle Sam when you buy W. S. S. is spent on things for our soldiers.

PICKENS CHAPTER RED CROSS NOTES

The Pickens County Chapter has received its first allotment from the Reclamation Bureau, of 1,000 cotton undershirts and has accepted the same. This reclamation work is a new one undertaken by the Red Cross and is an important service which it can render the United States army. In this work, the workers are rendering an exalted service to our boys. Will all the branches take note of this, and notify the Director of Woman's Work how many of these undershirts may be sent to them for mending? All work done by the Red Cross is to be completed within 30 days after receiving it.

The Home Service work cannot be too strongly emphasized. Have you a loved one in the service to whom you would like the Red Cross to lend a helping hand? Or perhaps you would like the friendly hand extended to you? If so, drop a card or see the chairman of the Home Service work.

The Reunion branch has undertaken a beautiful bit of Home Service by sending the home papers to the boys who have gone out from their community. This branch has just sent in a splendid box of hospital garments.

The general organization of the Red Cross has asked that local chapters discontinue giving comfort kits. These are given the boys at the ports of embarkation, by the general Red Cross.

A live Red Cross chapter in lower South Carolina has a box placed at all places where cotton is sold, and asks that the farmers give the price of one pound of cotton to the Red Cross. In this way a splendid sum is being realized for war relief work. Will not the patriotic farmers of Pickens county express themselves and lend a helping hand to the cause of humanity? Will every woman in Pickens county send in one fresh egg? Your boy is probably "over there"—the husband and father may soon be.

The Chapter has received a nice decoration from the Pickens Mill school. The children had a "hot bed" and realized a nice sum from the sale of plants. Their gift is much appreciated.

Easley has completed its quota of surgical dressings 315 leather pads and 1576 gauze wipes. This not only shows up her splendid workers, but also involves considerable expenditure in money.

Crosswell has sent in a fine box of hospital garments and knitted articles. Cross Roads is also "at the front" with its quota of work completed in the same way which characterizes the work of the branches of the Pickens county chapters—everything up to the standard.

In Memoriam

In sad and loving memory of our dear sister, Gula Powers Mauldin, who departed this life March 25, 1918;

Oh, how hard we tried to save her,
Prayers and tears were all in vain;
Happy angels came and took her
From this world of toil and pain.

You are not forgotten, sister,
Nor will you ever be;
As long as life and memory lasts
We will always think of thee.

Few months have passed, our hearts are sore;
As time flies on we miss her more.
Her loving voice, her welcome face,
No one can fill her vacant place.

Forget her! No, we never will;
We loved her then—we love her still;
Her memory is as fresh today
As in the hour she passed away.

We paused and breathed a prayer
above the sod
And left her to rest with God.

SISTER EVA.

B. B. Gilstrap Dead

Just as we go to press, we learn with sorrow of the death of Mr. Benson B. Gilstrap, a prominent citizen of the Bethlehem section of the county, who died at his home on the 10th instant, after an illness of three weeks, aged 69 years. He is survived by his wife and several children, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. The funeral was held the day following his death at Pickens View Methodist church.

Kay Family Reunion

The writer had the pleasure of attending a family reunion at the residence of Mr. D. L. Kay on the 28th ult. About seventy-five of Mr. and Mrs. Kay's relatives and friends gathered at their residence and after conversing for two or three hours the baskets and boxes began to make their appearance and in a few minutes a table several feet long which had been prepared were loaded down with good things to eat. After everybody had got through a line was formed and Messrs. G. W. Gaillard and O. H. Johnson, photographers, took a photograph of the crowd.

A few songs were then sung, after which the writer was requested to make a talk and responded.

Mr. Kay is now in his seventy-first year and is hale and hearty while his better half is in her seventy-third year. Mrs. Kay has been in feeble health for some time—not able to do anything.

Mr. Kay has been married twice. His first wife was Miss Mary Jane King of Anderson county, a near relative of the former "Big" Sheriff King of Anderson, while his second wife was Miss Robinson, a daughter of the late David Robinson of Anderson county and a sister of the late Mrs. Clayton Reid of this county. Mr. Kay's union has been blessed with nine children—five by the first marriage and four by the last, all of whom were present except one who lived in Texas. He has forty-seven grand and nineteen great-grandchildren living.

The following children were present: Mrs. James Moore of Five Forks, Mrs. Walker Barnett, Mrs. Frank Langston, all of Anderson county; Mrs. Tom Kelly, Mrs. B. P. and Mrs. L. O. Smith, Messrs. Edgar and Perry Kay of Six Mile. Mr. Kay's brother, Mr. Chas. A. Kay of Westminster and one sister, Mrs. Henry Brooks of Anderson county, were also present.

Mr. Kay came from Anderson county and settled where he now lives twenty-one years ago. He is an all around good man as well as a good farmer. If Anderson county has any more men like him to spare she can send them to Pickens county, where a welcome invitation awaits them.

Rev. Charlie Atkinson has just closed a series of meetings at Pleasant Hill church and at Camp Creek church, the result of which was an addition of fifty-six members to the former church and twenty-one to the latter, fifty-eight of whom were baptized on Sunday, the 1st inst., at the two churches. Bro. Atkinson has been preaching regularly for the past five weeks, and he tells us he has received 146 members into the churches where he has been preaching during five weeks, and he has one more church to hold a week's meeting at this summer. The Lord is crowning Bro. Atkinson's work with success. May he live long to continue in the Lord's vineyard, is our prayer.

Married, on Sunday, the 1st inst., about 2:30 p. m., Mr. W. H. Scruggs to Miss Bessie Dodson, J. Alonzo Brown, N. P., at the throttle. We extend congratulations. We have been requested to ask the Anderson Tribune to please publish.

Meeting at Baptist Church

There will be meetings at the Pickens Baptist church, beginning Monday night, September 16, and continuing through Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. This will bring us up to Brother Compton's meeting. Everybody is invited to come and come praying that God will bless us. Song and prayer service will begin at 8:30, fast time and preaching will be immediately after. I will ask Brother Ben Field to help in these meetings.

Our Special Notice column is one of the most interesting parts of this paper. Keep your eye on it.

Mrs. R. A. Bowen Dead

We are grieved this week to chronicle the death of Pickens' best beloved woman, Mrs. R. A. Bowen, who gently fell asleep in Jesus just before the midnight hour of Sept. 4th age 61 years. She was a daughter of Benjamin F. and Mary Hammett Morgan of Dausville, and spent her girlhood in that section where she was always held in loving remembrance. She was married to Robert A. Bowen about 48 years ago and made her home in Pickens where none knew her but to love. Her home and her church were her castles and in those she will be especially missed. A woman of superior intellectual endowments, it was a privilege to be associated with and advised by her. Gentle, courteous, refined, she typified the christian character of the sweetest type, and it is a pleasure to hear her extolled by her neighbors, who give her that "good name" that is better than riches. For several months her health had failed but with an energetic will that was unsurpassed, she was able to keep up until one week before her death. When the summons came she was ready and like a baby falling asleep she gently glided out into the "arms of Jesus" where she was so prepared to go. The devotion of her husband and children was beautiful to behold and the heartfelt sympathy of hundreds of friends go out to them in this sad hour. The surviving children left to comfort their father are Mrs. R. M. Holden of Calhoun, Mrs. J. F. Banister of Liberty, C. M. Bowen of Central and Miss Florence Bowen of Pickens. James H. and B. A. Morgan of Greenville are her brothers and Mrs. F. J. Griffin of Pickens and Mrs. J. N. Morgan of Central are sisters. The funeral was held at the home on Thursday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hodges, where the service was sweet and simple, and the interment followed at the Pickens cemetery.

Hester—Stallings

A marriage which was quite a surprise to many friends in Pickens was that of Miss Pearl Hester to Mr. W. L. Stallings, which occurred at the home of the bride's parents in Pickens last Wednesday, September 4, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. M. Stewart, a former pastor of the bride.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hester of Pickens and is an attractive and vivacious young lady of many charms. The groom is a boiler maker at the Southern shops in Atlanta and one of the bosses there.

The happy couple will make their home at 65 Hendricks avenue, Atlanta, where they will be delighted to see their old friends at any time.

Six Mile Academy Opening

Six Mile Baptist academy began another session September 3 with unusually bright prospects for a successful year. A large number of friends were present opening day and among other good things listened to a fine address by Dr. O. O. Fletcher of Furman University. Nearly 100 students are enrolled. The faculty consists of Prof. J. L. Willis, principal; Prof. E. M. Snow, assistant; Miss Rose Rhymes, primary department, and Miss Jeanette Bolt, music teacher.

Miss Mertie Grant Dead

Miss Mertie Grant died at the home of her parents on Central route 2, August 20. She was about thirty years of age. Miss Mertie was a lady of most cheerful disposition and was loved by all who knew her. Her remains were laid to rest in Gap Hill cemetery. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in their hour of bereavement.

ONE WHO KNEW HER.

James Campbell Dead

Mr. James Campbell of Easley died suddenly at his home on July 29 and was buried at Corinth church the day following, the funeral service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Howard. Mr. Campbell was 65 years old and was a devoted Christian. Besides a host of friends and relatives he leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his death. He married Miss Annie Porter of Piedmont. The children are: Tolly, Furman, Beulah, Beedy, Milton, Belton and Mamie. Mr. Campbell was a loving husband and a devoted father, and will be greatly missed.

The golden gates were opened wide.
A gentle voice said "Come,"
And angels from the other side
Welcomed our loved one home.

Norris News Notes

Misses Margaret and Violet McQueen of Easley were the week-end guests of their aunt, Mrs. John McQueen.

A goodly number attended the baptizing at Golden Creek Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Stansell preached a very forceful and inspiring sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Hall and children and Miss Lena Hall, all of Iva, spent a portion of last week with the former's sister, Mrs. C. H. Billingsly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Howell had as their guest Sunday Rev. and Mrs. J. Stansell.

Miss Margie Kay entertained several of her friends Sunday afternoon at a singing.

The Misses Hunter of Liberty are the guests this week of their aunt, Mrs. Sherman Gilstrap.

Miss M. Billingsly is at home from Greenville after spending a few days in Hendersonville and Spartanburg.

Seaborn H. Billingsly is back from Camp Wadsworth.

Edgar Gilstrap visited friends in Easley last week.

Mesdames John Bell and Leora Alexander are visiting their husbands, who are in the naval reserve at Charleston.

Pleasant Grove News

The election at this place passed off quietly and every one voted for his man without discord. There was not much interest.

Corn crops seem good in this section, while red spider has played havoc with the cotton crop. Some think their crop is cut in half by this pest and some fields look like they are almost ruined.

Mrs. Lizzie Fortner, who has been at Greenville nearly all summer, undergoing treatment for pellagra, has come back home greatly improved.

Miss Elizabeth Mauldin, our county demonstrator, paid our school a visit recently and gave some demonstrations in canning and preserving, which no doubt will be a help to the ladies of the community. We welcome her back to see us.

The road scrape has recently been at work in this section.

W. R. Moody and family of Greenville paid relatives and friends in this section a short visit last week. Mr. Moody owns some property here.

Announcement of Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe L. Martin of Central announce the engagement of their daughter, Fannie Belle, to Lieut. Roswell C. Long, of Camp Jackson, the marriage to take place in October.

Two Killed By Train Near Liberty Sunday

Greenville News, Monday.
Miss Mamie Lucile Davis, aged 20 years, a well known and popular young lady of Liberty, was almost instantly killed, Charles Stillwell, a young man of Columbia, was fatally injured, and Miss Bernice Parsons, 18 years old, also a popular young lady of Liberty, was slightly hurt Sunday afternoon shortly before 5 o'clock by being struck by Southern passenger train No. 38, running between Atlanta and New York. The accident occurred about a mile from Liberty, between that place and Beverly.

The body of Miss Davis and the injured persons were placed aboard No. 38 and brought to Greenville, the former being taken to the undertaking establishment of Ramseur, McAfee & Co. and the latter rushed to the city hospital in an ambulance. It was reported from the hospital late Sunday night that Mr. Stillwell's condition was critical and that the best that could be said was that he was still alive. It is understood that he has a crushed leg and injuries about the head. When the train arrived in this city Miss Parsons was able to walk, and it is likely that she will soon be released from the hospital.

Miss Davis, Miss Parsons and Mr. Stillwell were members of a large party of young Liberty people who went for a Sunday afternoon stroll along the Southern's double tracks and were in one group of the party which walked a short distance in advance of a second group. The approach of a southbound freight train caused the three named to move from one track to the other to allow it to pass, and in doing so they stepped directly in front of fast moving No. 38, northbound, not hearing its approach on account of the noise made by the freight train. Their friends walking behind them saw their perilous situation and yelled frantically to them, but their voices were drowned out by the noise.

The train was brought to a quick stop and the unfortunate victims placed aboard and rushed to this city with all possible speed. Life had left Miss Davis' body, so the remains were taken to the undertakers' to be prepared for burial, while an ambulance sped to the hospital with the injured ones. The parents of the dead young lady, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis, arrived here from Liberty about three hours after the accident.

The town of Liberty and the surrounding community was shocked and grieved at the news of Miss Davis' tragic death. She was known and admired by hundreds of people. Her parents stated last night that all arrangements had been made for her to enter the Greenville Woman's College Tuesday and that she had looked forward with pleasure to the coming college days.

Besides her parents, Miss Davis is survived by a brother who is in France, by two other brothers, Wade and Lewis, and one sister, Lois, who live in Liberty. She was the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Harrison, of Frankville, near Pelzer, who are well known in Greenville.

Miss Parsons has been living with relatives in Liberty for some time, attending school there. She is a daughter of Mrs. Julius E. Parsons of Pickens.

Mr. Stillwell is from Columbia and was on a visit to his uncle, C. E. Bush, in Liberty.

The funeral of Miss Davis will be held this afternoon at four o'clock at Reedy River church, about six miles north of Greenville. Interment will follow in the church cemetery.

Mr. Stillwell died early Monday morning.

From Oolenoy

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Keith visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hendricks, last Sunday.

Walter Chastain and Rudolph Hendricks, of Camp Jackson, spent the week-end with homefolks.

Misses Hallie and Pearl Jones attended services at Secona Sunday.

Miss Jessie E. Edens has gone to Spartanburg to enter school. Miss Cleo Hendricks spent the week-end in Greenville.

Mrs. G. A. Lynch and Boyce and Annie Lynch, of Walhalla, spent a few days last week with relatives here.

Prayer meeting at Oolenoy is doing nicely.
