

PERUNA

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

Miss Ivy Gray, Fairview, Kentucky, writes:

"I have taken Peruna, and would say that it is the best medicine for coughs and colds I ever saw. I had that it always cures a cold in a short while, it also strengthens and builds up the system."

COULD ANYTHING BE SIMPLER

Yet Probably Many Who Have Suddenly Dismounted From Mule Never Saw Things That Way.

A young soldier was watching the efforts of his fellow privates to ride a refractory mule. Not one of them could stay on its back for two seconds.

"At last the looker-on approached and drawled:

"I say, let me show you how it's done."

"Come on, then," said the soldier. The youth sidled up to the mule, swung himself on the animal's back, wrapped his legs beneath its body and took a firm hold on the reins. The mule made a slight effort to dislodge him, but the man stuck. Another slightly more strenuous effort by the mule also failed. Then, laying his ears back, and taking a deep breath, the mule shot his heels into the air at an angle of 65 degrees, and the young man was propelled to the ground.

He slowly arose to his feet, screwed his face into a smile and said:

"Now, that's the way, boys! When you see he's goin' to pitch you off, just get off."

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM THE CAMPS

BRILLIANT ENTERTAINMENT IS PROJECTED FOR HALLOWEEN BY Y. M. C. A. WORKERS.

IN GRATEFUL APPRECIATION

Hard, If Just Sentenced Imposed on Recalcitrant Private; Hard Labor For Fifty Years.

Camp Jackson.

The Y. M. C. A. entertainment aggregation, composed of Secretaries Bowman, Prior, Hardacre and others, is planning to put on a big entertainment for Halloween.

The program will include many interesting features for the men who witness them and bids fair to be one of the best, if not the very best, entertainments yet put on by these entertainers.

The plan is to put the play on at the big Y. M. C. A. auditorium first, and then put it on night after night at all the other buildings. The promoters are sure that the plan will prove a good one, and that all the men who attend the entertainment will be pleased and profited.

The Jewish welfare building has practically been finished and the outside painting is now being done. The house when finished will add another pleasant resting place for the men of the camp to stop at on Jackson Circle, and no doubt will prove as popular as any of the other buildings.

The association has occupied a room at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium for several months past, where the work has been well looked after by Jacob Berlin, aided by Dr. Raisin and B. Heller.

The Hebrew soldiers of the camp recently showed their appreciation for the excellent work done by the Jewish Welfare Association by presenting both of the association workers, Dr. J. S. Raisin and Bernard Heller, with wrist watches.

The watches are of the Elgin make and contain the 15 jewel movement. The secretaries are very grateful for these tokens of appreciation on the part of the men.

The excessive crowds which congregated at the Hostess House Saturday night on account of the fact that the trolley cars could not accommodate the large numbers who wanted to go to Columbia, resulted in a cordon of M. P.'s being placed at the door, who admitted only a limited number at the time for meals.

The formal opening of the colored hostess house has been indefinitely postponed on account of the influenza situation in the camp.

As a means of letting the home folks know what the Y. M. C. A. is doing in the camps and across the seas, the international association has named this week as a campaign week to secure subscriptions to the association's organ, "Association Men." No person who wants to keep informed as to what the association is doing at large can afford to be without the paper.

Albert E. Burmeister, at court-martial trial at Camp Jackson, was convicted on two counts, first, for disobedience in refusing to drill, and second, for saying that he had just as soon be governed by Germany as by the United States. In a word, Burmeister is what is known as a "conscientious objector," and the second count in the charge also marks him as a German sympathizer.

The trial was regular in all particulars, and the accused was represented by counsel who explained his rights to him.

The sentence imposed is dishonorable discharge from the service with the forfeiture of all pay and allowances, and to be confined at hard labor for 50 years at the United States disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

The sentence has been approved by the camp commander, Brigadier General Danford, and also by the general judge advocate at Washington.

Many Cases in Dillon.

Dillon.—There are many cases of influenza in Dillon and vicinity. Many whole families are down with it and some are reported seriously ill. Dr. C. R. Tabor has been confined to his bed for several days and is now seriously ill. Dr. W. Stackhouse has been ill also, but is now improving and expects to be out in a day or so. The Dillon mills, including the mill at Hamer, are running about two-thirds capacity. The disease is virulent at the cotton mills in the suburbs of Dillon.

Bloodhounds Wanted.

Columbia.—W. W. Moore, adjutant general, has been called on for a pair of bloodhounds to chase outlaws in Santo Domingo. Gen. Moore has a son, Captain James Moore, with the American marines, and the young men believe their efforts would be greatly strengthened if bloodhounds could be procured to trail the bandits which infect the islands and commit murder with reckless abandon. General Moore will make an effort to procure the hounds and send them to his son.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 27

ISAAC'S MARRIAGE TO REBECCA.

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 24. GOLDEN TEXT—Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: . . . So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.—Proverbs 3:3-4. DEVOTIONAL READING—Ephesians 6:2-3; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Genesis 26:19-34; Proverbs 31:10-31.

1. Abraham's Solicitude for a Wife for Isaac (vv. 1-9).

He knew that Isaac's success in life would much depend upon what kind of a wife he should have. Man's welfare in this life and that to come largely depends upon his wife. For Isaac to have an idolatrous, Canaanitish wife would be fatal to his posterity, would subvert the plan of God as expressed in his covenant with Abraham. It would have been perilous to Isaac himself. To have married a woman in that land would have made him in a sense an heir to the land through marriage, and would have tended to divert his mind from the heirship through the covenant promise.

1. The Servant's Oath (vv. 2-4). Abraham committed to his trusted servant the matter of securing a wife for Isaac; therefore, he made him swear that he would go to Abraham's country and kindred to get a wife for him. He doubtless regarded his servant more competent to select a wife than Isaac was to select one for himself.

2. The Extent of the Servant's Responsibility (vv. 5, 8). Before the servant would take the oath he must have clearly defined the extent of his responsibility. If the woman would refuse the invitation, the servant would be clear of responsibility. The minister's obligation ends when he has earnestly and intelligently made known to sinners the will of God.

3. The Servant's Helper (v. 8). Abraham assured him that God would send his angel to make the mission successful. The servant found this to be true. God sends his Holy Spirit to make the message of the minister successful.

II. The Servant's Obedience (vv. 10-40).

1. He Took Ten Camels (v. 10). These were to carry presents to the bride, and to conduct her and her companions back to his master.

2. His Prayer for Guidance (vv. 12-14). He asked that the Lord would guide him to the woman whom he had chosen for Isaac. Earnest prayer for guidance should be made in the selection of a wife.

3. His Prayer Answered (vv. 15-27). Before he had done praying, the answer was realized to be in the process of fulfillment. The answer was according to the request, even in the matter of fulfillment. God does definitely answer prayer.

4. The Servant's Message (vv. 33-40). The Lord had prospered the old servant's way. He now was face to face with Rebecca. Supper was ready, but the delivery of his message was more important to him than eating when he was hungry. He said, "I will not eat till I have said my errand." Good were it if all ministers were as much interested in delivering the good news in Christ. (1) His master was rich (v. 35). God the Heavenly Father is rich. The silver and gold and the cattle upon a thousand hills are all his. (2) All his riches have been given to his son (v. 36). All the riches of heaven, God the Father has given to Jesus Christ, his son. (3) Opportunity was given Rebecca to become the wife of Isaac (v. 40). He not only gave the opportunity, but he urged her to accept the invitation.

III. Rebecca's Relatives Begging for Postponement of Action (v. 55).

They did not object to her going sometime, but they desired that she postpone action for a time. What folly to remain and water sheep when she had the opportunity to become the bride of a rich man's son.

What folly for sinners to remain servants in the world when they have the privilege of becoming the bride of Christ.

IV.—Rebecca's Glorious Decision, (v. 55).

When the decision was referred to Rebecca she said, "I will go." Good judgment would not allow her to refuse nor delay.

V. The Meeting of Isaac and Rebecca (vv. 64-67). Isaac was waiting for the return of the servant with the woman who was to be his wife. Isaac was joined to her in marriage, loved her, and was comforted in her after his mother's death.

Spirit of Christ.

The longer you read the Bible the more you will like it; it will grow sweeter and sweeter; the more you get into the spirit of it the more you will get into the spirit of Christ.—Romaine.

The Cross Is Peace.

The Cross is peace, and that sums up the past; The Crown is joy and that my future sums. I need but simple faith, faith that shall last. The hope that liberates and overcomes.

Poor Dog Under Shell Fire.

In a letter describing the behavior of domestic animals under fire a soldier says: A big black mongrel came into our improvised trench late one afternoon. He had survived a terrific ten hours' bombardment of shell and gas and sank down by my side utterly exhausted. His body became inert and nothing, not even the tenderest bits of bully beef, would make him move. His brown eyes looked mournfully into mine as if longing to tell me something. Just then the Boche commenced straddling, and at every explosion a silver ran through his body. I do not know what became of the poor beast. There was an engagement soon afterward and this big black mongrel disappeared.

Force of Habit.

While in a certain government office recently Sir Edwin Jones, the British transport board chairman, overheard the following dialogue between two fair apewriter tappers:

"Isn't it terrible the way we have to work these days?"

"Rather! Why, I typed so many letters yesterday that last night I finished my prayers with 'yours truly!'" —Vancouver (B. C.) Province.

THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.

Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organic troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do my housework. I had the best doctors in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. BRINER, Black River Falls, Wis.

It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Briner that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, displacements, backache, nervousness, irregularities or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. ## Do You Think There is No Competition?

If anyone thinks there is no competition amongst the big packers he ought to go through a day's work with Swift & Company.

Let him begin at the pens when the live stock comes in; let him try to buy a nice bunch of fat steers quietly and at his own price without somebody's bidding against him.

Let him realize the scrupulous care taken at the plant that not one thing is lost or wasted in order that costs may be held to a minimum.

Let him go up into the office where market reports are coming in,—and reports of what other concerns are doing.

Let him watch the director of the Swift Refrigerator fleet, maneuvering it over the face of the country like a fleet of battleships at sea.

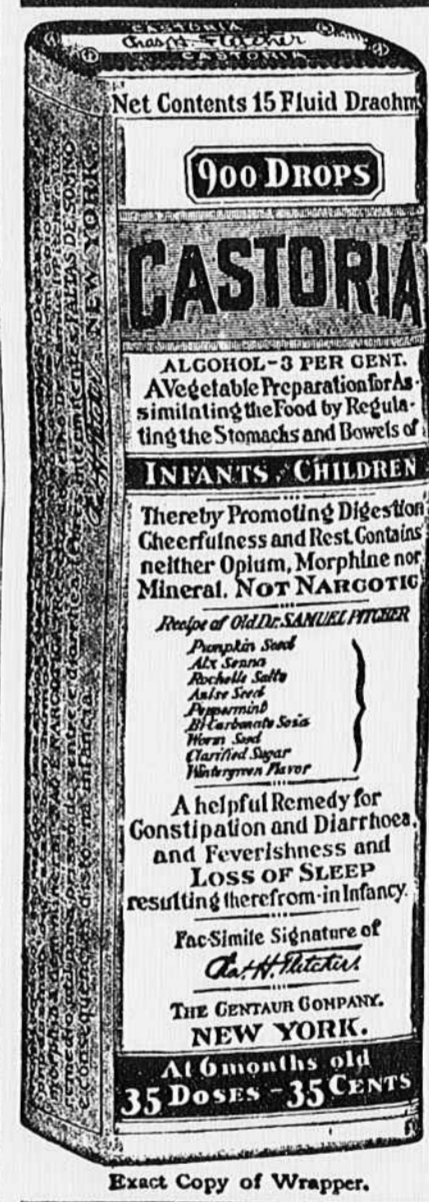

Let him take a trip with a Swift & Company salesman and try to sell a few orders of meat.

Let him stay at a branch house for an hour or two and see the retail meat dealers drive their bargains to the last penny as they shop around among the packers' branch houses, the wholesale dealers, and the local packing plants.

And then, when the day is over, let him have half an hour in the accounting department, where he can see for himself on what small profits the business is done. (Less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales.)

If he still thinks there is no competition in the meat business it will be because he wants to think so.

Remembrance.
"I understand those Boches are protesting against the way Americans use chemicals in the war," said the girl at the news stand.
"That's just the way that kind of people always was," replied the veteran hotel clerk. "I remember 'em well. They wouldn't be satisfied until they'd turned on the gas an' then they insisted on trying to blow it out."

Stunning All Right.
"I was in a hand-to-hand encounter with a big German," narrated the officer, home on leave, "and my ammunition was gone. Just as we closed in the grapple I wrenched my arm loose and knocked him senseless with the butt of my revolver."
"Oh, how perfectly stunning!" exclaimed the girl.
