

SAYS THE OFFICE OWL

With the kaiser it seems to be: Kill the women and children first.

The only way you can get along with some men is to walk the other way.

We have never known a truly wise man to brag nor a braggart who was truly wise.

Money may be the root of all evil but most people would like to have a lot of it to plant.

Unfortunately when people find it necessary to economize charity is the first thing to get it in the neck.

We hold no brief for ingratitude but neither do we think that the door of a kindness has a right to demand subject servitude in return.

The reason some men don't get credit for what they can do is because they never do the things they are afraid someone else will get the credit for.

A CORRECTION

Pickens Sentinel,
Pickens, S. C.
Gentlemen:

I had an attack of influenza about two weeks ago and some of your correspondents published a notice in your paper that I was dead. This is to inform you that I am not. Instead, I have visited sixty or more influenza patients to day. Will appreciate it, the more, if you make this correction in your paper.

C. C. HORTON, M.D.
Pendleton, S. C., Nov. 4.

We are glad to make the above correction and wish to congratulate the doctor. Glad we were in error. Ed.

Corporal Parrott Overseas

"Mrs. Wm. Jarvis, of the Brown Annex, received word yesterday from her son, Corporal D. C. Parrott, of the One Hundred Thirty-third supply train, that he had arrived safely overseas. He had been stationed at Camp Cody."

Corp. Parrott is a former Pickens county young man. He is a grandson of J. H. Clayton of Liberty, also the grandson of Rouben E. Parrott of Six Mile. He enlisted April 6th, 1917; wanted to be one of the first to go overseas, but instead has been in service down on the border in New Mexico until recently when he was transferred to Camp Dix, New Jersey, then overseas.

Death of Mrs. J. M. Hayes

Mrs. Aurie Hayes, wife of J. M. Hayes, died Saturday of complications following an attack of Spanish influenza. Mrs. Hayes was before her marriage Miss Aurie Bagwell, daughter of C. L. Bagwell, and was about 31 years old at the time of her death. She leaves a husband and six small children to mourn her departure. Mrs. Hayes was a member of Griffin church and a consistent Christian woman. Her life was gentle, but like still water, it was deep. In her heart of hearts she carried those she loved, and her hand was never weary, her step never failed in ministering unto, caring for and waiting upon those who in any way were dependent upon her. Truly a good woman has been taken away in the prime of life to her eternal resting place. She was buried at Griffin church, the services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. S. Childress. To the bereaved father and children we extend heartfelt sympathy in the loss of their good wife and mother.

I wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for their kindness during the sickness and death of my beloved wife, and also wish to thank Dr. Porter for his earnest attention. All that loving hands could do was done, and it will be impossible to ever repay them for their kind services. I pray that God will bless each and every one of them.

J. M. Hayes.

MINE SWEEPERS BEGIN THE CLEARING OF DARDANELLES

London.—A large fleet of the latest types of British mine-sweepers began the tedious task of clearing the Dardanelles of mines and other obstructions. This work, together with other safeguards which the allies consider to be necessary before the allied navies enter the tortuous waterway leading past Constantinople and through the Bosphorus to the Black sea, will take several days, in the opinion of the British admiralty.

PICKENS CHAPTER
RED CROSS NOTES

The colored friends of the Red Cross have given excellent service in the recent linen shower. They contributed a large number of eggs, many sending notes saying how gladly they did their bit. The local colored auxiliary lauded the articles sent in. The county chapter is most appreciative of their kindness.

A large allotment of knitting is on hand—220 sweaters and 242 pairs of socks. The sweaters are needed first, so everyone who is willing to help please see the Red Cross at once. All branches will please notify the director of woman's work how many they will take. The winter is upon us and our boys are needing their warm clothes, so please be prompt.

The home service department is ever ready to help. Are you anxious about your boy and need help in reaching him? See the Red Cross. Or perhaps you who are in the service would like some information about the folks at home. If so, drop a line to the Red Cross.

Death of Mrs. Lonnie Bowen

On the evening of October 24 the Pickens Mill village lost a Christian neighbor when death summoned the beloved wife of Mr. Lonnie Bowen. Mrs. Bowen was the youngest daughter of Mr. Bob Alexander. She leaves a husband and two small children to mourn her death. She was laid to rest in the Second Baptist cemetery on the following Saturday after a short service conducted by Rev. B. G. Field.

Two Deaths in One Family

On Tuesday night of last week Pauline, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Durham died. Her death was caused by influenza followed by pneumonia. On Thursday a son, Herbert, succumbed to an attack of the same disease. Interment was made at Mt. Bethel cemetery. Rev. W. H. Lewis of Greenville and the pastor conducted the funeral services. Both Pauline and Herbert were members of Mt. Bethel. The classmates of the Sunday school were the pall bearers.

Brother Durham and his entire family have had influenza, but most of them are recovering. Pauline and Herbert were bright Christians and were regular in attendance at church services and Sunday school.

Brother Durham and wife are staunch Christians and loyal members of Mt. Bethel. He is superintendent of the Sunday school. At all gatherings and services Brother Durham and family are present. They carry their children out to the house of the Lord. If all parents were to make or observe such a custom there would be many more bright boys and girls serving the Lord.

In this time of heavy sorrow Brother Durham and family have the sympathy of the members of his church as well as his many friends throughout the county.

If you don't think that this good old Luzianne is worth what you paid, then let your grocer and he'll give you back every cent.

DON'T PART WITH Your Liberty Bonds!

When you bought your Bonds you lent your money to the Government that you might "do your part."

You gave the Government at home and the boys "over there" tangible evidence of your support.

You shared the burden of those in other lands who are heavily laden.

Keep your Bonds for the same reasons.

To dispose of them, except in case of dire necessity, is unpatriotic—just as much so as not to buy!

Furthermore, Liberty Bonds are an insurance for your future.

This is friendly, timely advice not to listen to those who may offer large returns in exchange for your Liberty Bonds. Hundreds of millions of dollars have been lost during the past year by people who parted with their Liberty Bonds—Don't Sell!

Buy Your Winter Shoes, and Buy Now

This is the advice we give you, and the reason we give it is not only from the fact that shoes will be higher in price, but they will be scarce and hard to get.

One well known shoe concern has allotted us to a certain amount of shoes for next spring, and other concerns will fall in line. Buy such shoes as you need, but no more, and buy the best quality always.

Our shoe business for the month of October was nearly as large as our entire shoe business for last winter.

We attribute the reason for this to the lines we are handling, as we think in the Walk-Over shoe, Endicott, Johnson & Company, and H. C. Godman, that we are handling three of the best lines of shoes made or sold in America.

Call On Us For Your Shoe Needs

For we have a very good stock at present, with prices the same as last year, and we are endeavoring to keep our stock up so we can supply your needs, and we are ordering constantly to be shipped by express.

When you buy your shoes consider quality more than price. It pays to buy the best; cheap shoes are cheap at any price. Stick to quality first, last and all the time.

Yours truly,

More uniformity in observing meatless and wheatless days would prevent a man from getting meat or wheat denied him at one restaurant merely by going to another.

Every time a housewife orders beef instead of veal she is giving that calf a chance to grow into full steerhood. A three-year-old will feed more American boys at the front than a calf will.
