

HOME
I'll get it for my wife

Porter has been confined several days with influenza.

John Craig has returned to visit to Atlanta.

any friends of Miss Floride regret to learn that she is to her home with influenza.

many friends of F. Van Clayton had to see him in Pickens Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Powell was the guest of Miss Morris for the week-end. She has many friends here, as she is remembered she was millinery time ago.

Mr. George Cox, who has been living on Route 5 for the last year, left Friday for Piedmont S. C.

The Liberty Township Singing convention will meet with the Second Baptist church the third Sunday, commencing at 2 o'clock.

Among the boys that have been released from the army are Lieut. Wyatt Jennings, Lieut. Marvin Hutchings and Boone Carey.

J. W. Grant and family have returned to Pickens from Florida. Mr. Grant has opened a drink and fruit stand in the old Pickens bank building.

Miss Eula Owens of Demorest, Ga., is visiting at the home of Miss Bertha Cantrell this week. Miss Cantrell entertained at her home Monday night in honor of her visitor.

Mrs. J. W. Cauley and little daughter, Selma, of Pickens Route 5 left Friday for Tom-Bear, Texas, where they go to visit Mrs. Cauley's brother. They will also probably visit Mr. Cauley's brother in Central, west Texas, before returning home. They are expected to be back for the holidays.

A meeting of importance to the business men of Pickens is the meeting of the stockholders of the Pickens railroad. This meeting pertains to a reduction in freight rates, and they are trying to arrange so that Pickens merchants will get the same through rates that Wallhalla and other places on branch lines now enjoy.

We understand that Mr. W. W. T. Nalley, who recently sold his farm near Pickens has purchased the Smith farm, consisting of a house and five acres of land on the Liberty road in edge of city, and will move to it at an early date.

The health of this section is very good but I think we have had a good share of the influenza for the past several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Edens were visiting at Mrs. Mira Turner's last Sunday. Mr. B. P. Crenshaw has returned from Washington, D. C. Perry says she is some town, too.

Mr. Lewis Crenshaw is at home again to the delight of his many friends. He was in the navy.

The farmers are a little "blue" over the drop in the price of cotton, and many of them are going to wait for better prices.

The Peters Creek graded school opened up with bright prospects this time with the Misses Williams of Wagner, S. C., as teachers.

There will be an entertainment at Peters Creek school house on Saturday evening, December 14, at early candle light. Refreshments will be served consisting of coffee, cake, chicken, etc. Everybody come and bring your friends and pocketbooks along with you. There will be plays to suit old and young. The proceeds of the sales will be used for the benefit of the school.

Hope to read a letter from all the correspondents of the Sentinel in your paper ere Christmas.

Progressive.

The teachers and pupils are putting forth their best efforts to give an interesting Christmas program. The public is cordially invited and especially the patrons of the school. Program will be announced later.

Efforts are being put forth to arrange for a tennis court on the school house grounds. Material has already been purchased and we hope to have our court ready for playing by the end of the week.

We had as visitors Monday Miss Bertha Cantrell and Miss Eula Owens, of Demorest, Ga.

Notice To School Improvement Associations

All county School Improvement Associations are requested to please send reports of meetings to me at once. Literature may be secured by writing to county organizer.

Mary McCall, Oakesville, S. C.

Miss Grace Boykin from Converse is visiting Miss Frances Bruce.

Mr. Henry Prince, of Greenville was in town Friday.

Mr. Will Mauldin of Greenwood was a visitor to Pickens last Thursday.

Eugene Brazee lost a fine young horse in Pickens last week with spasmodic colic.

There will be a box supper at Montvale school house on Friday night, December 20. The public is invited.

J. J. Herd, who has been working on a Government hospital in Asheville, has returned to Pickens.

S. V. Carson, has sold his farm east of Pickens and will move to the lower part of the county.

Mr. George Cox, who has been living on Route 5 for the last year, left Friday for Piedmont S. C.

The Liberty Township Singing convention will meet with the Second Baptist church the third Sunday, commencing at 2 o'clock.

Among the boys that have been released from the army are Lieut. Wyatt Jennings, Lieut. Marvin Hutchings and Boone Carey.

J. W. Grant and family have returned to Pickens from Florida. Mr. Grant has opened a drink and fruit stand in the old Pickens bank building.

Miss Eula Owens of Demorest, Ga., is visiting at the home of Miss Bertha Cantrell this week. Miss Cantrell entertained at her home Monday night in honor of her visitor.

Mrs. J. W. Cauley and little daughter, Selma, of Pickens Route 5 left Friday for Tom-Bear, Texas, where they go to visit Mrs. Cauley's brother. They will also probably visit Mr. Cauley's brother in Central, west Texas, before returning home. They are expected to be back for the holidays.

A meeting of importance to the business men of Pickens is the meeting of the stockholders of the Pickens railroad. This meeting pertains to a reduction in freight rates, and they are trying to arrange so that Pickens merchants will get the same through rates that Wallhalla and other places on branch lines now enjoy.

We understand that Mr. W. W. T. Nalley, who recently sold his farm near Pickens has purchased the Smith farm, consisting of a house and five acres of land on the Liberty road in edge of city, and will move to it at an early date.

The health of this section is very good but I think we have had a good share of the influenza for the past several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Edens were visiting at Mrs. Mira Turner's last Sunday. Mr. B. P. Crenshaw has returned from Washington, D. C. Perry says she is some town, too.

Mr. Lewis Crenshaw is at home again to the delight of his many friends. He was in the navy.

The farmers are a little "blue" over the drop in the price of cotton, and many of them are going to wait for better prices.

The Peters Creek graded school opened up with bright prospects this time with the Misses Williams of Wagner, S. C., as teachers.

There will be an entertainment at Peters Creek school house on Saturday evening, December 14, at early candle light. Refreshments will be served consisting of coffee, cake, chicken, etc. Everybody come and bring your friends and pocketbooks along with you. There will be plays to suit old and young. The proceeds of the sales will be used for the benefit of the school.

Hope to read a letter from all the correspondents of the Sentinel in your paper ere Christmas.

Progressive.

The teachers and pupils are putting forth their best efforts to give an interesting Christmas program. The public is cordially invited and especially the patrons of the school. Program will be announced later.

Efforts are being put forth to arrange for a tennis court on the school house grounds. Material has already been purchased and we hope to have our court ready for playing by the end of the week.

We had as visitors Monday Miss Bertha Cantrell and Miss Eula Owens, of Demorest, Ga.

Notice To School Improvement Associations

All county School Improvement Associations are requested to please send reports of meetings to me at once. Literature may be secured by writing to county organizer.

Mary McCall, Oakesville, S. C.

Liberty Locals, Personals and Other Items.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kennemur attended the funeral of their uncle, Mr. John A. Smith Tuesday afternoon at Smith's Chapel, near Greenville.

Mrs. Nora Parkins of Greenville is spending a few days with Mrs. W. A. Sheldon.

Mrs. H. G. Smith, who has been living in Greenville the past several months to be with Mr. Smith while employed by the Gallivan Construction Co., has returned to Liberty. Their many friends are delighted to have them return.

Mrs. W. M. Long is visiting relatives in Belton.

The Annual Conference of the Methodist Church South, which convened in Chester last week came to a close Sunday evening after the reading of the appointments. Rev. J. M. Steadman was appointed Presiding Elder of the Greenville District. Rev. J. D. Griffen was to the Liberty charge. Some changes were made in the work—Norris, Bethlehem and Fairview churches were taken from the Liberty circuit and Gap Hill and Twelve mile churches were taken from the Pickens circuit and made a new charge, to be known as the Norris circuit.

The Liberty Mills were stricken out as a charge and in all probability added to the Liberty charge. Rev. M. K. Meadows was sent to Campobella, much to the regret of his many friends here. However, the people of Liberty wish him much success in the work at Campobella.

Mrs. A. M. Garvin is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Whitmire in Easley.

Mrs. T. J. Harrison has returned to her home in Franklin after spending several weeks with her daughter Mrs. J. W. Davis.

Mrs. J. C. Dorn is leaving for Atlanta where she expect to make her home. Mrs. Dorn has been making her home in Liberty for the past several years and it is with regret that the people see her leave.

Rev. Thompson of Lancaster preached at Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Miss Sarah Bradley returned to her home in Atlanta Sunday after spending several days with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Poor have moved from the Easley Mill No. 2 to the house recently vacated by Mrs. N. K. Parkins and have opened a first class boarding house.

The graded school resumed work on last Monday with bright prospects for a successful term.

A. C. and Laurence Sutherland, of Easley Graded school, were here for the week-end.

Jas. A. Hendricks visited his son Prue, at Camp Jackson recently.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Roper that their son John has arrived safely overseas.

Quite a number of the boys from here who are with the 30th Division in France, have recently been reported wounded. Walter Edens as "seriously wounded," John Chastain severely wounded in the foot. Earnest Stansell was wounded in the hand, and Will Andrews wounded slightly.

The public is cordially invited to the Oolenoy school building on the night of December 21st. The entertainment will consist of humorous recitations, songs, cake walk, fish pond and box supper. The proceeds of which will go toward funds for a piano for the school building.

It is a fact that this communication shouldered the heavy loss of the school building by replacing it with a better and more modern building, which prompts the better building, is a very commendable one.

Mrs. W. T. Anderson and family returned last week for their new home in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Roper, sons of Mr. Roper, arrived home last week. They were discharged from military service. This family is the first in this county to rejoice at the return of the boys, a third son is in France.

Hon. and Mrs. M.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hendrix, Mrs. L. A. Roper, Mrs. S. B. Edens, Misses Mae Jones and Montine Edens were Greenville visitors last week.

The many friends Ellery Jones of the U. S. Navy, Hampton Roads Va. will regret to learn that he has recently suffered an attack of influenza followed by pneumonia.

Mr. Mrs. J. P. Smith, of Liberty were recent guest of their daughter Mrs. Dr. C. W. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannon Roper left Monday for Atlanta where they leave their little daughter, Jeanette for treatment in a hospital there.

CHRISTMAS OF GOODS

Waterman Ideal Fountain Pens, $2.50 to $5.00
Parker Lucky Curve Fountain Pens, $2.50 to $5.00
Rexall Fountain Pens, $2.50 to $5.00

These make splendid and appropriate gifts for soldier or sailor.

Dainty and beautiful Box Papers up to $3.50
Gold Watch Chains, guaranteed 15 years, $3.00
Gold Watch Chains, guaranteed a lifetime, $5.00
Cuff Links up to $5.00
Toilet Sets and Manicure Goods up to $14.50
Military Sets up to $5.90
Necklaces and Lavalieres up to $15.00
Cameo Brooches up to $15.00
Cameo Rings up to $15.00
White Ivory Combs up to $5.00

Testaments up to $1.50
Bibles up to $8.00
Hand-Painted China up to $5.00
Cut Glass up to $5.00
Ebony Hair Brushes up to $5.00
White Ivory Mirrors up to $4.00
Wrist Watches up to $22.00
32-Piece Dinner Set $5.95
Boxes of Cigars up to $5.00
Pipes in sets up to $4.50

Tea Spoons, set, $1.25—guaranteed 25 years
Table Spoons, set, $3.00—guaranteed 25 years
Forks, set, $3.00—guaranteed 25 years
Knives, set, $4.00—guaranteed 25 years
Safety Razors up to $5.00
Perfume in bottles and in sets up to $4.50

Plenty of Candy now. A larger line will be in a little later—in plenty of time for Christmas.

Buy now and have it over with. Will be glad to set aside articles for you. You will have the advantage of a good selection. It will also make it much easier to wait on you before the rush. Mail orders receive careful attention. We have not space to mention all we have in the line of holiday goods and gift articles. Would appreciate a call from you. Will do our best to please you.

Pickens Drug Company
J. N. HALLUM, Proprietor and Manager

THE GROCERIES CARRIED

GROCERIES

In our establishment are from every standpoint, perfectly satisfactory. Their excellent quality is conceded by all who have tried them and we can guarantee their purity as it is guaranteed to us by the manufacturers. It will be money in your pocket to deal here because you not only get the highest grade of goods but pay the lowest price for them.

PICKENS HDWE. & GRO. CO.

To The Trade

Come where you can get the biggest stock of goods to pick from.

Silks of all kinds from $1.50 to $1.75 per yard.
 Serges—best French Wool Serge, $1.50 to $2.00.
 Storm Serge from $1.00 to $1.75.
 Silk Plaids $1.00; other Plaids from 50c to 75c.
 100 bolts of Gingham to select from.
 Outing of all kinds.
 Men's 3-Season Undershirts $1.00.
 Shoes of all kinds.
 White Goods of all kinds.
 Men's Suits of all kinds from $15 to $30.
 Boys' Suits of all kinds from $4.00 to $10.00.
 Hats of all kinds.

Produce

White Peas $4.20 bushel; $3 for other kinds.
 60c dozen for Eggs; 20c lb. for Hens; 15c lb. for Roosters; 30c lb. for Fryers up to 75c each.
 $1.75 for Corn in trade.
 One car Salt to go at $1.25 sack.

WILL OPEN UP BIG LOT CHRISTMAS GOODS

Yours for trade,
J. W. HENDRICKS

WARRANTED

THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE

NO OTT

Miss Nellie Powell was the guest of Miss Morris for the week-end. She has many friends here, as she is remembered she was millinery time ago.

Mr. George Cox, who has been living on Route 5 for the last year, left Friday for Piedmont S. C.

The Liberty Township Singing convention will meet with the Second Baptist church the third Sunday, commencing at 2 o'clock.

Among the boys that have been released from the army are Lieut. Wyatt Jennings, Lieut. Marvin Hutchings and Boone Carey.

J. W. Grant and family have returned to Pickens from Florida. Mr. Grant has opened a drink and fruit stand in the old Pickens bank building.

Miss Eula Owens of Demorest, Ga., is visiting at the home of Miss Bertha Cantrell this week. Miss Cantrell entertained at her home Monday night in honor of her visitor.

Mrs. J. W. Cauley and little daughter, Selma, of Pickens Route 5 left Friday for Tom-Bear, Texas, where they go to visit Mrs. Cauley's brother. They will also probably visit Mr. Cauley's brother in Central, west Texas, before returning home. They are expected to be back for the holidays.

A meeting of importance to the business men of Pickens is the meeting of the stockholders of the Pickens railroad. This meeting pertains to a reduction in freight rates, and they are trying to arrange so that Pickens merchants will get the same through rates that Wallhalla and other places on branch lines now enjoy.

We understand that Mr. W. W. T. Nalley, who recently sold his farm near Pickens has purchased the Smith farm, consisting of a house and five acres of land on the Liberty road in edge of city, and will move to it at an early date.

The health of this section is very good but I think we have had a good share of the influenza for the past several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Edens were visiting at Mrs. Mira Turner's last Sunday. Mr. B. P. Crenshaw has returned from Washington, D. C. Perry says she is some town, too.

Mr. Lewis Crenshaw is at home again to the delight of his many friends. He was in the navy.

The farmers are a little "blue" over the drop in the price of cotton, and many of them are going to wait for better prices.

The Peters Creek graded school opened up with bright prospects this time with the Misses Williams of Wagner, S. C., as teachers.

There will be an entertainment at Peters Creek school house on Saturday evening, December 14, at early candle light. Refreshments will be served consisting of coffee, cake, chicken, etc. Everybody come and bring your friends and pocketbooks along with you. There will be plays to suit old and young. The proceeds of the sales will be used for the benefit of the school.

Hope to read a letter from all the correspondents of the Sentinel in your paper ere Christmas.

Progressive.

The teachers and pupils are putting forth their best efforts to give an interesting Christmas program. The public is cordially invited and especially the patrons of the school. Program will be announced later.

Efforts are being put forth to arrange for a tennis court on the school house grounds. Material has already been purchased and we hope to have our court ready for playing by the end of the week.

We had as visitors Monday Miss Bertha Cantrell and Miss Eula Owens, of Demorest, Ga.

Notice To School Improvement Associations

All county School Improvement Associations are requested to please send reports of meetings to me at once. Literature may be secured by writing to county organizer.

Mary McCall, Oakesville, S. C.