

BEE ASSOCIATION PLANS LECTURES

G. ELLISON, A VETERAN BEE KEEPER, HAS BEEN SELECTED TO READ FIRST PAPER.

GLENSON COLLEGE ASSISTS

Automobiles go Begging Because of no Bidder at Public Auction Held Recently in Anderson.

Anderson.—At a meeting of the Anderson County Bee association it was decided that there would be a course of lectures given on "Bee Culture."

A. B. Clinkscales of Starr had an automobile to burn. Mr. Clinkscales is nearing Starr when he saw that car was on fire.

Salesday there were nine automobiles on the block of various makes of various values.

York.—Enraged because a woman and Siller Starnes, went riding with a man he had forbidden her to go company with, John Trusdale, a Negro negro, went on a rampage and tried desperately but ineffectively to kill the negroes, first with a pistol and then with a shotgun.

Spartanburg.—Reorganization of the Spartanburg baseball club of the South Atlantic league was effected when the old stock in the club was taken over by 18 business men.

Manager Al Bridwell is expected to sign the contracts of several players for him. Out of 35 men on the Spartanburg roster, only 26 will be ordered to report March 26 when training will begin.

The work of relocating and grading the diamond will be completed this week. The playing field will be greatly improved over last year.

Landrum.—Considerable loss occurred when the residence of H. K. Finley, one of the best in town, with furniture was totally destroyed by fire.

Spartanburg.—Sam Lanham, grand master for South Carolina, announced March 21 as the date for constituting six new Masonic lodges in the county, charters for which were granted at the recent session of the grand lodge.

York.—Souvenir collectors have already carried away the $80,000 granite monument erected by the government to commemorate the revolutionary battle of Kings Mountain, 17 miles here.

Senwood.—Colonel George Johnson, 75, prominent attorney and former member of congress, from the 1st South Carolina district died at home in Newberry.

Great Educational Pageant. Rock Hill.—Preparations are under way at Winthrop college for a great educational pageant, which will depict South Carolina history.

Easley Chief is Killed. Easley.—Chief of Police W. C. Holbeck was instantly killed by a shot or Wade Ballew, an alleged hobo who was to be fatally wounded and then, who gave his name as Wiley, was slightly wounded in a pistol fight in which 30 shots were fired.

Officers Chapman and Lesley succeeded in capturing Ballew and Wiley about 500 yards from where the shooting occurred, and landed them in prison before the people of the town knew of the occurrence.

MANY RAILROADS TO REDUCE WAGES

PRACTICALLY EVERY ROAD IN THE WEST HAS ANNOUNCED SEVERE CUTS.

ARE ARRANGING CONFERENCES

Men in Eighty-five Classes of Labor Expect to Open Negotiations with Their Employers at Once.

New York.—A general move by the nation's railroads to cut war-time wage scales, long forecast by rail officials, appeared to be in full swing.

Officials of various lines were arranging conferences with employees in an effort to reach agreements on the proposed reductions.

The New York Central and the New York, New Haven and Hartford, whose proposed reduction announcements included men in 85 classes of labor, were expected to open negotiations with their men next week.

Graves are Decorated.

Allied Military Headquarters, News.—General Gaucher, commander of French troops engaged in the occupation of the new tariff zone along the Rhine, placed wreaths on the graves of French and German soldiers who died during the war of 1870 and the world conflict, buried in the military cemetery near here.

Revise Price Napped Cotton.

New York.—A long expected revision in the prices of napped cotton for the Fall of 1921 was announced after the close of business by a large manufacturing concern (Amoskeag Manufacturing company).

French to Evacuate Cilicia.

London.—Premier Briand, before leaving for Paris conferred with the Turkish nationalist delegation in London and reached an agreement with it on the question of the rapid evacuation by the French of Cilicia, Asia Minor.

Prussian Cabinet Resigns.

Berlin.—The Prussian cabinet tendered its resignation in consequence of the recent elections. The ministry will continue to function, however, pending the formation of a new cabinet.

Revolts are Spreading.

London.—Trustworthy news received from the Interior of Russia, says a dispatch to The London Times, from Reval, shows that anti-soviet revolts are spreading throughout the country.

To Review Palmer Decision.

Washington.—Early review by Attorney General Daugherty of the recent ruling of former Attorney General Palmer making valid the prescription of beer as medicine under the Volstead act is expected.

Five from Baltimore.

Tarnowitz, Silesia.—Five Germans qualified to vote in the coming plebiscite in upper Silesia have arrived here from Baltimore, Md. Another 120 eligible to vote are on the way from Argentina and Chile.

Bureau Ordered to Stop.

Dulburg.—The French authorities in the newly-occupied area have ordered the local bureau of the upper Silesia voters league to cease its activities.

Urges Restricted Shipments.

Chicago.—The livestock exchange issued a statement urging restricted shipments of all livestock effective now. The statement was issued because of what was termed "unsettled labor conditions in packing houses."

Inauguration Cost $1,500.

Washington.—President Harding's inauguration cost just $1,500 out of the $50,000 special appropriation made by congress according to Elliott Woods, superintendent of the Capital buildings and grounds.

Job Hunters Must Wait.

Washington.—Job hunters seeking places in the department of justice will have to wait, according to a policy outlined by Attorney General Daugherty.

Belgian Guard Wounded.

Brussels.—A Belgian guard was wounded by a bullet fired by an unknown person in the streets of Dulburg, according to a dispatch from that city to the Derniere Heure. The circumstances of the shooting have not been disclosed.

Social and Personal Items in and Around Easley.

Miss Brucie Ellison spent the past week-end with relatives in Spartanburg.

Dr. W. A. Tripp and Hon. H. B. Hendricks are attending a good roads meeting in Columbia this week.

Mr. T. K. Hudgens, of Spartanburg, was in Easley this week on business.

Capt. Elias Day tells us he is still in the race for Probate Judge and wants the boys to watch him run next Tuesday.

Mrs. A. B. Dreyer, of Spartanburg, arrived Saturday to visit at the home of her son, Mr. A. H. Dreyer.

Rev. D. W. Lott and Sam Capell are attending a convention of the Woodmen of the World in Florence this week.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Patton entertained the stewards of the Methodist church and their wives at a seven o'clock dinner on last Tuesday evening.

Miss Debra Mae Grant, of Jasper, Ga., a granddaughter of Mr. Allen Mauldin, is spending several weeks with relatives and friends in and around Easley.

The entertainment given by the ladies of the Methodist church at the auditorium last Thursday evening was well attended and a neat sum was realized which will be used at the Methodist parsonage.

C. W. Garrett has just installed a modern and up-to-date free air station at his service station on Main street. This takes the place of the old air station and is much more convenient.

Miss Louise Sapp, of Lancaster, and her brother, Mr. Marion Symons Sapp, student at Western College, spent the past week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Carrish.

Mrs. Frank E. Donald and little daughter, of Greenville, spent several days this week with her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Higgins, and her father, Mr. J. M. Jamison, and other relatives in Easley.

Harold Proctor, the noted Irish tenor and supporting artists will appear at the school auditorium Thursday evening of this week as one of the numbers of the Boy Scouts Lyceum course. They are highly recommended and should be greeted by a full house.

The young people's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met on last Friday afternoon with Remsen Bauknight, a large number being present. An instructive program was carried out, after which delicious home made candy was served.

Spring is approaching and candidates are coming out. C. W. Garrett and M. D. Cox are announced this week as candidates for aldermen from ward one and ward 4 respectively, and G. W. Allen is announced as a candidate for mayor. All these gentlemen are well known and need no introduction from us. This now makes three men in the race for mayor; Sam Yowell, G. W. Allen and W. D. Sparrano.

Circle No. 1 of the Women's Auxiliary of the Wesleyan church will have a "Peter Rabbit" party on Saturday afternoon, March 26th, from 4:30 to 6:30 at the home of Mrs. W. M. Haggood, Jr., at 14 Highland Road. There will be an admission fee of ten cents. A most cordial invitation is extended to all the children in town to attend and enjoy an afternoon of fun and frolic.

Mrs. J. L. Mace is visiting her mother, Mrs. R. F. Orr, in Hendersonville, this week.

In an election held last Saturday the voters of Maynard school district voted $6,600 for the purpose of building a new school building.

The Easley Chamber of Commerce has secured H. W. Daniel, the noted platform speaker of the South, to address that body on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, March 25. It is the purpose of the directors to arrange meetings in which all of the members can be interested and take part. At this time a town needs more organization and cooperation than at any other time. With such a noted speaker on the program it will be well worth the while for every citizen of the town to be out and hear him and catch the Easley spirit afresh. All citizens are cordially invited to go out to hear Mr. Daniel.

Mr. Edwin L. Bolt has returned from the Northern Markets where he has been buying goods for his concern. Mr. Bolt states that business men in the North are very optimistic over the outlook for a good spring business and that conditions generally are improving.

The women of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church are now studying their spring book, "The Bible and Missions." An interesting lesson, "The Missionary Message of the old Testament," was taken up on last Monday at the church. The ladies would be glad to have the members of the other societies meet with them in these studies, on Monday afternoons at four o'clock.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Camp Monday afternoon. The subject was "Rural Communities." The discussion was led by Mrs. M. F. Parrish, assisted by Mrs. Walker Mull, whose subject was "The Rural Tenantry in my Own State." Mrs. W. R. Wyatt, subject, "Education, Religion and Social Conditions; Mrs. J. P. Patton, subject, "The Way Out." The subject was one of vital importance and was ably discussed. These able discussions from time to time keep the society alive and in good working condition. There were eighteen members present at this meeting. During the social hour of the afternoon Mrs. Camp served a delicious salad course with tea.

TURNER BACK ON THE JOB.

Stub Turner has been re-instated as speed cop for the town of West Greenville, and this newspaper has been reliably informed that he has resumed his practice of holding up persons passing through West Greenville. A great number of people from this section are taking the advice of friends and turning off the main road at the Farmers Oil Mill and taking the road known as the White Horse road to Looper's store and thence to Greenville.

FERTILIZER PRICES.

T. A. Bowen, county agent, has the following prices on 16 per cent acid and soda, delivered only when in Pickens county: Acid 17.00; soda $55.25. For the convenience of parties interested in fertilizer, Mr. Bowen will be in Easley on Saturday all day and he hopes by that time to still have some better prices.

AUTO-SERUM TREATMENT FEATURED.

Expert in the Treatment of all old-standing Nervous, Blood, Skin and Pelvic Diseases of Women and Men.

I Give a $10.00 Examination Free.

"606" and "914" Administered Intravenously for Blood Disorders.

I TREAT SUCCESSFULLY

Catarrh, Asthma, Pellagra, Bronchitis, Stomach Troubles, Neuritis, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Deafness, Varicose Veins, Bladder and Kidney Troubles, Stricture, Hydrocele, Prostrate Glands, Piles, Fistula and Male and Female Weakness, High Blood Pressure and Kidney Disorders.

Honest Treatr You pay for result. I employ in my practice all the latest imported Serums, Vaccines, Antitoxins, Bacterins, Imported European Intravenous Specific Remedies and the latest and best appliances for the speedy cure of stubborn diseases.

Consultation and Examination FREE. All dealings Confidential. Hours: Daily 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. Sundays, 10 to 2 p. m. only.

For Skilled Treatment Consult

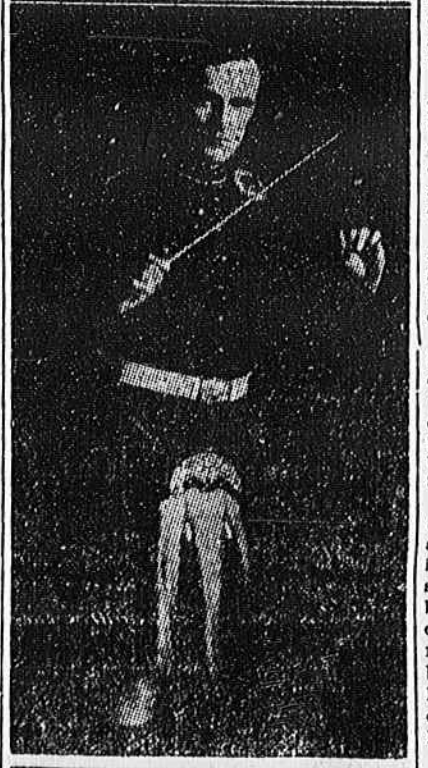

Dr. O'Neill SPECIALIST 207 News Building (One Flight Up)

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred Rhode Island Red Eggs, $2 per setting. Mrs. J. D. Yongue, Pickens, S. C.

Palmaffesta News

All about the big gala week at Columbia, March 28—April 2.

WHAT IS THE PALMAFFESTA? The Scotch "Kilties" Ample Accommodations CHOOSING A QUEEN FOR PALMAFFESTA. Includes detailed text about the event, a photo of a woman in a kilt, and a list of prizes.

For information of any kind, write the heads of the various committees, they will be glad to serve you in any way. It will be great, don't miss it. Come to Palmaffesta.