

If money talks, mum's the word.

The friends that are staying with us are leaving.

The guy who said talk is cheap didn't buy a telephone.

You don't wear one sneek slightly or they're gone now.

Let your neighbor chicken—Gum of the Pickens.

The man who would not seem a fellow in the crowd to which he had belonged.

That show was his business in his hands, never was in his soul.

Most generally you can find out what a man will do by the way he prophesies.

If we are going to have a blacker than ever day, let's have it all night.

Send a word that we like the low with the big, that better than we like the follow with the big lead.

The slowly cultivated fields look fine. But they would look much better covered with two-dollar corn and forty-cent cotton.

If Jack Dempsey goes to knock to fight Georges Carpentier, it will be the first time he ever went there to fight.

Local note. The Pickens-Easley telephone line that has been busy several years is taking a much needed rest.

A man died in Spartanburg last week at the age of 90. We don't know what had hit him, but it finally got him.

The Pickens Sentinel says the Republicans broke the whole country instead of the Solid South. We don't know about that, but whoever did it did a good job, all right. Lexington Dispatch.

Mr. Harding has given important positions to Messrs. Fisher, Hayes, Hoover, Harvey and Herrick. We modestly call his attention to the fact that this does not exhaust the list of great men whose names begin with "H."

That office rat we advertised several weeks ago is with us no more. He got too familiar and the chief editor bought some cat medicine at Earle Lewis' drug store and spread it generously on a huge hunk of cheese. Mr. Rat enjoyed the picnic at our expense, but he must have seen us since.

In answer to the recent inquiry as to where a modern girl would be vaccinated so it wouldn't show, our good friend, Mr. A. Tree Folger, of New York and Easley, suggests that just behind the ear would be about the proper place. We hadn't thought of that.

Famous ties—Neck—Cross—That bind.

THANK YOU.

Greenville Piedmont.

Gary Hiott, who has been living at Easley, has returned to his former home in Pickens and announces in the Pickens Sentinel this week that he agrees with some folks who says he doesn't see how anybody can live more than two miles from Pickens and be satisfied. Editor Hiott is highly esteemed by his fellow newspapermen of the state and is a much quoted paragrapher.

WORLD WAR VETERANS

If you have not yet received your Victory Medal, make application for one at once to the Victory Medal Office, Camp Johnson, S. C. This medal is a symbol for service in the greatest war the world has ever known and in the case of every American, for the most honorable cause. If you are entitled to one, you should have it to wear at all gatherings of the veterans. Don't delay, write today to the above mentioned address and steps will immediately be taken to issue one. Also the parents or nearest of kin to deceased veterans may make application for the medal.

James C. Cole, Jr.,
Capt., 61st Infantry, Victory Medal Officer.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

A Sunday or two ago a birthday celebration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pace in honor of Mrs. Laureann Jones, her grandson, Ivy Pace, and two great-grandsons, Hansell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pace, and Glynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Foster, and J. D. Edens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Edens. They had called in their kindred and just say there was somewhat of a gathering, and I must say there was no lack of good things to eat. In a way it made me think of heaven. I just thought there was coming a family reunion there and we would meet our loved ones to part no more, and then sit down to the table of the Lord and eat and be made full, and there will be no lack of food then.

STORES CLOSE EARLY.

We, the undersigned merchants, agree to close our places of business at 6:30, except Saturdays, beginning April 15th, until Sept. 15th:

Folger and Hendricks, Mrs. B. S. Johnson, Pickens Hardware and Grocery Co., T. L. Benson & Co., A. C. Gravely, Bivens & Co., Morris & Co.

LEWIS REUNION.

There will be a reunion of the Lewis family at the Jacob Lewis place the second Sunday in May.

OXFORD TIME

Once more the time has rolled around when our heavy winter shoes begin to feel uncomfortable, and we begin to think about a light pair of Oxfords.

We are showing this season a complete line for children, misses, boys, men and women in all leathers and all the new styles with prices much lower than last season.

YOUR WALK-OVERS ARE HERE.

Walk-Overs for both men and women in the latest styles at $6.00, $7.00 up to $8.50. There are none better than Walk-Overs, and few as good. We do not believe we have ever had a dissatisfied customer on a Walk-Over shoe.

Cheaper grades for both men and women from $2.00 the pair to $6.00. We always take pleasure in showing you. A satisfied customer is our best advertisement.

Yours truly,

FOLGER & HENDRICKS
