

Save Time and Money

Traveling men! When bad roads prevent the use of your car you can often accomplish the same results by calling on your customers by long distance telephone. The low STATION TO STATION toll rate saves time and money when you are reasonably sure some one with whom you can talk business will be present.

BIG FAMILY REUNION.

On the 87th birthday of Mrs. C. V. Rowland, of Central, S. C., there was a big family reunion at the home of her eldest son, Capt. J. H. Rowland, at Central. Those present of the immediate family were Capt. and Mrs. Tom Rowland and Tom, Jr., Virginia, and Carl, of Taylorsville, N. C.; Capt. J. H. Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Dagnall Folger and Raymond Rowland, of Central, S. C.; Postmaster C. G. and Mrs. C. G. Rowland and their children, Henry, Carl, Gilreath, Nell, of Central, S. C., and Mrs. Mary Rowland and Martin, of Liberty, S. C. Others present of relatives and friends were:

Steve Frasier and Miss Lou Smith, Walhalla, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Craig, Kate Craig, Roy Craig, Marcus Craig, Mrs. J. Y. Kay, Mrs. Lillian Smith, Henry Smith, Margery Smith, Mary Jane Smith, Marshall C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kessler, John Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Smith, Norman Keesler, Florence Keesler, Ola Keesler, Annie Laura Keesler, Mrs. Alma Brezeale, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Welborn, Viola and Harriett Welborn, Mrs. Levi Burriss, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hunnicutt, Ruth and Harold Hunnicutt, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. and Theo Smith, Mrs. Rosa McMurtree, Raymond and Rosa Lee McMurtree, all of Pendleton, S. C.; Rufus Lawrence, Virginia Ruth Stevenson, Geo. E. Holland, Mrs. Geo. E. Holland and Ethel, Blanche, William, John and George Holland, all of Anderson, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Moorehead and Eva, Jessie, Janie Moorehead, all of Sandy Springs, S. C.; Frank Smith, Liberty, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. John Barton, Ruth and Johnnie Barton, Mrs. Lila Adams, Arthur and Kittie Adams, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nesbitt, Catherine, Eleveyn and Helen Nesbitt, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Slaten, Sallie and Inezine Slaten, Joe Clark, all of Greenville, S. C.; Mrs. Elizabeth and Sarah Williams, Winnie Wood, Okla; Miss Mamie Philpot, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Neal, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Worsham, Valeria Poy, Luerline Worsham, Mrs. R. C. Rochester, Mrs. J. H. Gaines, E. L. Henderson, all of Central, S. C.; Dean J. Radliffe, Atlanta, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Smith, of Seneca, S. C.

The dinner was spread in the backyard under the big oak trees of the home of Capt. J. H. Rowland.

There were about eighty-six to partake of the dinner, and after every one there had all they could eat there were several baskets of good rations taken up. Mrs. C. V. Rowland, though 87 years old, enjoyed the occasion as well as any one there. Mrs. Rowland is exceptionally strong for her age, being able to get about anywhere without any help. The occasion was enjoyed by all. One would not think there were any hard times in this country who could have seen the table loaded down with so many good things.

Then it is a most beautiful sight to see children and grand children show the affection for their mother and grandmother that was shown at this reunion. Mrs. Rowland has reasons to be proud of all her children for she has lived to see them all doing well and holding responsible positions where they live. Everybody in this section knows Grandmother Rowland and they are always glad to see her. She always meets you with a smile, and will make you feel that it's not so bad to be aged after all. May Grandmother Rowland live to have many more birthdays and reunions like the one held July 1st, 1921.

After dinner there was a delicious course of ice cream served.

A Friend.

COST OF RUNNING GOVERNMENT FOR YEAR 5 BILLIONS.

Total Revenues for Year Were $5,624,932,960.

Washington, July 2.—The cost of running the United States government during the fiscal year which ended Friday, was $5,115,927,689, according to the treasury department's statement for the close of business June 30. The figures, however, are subject to final adjustments. Revenues from all sources, although showing a drop of a billion under the previous year, amounted to $5,624,932,960, and there was a balance of cash in the general fund amounting to $549,687,105, enough to meet expenses for several days. Expenditures averaged around forty million dollars a day for the week before the fiscal year ended.

For the year ending June 30, 1920, the government's income was $6,694,565,888, and its expenditures $6,403,343,841. All types of taxes collected during the 1921 year showed losses compared with 1920 returns, but the big decrease was in the income and profits levy, which produced $2,206,046,157 in 1921, and $3,944,949,287 the previous year.

During the year of 1921, the government obtained $8,864,398,322 from sales of its securities and retired $9,184,027,170 worth of securities. Listed in the ordinary disbursements was $999,144,731 paid during the year as interest on all classes of debts.

The gross national debt at the end of the year was $23,977,450,552, while at the end of the 1920 fiscal year it was $24,299,321,467. The high points in the debt of the United States for all time came August 31, 1919, when it was $26,596,701,648.

FURMAN'S FOOTBALL SCHEDULE.

Greenville, S. C., July 5.—Nine games are on the football schedule of Furman University for the 1921 season, considered one of the hardest games ever arranged for the Baptists. Four of the hardest games appear in succession with the University of Georgia, Georgia Tech, Clemson and Citadel. Every game, except one, is to be played at home.

Milton McManaway, of Greenville, fullback of the "Purple Hurricane" of 1920, is captain of the 1921 eleven. Furman lost but two players by graduation this year.

Schedule for the coming season follows:

Sept. 24—Erskine at Greenville.
Oct. 1—Newberry at Greenville.
Oct. 8—Newberry at Greenville.
Oct. 8—University of Georgia at Greenville.
Oct. 15—Georgia Tech at Atlanta.
Oct. 21—Clemson at Greenville.
Oct. 29—Citadel at Greenville.
Nov. 3—Mercer at Greenville.
Nov. 18—Wofford at Greenville.
Nov. 24—Davidson at Greenville.
J. Harrell ("Speedy") Speer, famous football player at Furman University for four years, and one of the greatest players the state ever produced, is to be physical director and assistant coach at Furman next year. As assistant coach, Mr. Speer will be under Coach William L. Laval, under whose tutelage he starred on the gridiron. The new athletic director was one of the most popular students ever graduated from Furman.

UNCLE LEW SAYS.

A young woman has been arrested for operating a whiskey distillery in Pennsylvania.—News item.

Oh, lead me to this maiden—
She's the girl I want to know;
If she's in jail I'll join her;
Just lead me to her, bo.
It may be, I conjecture,
Her secret she would spill;
With all her faults, old-timer,
I love her "still."

"Stay up till 2 a. m. and you'll see the comet," reads a headline. But our Mr. Jenkins wants to know where one can stay up so late in these prohibition days?

Advice: Leave your children at home on bargain days, as it has been proved that little Tommy or Maryjo cannot reach mama's skirt, and is liable to get lost in the crowd.

Speaking of altitude, that overseas veteran who regained his voice when 12,500 feet up in an airplane, must have been a married man. He became silent again as soon as he hit the earth.

Alice Robertson, Oklahoma congresswoman, is the first female in the history of the republic to wield the gavel in the congress of this country. The rest of the women of the country don't wield gavels—that is, they're not called that. They use the old reliable rollie-pin instead. And they are just as effective.

Daily Horror-Scope.—Today will be a bad day for those who attempt to take curves on the Easley and Greenville road on two wheels. The planets avar favorably for young men, stalwart and tanned, who are adept in giving swimming lessons at Adkins pool. However, it is yet to be written that one member of the female species has admitted knowledge of the art when questioned by a handsome thing in a nifty one-piece jersey abbreviation with rippling waves about his feet and a come-let-me-show-you look in his eyes.

We clip the following wheeze from an Indiana journal. It is not original with that paper. We print it for two reasons:

(1) We have not printed it before, in spite of its familiarity.

And (2) it ought to keep the Demon Illustrator busy for a couple of days.

Voici le Wheeze:

A woman who was too economical to subscribe for her home paper sent her little son to borrow the copy taken by their neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a four-dollar stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and failing to notice a barbed wire fence ran into it, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a five-dollar pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the cornfield and killed herself eating corn. Hearing the racket, the mother ran, upset a four-gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole litter. In her hurry she dropped and broke, past all hope of mending, a twenty-five dollar set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled cream and into the parlor, ruining a twenty-dollar carpet. During the excitement the eldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails of four fine shirts. All to save $1.50.

Moral: Subscribe for this paper at once and protect yourself from such calamities.

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigarette aftertaste,

It's Camels for you.
