

RUSTIC RHYMES

By Will Dalton.

Justice.

It used to be when'er a man would try to take the town in hand and with a gun or knife, go parading through the street, and there some harmless fellow meet, and take the critter's life; why, sir, that gent would land in jail and be held there in lieu of bail till court convened; and when they brought him out for trial and he went marching up the aisle few hearts toward his would lean. And you could always safely bet a straight, square deal was all he'd get—'twas quite enough!—and if the judge and jury men thought he was due a term of ten they'd send him off. But that was in the long ago and such things are no longer so; the guys are known as great who pack a gun upon their hip and if the chance for using it comes, never hesitate. And if an officer arrests and takes to jail one of the pests you'll hear the people say, "Why don't they let the guy alone?" And if they take him into court, the lawyers round the judge cavort and tell a thousand lies; and then the judge will sniff and snuff and say, "The poor guy's had enough; he should be idolized." But there's a court, I'm glad to say, where we will all be tried some day, and justice may expect, for there will be no money paid to have the judge's sentence stayed, and save the murderer's neck. Let me ask you, gentlemen, what's the use for us to spend our time and cash in making laws and paying men to carry out those laws and then treat them as trash? If we have laws that are no good, I think it's time the people stood for better ones; and if the guys who make our laws, all this crime and murder cause; why elect them when they run? But if our land is all o. k., we should in this outrageous day, arise and help to back her; and if we fail or we refuse to stop the guys who'd abuse, we're just a dirty slacker. The court officials know quite well they vowed they'd no decisions sell, for land or purse; and God, e'er long will stop their game, and tell them as he did old Cain, "Your brother's blood is crying from the earth."

WOMEN—If you need extra money to help with household expenses, or if you have someone dependent on you for support, we have a proposition which will pay $50.00 to $75.00 per month. About four half-days each week devoted to this pleasant, outdoor work will insure you a steady income, and a business of your own. Send a postcard today for full information. WEDDING OF MISS SMITH AND MAJOR COOLEY.

One of the largest assemblages that has witnessed nuptial ceremonies in many months in the Piedmont section was gathered Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Rufus Franklin Smith at Easley, for the marriage of her daughter, Velma Hollingsworth, to Major Elias Earle Cooley of the Medical Corps of the United States army. The living room, hall, parlor and ceremony room were beautifully decorated.

The bridal party entered as follows: First the ushers, Hugh and Ralph Smith, taking their stands on each side of the officiating minister, Rev. S. W. DuBose. Then came the candle bearer, Miss Margaret Lancaster, of Columbia, dressed in blue. The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Lancaster, dressed in lavender, Miss Virginia Lancaster, in blue, and Miss Annie Cooley, in yellow. All carried white flowers. Miss Gladys Smith was maid of honor and was dressed in green. The mothers of the bride and groom, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Cooley, were dames of honor and were beautiful in dresses of white. The flower girls were little Dorothy Barr and Mary Smith.

The wedding march was played by Mr. and Mrs. Hal Barr, and Miss Virgil Sellers, piano and two violins.

The bride, Miss Velma Hollingsworth Smith, entered with her brother, Lloyd, and the groom, Maj. E. E. Cooley, entered with his best man, Lieut. Jack Cooley. The bride was beautifully dressed in white satin with veil and orange blossoms, her bouquet was bride's roses and valley lilies. The groom and best man were in full uniform. The bride's traveling suit was of blue with accessories to match. The bride and groom left for a short honeymoon trip after which they will come to Easley for a short visit, then they will leave for Honolulu where Maj. Cooley is stationed.

During the evening a delicious ice course was served and throughout the evening punch was served on the spacious verandas.

Many out of town guests were present from Pickens, Liberty, Greenville, Anderson, Columbia and Atlanta.

MANY NEW HOMES ARE BUILT BY PICKENS FOLK.

Many new homes have been built here and the growth of the town has been materially aided by the Pickens Building and Loan Association, which recently completed its first year of operation. The first year has demonstrated that Pickens needs the association and its continued success is predicted by officials of the organization.

The capital of the Pickens Building and Loan Association at its beginning was $50,000 and its ultimate capital $150,000. Officers of the organization are: C. L. Cureton, president; J. P. Carey, Jr., vice president; Frank McFall, secretary and treasurer; and the board of directors consists of C. L. Cureton, J. P. Carey, Jr., Frank McFall, F. E. Alexander, A. M. Morris, T. J. Mauldin, J. H. Bruce, G. G. Christopher and Sam B. Craig.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of William McFall Lusk who departed this life August 1, 1920.

One can imagine but hardly realize how father and mother feel when a telegram comes saying that your son is in the hospital not expected to live, when you didn't even know before that he was sick. That was a long lonesome night. Next another telegram came that he was dead. Then all hopes of ever meeting our beloved son in the flesh was gone. Then came the thought, blessed be God, we will meet beyond the skies where there will be no more suffering of this mortal body, where sickness, pain and death are unknown, but everlasting peace and love and joy with our Saviour who suffered and died for us that we might live and reign with him through eternity. That is the greatest consolation that the human being can have—the conscience void of offense to the word of God and man.

We often realize in our mind's eye his earthly form and appearance. No one can realize or imagine how often your mind leads you back to times passed. But we are separated from each other while this short life lasts and it will not be long until we can meet again in the great beyond. So remember well and bear in mind death will overtake us all somewhere, some place, some time. Therefore prepare to meet thy God before it be too late or you will be in a lost and ruined state.

His Father.

HUNDRED CORN CLUB BOYS ON WAY TO CAMP SAY CROPS IN PICKENS COUNTY ALL O. K.

Greenville Piedmont.

"Crops in Pickens are fine. The boll weevil is with us there but we do not expect any actual damage this year. The corn crop will be one of the best ever. The Ooleney section has not suffered in the least for want of rain, and the whole of Pickens is in good shape from an agricultural standpoint."

These were the assertions of leaders in a party of 100 Pickens people, chiefly corn club boys, who passed through Greenville this morning on their way to River Falls, where the entire crowd will camp for several days. The party stopped over for a quarter of an hour at the Chamber of Commerce building, the four large trucks which are transporting them being parked on Main street, and its leaders enjoyed a brief conversation with Chamber of Commerce officials.

T. A. Bowen, agricultural demonstration agent for Pickens county, heads the vacation party. Among those with him is Prof. L. M. Bauknicht, teacher of an agricultural class at Easley. Professor Bauknicht has between twenty and twenty-five pupils with him, and Mr. Bowen has over sixty of his corn club boys in the party. Several parents of the boys, among them J. D. Simmons, a prominent farmer of the Ooleney section, accompany the party. Mr. Simmons was one of the most enthusiastic of the number over Pickens' fine crop prospects.

Education Superintendent Clayton of Pickens county, and B. O. Williams, assistant state agent in charge of corn club work, are also in the camping party bound for River Falls.

When the corn club boys and their leaders reach River Falls they plan to camp in the large pavilion there and to cook their own meals during the several days of their stay.

HUNGER, THE BEST SAUCE.

Sauce is used to create an appetite or relish for the food. The right way is to look to your digestion. When you have good digestion you are certain to relish your food. Chamberlain's Tablets improve the digestion, create a healthy appetite and cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

NOTICE.

Patrons of Gates school are requested to meet at the Gates school house August 12th at 2:00 o'clock for the purpose of discussing a better school house and school facilities. Be sure and come for many interesting questions will be discussed.

SAME OLD STORY BUT A GOOD ONE.

Mrs. Mahala Burns, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of others, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for bowel troubles."
