

FROM CATEECHEE.

On last Wednesday, the 10th inst., while the luminous rays of the sun from the beautiful blue sky almost hurt ones eyes and a pleasant breeze from the north was stirring, which made the day an ideal one, the cars and vehicles from every direction began to stop at the beautiful home of Mr. T. H. Holliday. The first car to arrive about 9:30 a. m. contained the family of Mr. Craton Holliday, of Easley, a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Holliday. Of course Mr. Holliday never thought anything strange of his son's visit, but in a few minutes two more of his sons and their families drove up. By this time the relatives and friends of Mr. Holliday from various parts of the county and from the towns of Easley, Liberty, Williamston and Central began to gather. At first Mr. Holliday was completely dumbfounded. Of course he was accustomed to having his relatives and friends to visit him, but not in such large numbers. After inviting in and shaking hands with several of those who had arrived first, Mr. Holliday made inquiry of his sons as to this extraordinary gathering, when he was told to stop and think for a few minutes. The father of this home then happened to think it was his sixty-third birthday and the next day, Thursday, was his fortieth marriage anniversary and his sons had taken advantage of the two occasions and run a surprise on the father and mother.

By twelve o'clock there were between 200 and 250 people present. An hour or two in the forenoon was spent in an old time seven up marble game in which both old and young taken part. It was amusing to hear those old fellows holler, "fat," "kicks seven feet," "no fudging," etc. These games were enjoyed by Messrs. R. G. Gaines, H. E. Seaborn, Sam Mann, Nelson Garrett and several others, but from the best the writer could keep "tab" Mr. H. E. Seaborn proved to be some "marble shooter as well as a good salesman.

Benj. McKee "shot" the crowd with some kind of a little instrument with a rag thrown over it. As the writer was not a good target he got a safe distance. Of course if we had had any intention of being in the group we had much rather to be in before eating than after.

After the picture was taken Mr. R. G. Gaines invoked God's blessings and everybody was told to help themselves.

Right here we wish to say we never saw a nicer table set or any more of it. It never looked like hard times to see that table. When everybody had eaten there was enough left to feed fifty or seventy-five more.

The organ was then brought out in the yard and some good music made, which was led by Mr. Henry Riggins.

It is not out of place to say something about Mr. Holliday's life both in a financial and religious way. During the civil or Confederate War Mr. Holliday was the sole dependence for his mother and younger brothers and sisters, as his father was stricken with paralysis on Sullivan's Island while in service, was sent home and never was able to work any more. Mr. Holliday stayed with his parents until he was 22 years old. The year before he married he made a corn crop and with that and ten dollars in money he started out in the world. Today Mr. Holliday owns 260 acres of as fertile land near the foot of Six Mile mountain as there is in the county. He has a nice house on it, plenty of out buildings and all kinds of stock. He makes plenty to eat at home. He has raised ten children, all living and seven of whom are married and own good homes right around their father. The good book says show "piety at home for that is good and acceptable before the Lord" which is an exact facsimile of Mr. Holliday's life. He informs us that he has had only one death in his family, an infant, and never has had any serious sickness. Truly a blessing.

Dan cupid still furnishes the old mill grinding. On last Sunday, the 21st inst., about 5:00 p. m., Mr. Felix Howe served notice on the old miller that he had a "turn" and wanted the little mill to grind with rapidity as he had "hooked" the "turn" and was liable to be followed.

The old miller realizing with the authority at hand once the "turn" was ground and the "toll" paid there would not likely be any further proceedings in the case on the part of the loser, the old miller, J. Alonzo Brown, N. P., of S. C., turned on the little motor all the power it could muster and in a few minutes Mr. Howe and Miss Ona Gilstrap were leaving the little mill door made man and wife and with a smile on their faces that denoted happiness.

It gives the officiating officer as much pleasure to help those who want to leave the celibacy and try double blessedness as it does a preacher when he leads a sinner out of darkness into light.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howe, of Liberty, and is a promising young man, while his bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gilstrap of Liberty, who stands well in social life.

Many congratulations.

AROUND PETERS CREEK.

Revival services closed at Peters Creek on last night. A large crowd attended each service and every one seemed to enjoy the services so much. Rev. Chas. Ganer, of Union, did the preaching.

Miss Ina Weisner, of Lorenlain Inn, spent last week with her sister of this place.

A large crowd attended the baptizing yesterday afternoon, considering the rain.

Miss Bertha Hill, of Greenville, is spending some time with her cousin, Miss Nathalee Sammons, of this place.

Fox hunting seems to be the order of the day in this section, as you can hear the dogs' voices ringing throughout the community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Whitmire, of Greenville, spent a week recently with the former's mother, Mrs. V. G. Whitmire.

We hear that the wedding bells are going to ring some time soon.

Miss Wofford was with us during the meeting for a short while. Every one seemed to enjoy her talks so much.

We haven't had the B. Y. P. U. regular on account of the meetings, though from now on the public is most cordially invited to attend every Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock.

"I smiled- and he shot me"

AFTER MONTHS and months. MY WIFE persuaded me. TO HAVE it done. SO I went around. TO THE photographer. AND GOT nugged. WHEN THE pictures came. I SHOWED them to a gang. OF AMATEUR art critics. AND PROFESSIONAL crabs. DISGUISED AS friends. WHO FAVORED me. WITH SUCH remarks as. "DOESN'T HE look natural?" "HAS IT got a tail?" "A GREAT resemblance." AND THAT last one. MADE ME sore. SO WHEN friend wife. ADDED HER howl. I TRIED again.

THIS TIME they were great. FOR HERE'S what happened. THE PHOTOGRAPHER said. "LOOK THIS way please." AND HELD up something. AS HE pushed the button. AND NO one could help. BUT LOOK pleasant. FOR WHAT he held up. WAS A nice full pack. OF THE cigarettes. THAT SATISFY.

LIGHT up a Chesterfield and sense the goodness of those fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos in that wonderful Chesterfield blend. Taste that flavor! Sniff that aroma! You'll register "They Satisfy." You can't help it.

Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?

SPECIAL BARGAIN'S FOR AUGUST

BOLTS STORE

The Coolest Store in Town and the Lowest Prices

Instead of August being a dull off month with us we are going to make it a big busy month by making special prices on all kinds of dry goods, shoes, oxfords and clothing. We were just as busy in July as December. The reason for our good July business was because we sold merchandise at a low price. We advertised and let the people know about it. They came and bought their requirements. We are doing business just like we did when times were good. We are keeping up our stock, buying new goods every day. The old high price goods we owned last year are gone. What we buy now is brand new merchandise at the new low price, which means a big saving to our customers. We believe that this accounts for our good July business. People are buying merchandise, but they are refusing to pay war time prices. In other words they are buying where they can get the new low price on new goods and that's exactly what they get when they buy at Bolt's. Remember, when you buy goods from us they are new goods and not the same goods you looked at the last time you were in our store.

Do your August shopping at this store and note the savings you will be able to make. We are quoting a few specials which are samples of many other even greater values. We shall be glad to have you come in and let us show you.
