NEWTON E. SMITH DEAD

Newton E. Smith, superintendent of the Easley Cotton mill and associated with the plant for approximately 15 years, died at his home at about 1:30 o'clock last Thursday morning following an illness of several weeks duration. Mr. Smith was 47 years of age at the time of his death and very active all of his life. His death came as the result of what appeared to be an attack of acute indigestion, followed by a pronounced case of Bright's disease.

Mr. Smith was originally from North Carolina but came to this state when he first entered the textile industry. He first came to Easley as overseer of the card room of the Easley mill, being promoted to the superintendency upon the resignation of E. H. Shanklin. By clear business insight and pleasing manner, he soon won a host of friends in this section and became well known over the entire Piedmont section.

The deceased is survived by his wife and two daughters, Gladys and Irene. He was a devoted member of the Easley Mill Methodist Church and was identified with many worthy causes during his life.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Methodist Church interment followed in Westview cemetery.

DEATH OF JOHN TEAT

On Sunday, October 16th, the soul of Mr. John Teat who lived near Central took its flight.

The deceased was 60 years of age. He came from Georgia to Pickens county several years ago and settled and made many friends who will be grieved to learn of his death. The deceased was strictly honest in all his dealings.

He had been married twice. His first wife preceded him to the grave several years ago. To this union were born six children, five of whom are living as follows: Will Teat, Ed Teat and Paul Teat of Catechee and Tom Teat and Mrs. Will Rollins of Central. His second wife who was Miss Florence Neal, a daughter of Mr. Sam Neal, survives him.

His remains were interred in the Mt. Tabor cemetery near Central the day following his death, Rev. Mr. Crawford conducting the funeral services.

His wife and children desire to thank their friends who were so kind and attentive during their trying hours.

A Friend.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Roper and a most attractive young lady. To know her is to love her. The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Vess McCall and a splendid young man of bright promise. At present he is principal of Praters school.

NOTICE OF SERVICES TO BE HELD AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

There will be a series of services held at the Pickens Baptist church beginning Sunday morning, Nov. 13 and continuing for some days. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. S. P. Hair, pastor of the First Baptist church of Fountain Inn. These meetings have been under consideration by the church for more than a year, and plans were made to have him here more than a year ago but this is the first time he could be secured. Rev. Mr. Hair is one of the best pastors in the State and has had remarkable success with his church at Fountain Inn. In the less than five years of his stay at Fountain Inn the membership of the church has more than doubled. He has organized a tither's band of about a hundred, has built one of the most up-to-date churches in the up-country with 23 Sunday school rooms in it and has the best Sunday school of any church of its size in any part of the State. Fountain Inn is a town very little larger than Pickens and is one of the most progressive towns in the state.

There will be three services held next Sunday; at 11:00, 3:30 and 7:30. The afternoon service will be in the nature of a mass meeting of the churches of the association and the town. And the hour for the services during the week will be decided and announced at the Sunday services. All the churches of the town and community ought to receive a distinct blessing as a result of the meeting and this is the hope and prayer of the church that is inviting him here. The matters of church efficiency and evangelism will be emphasized. All churches and people are invited to have a part in these services.

EPWORTH LEAGUE SOCIAL

The Epworth League of the Methodist church gave its first monthly social Wednesday night in the form of a Halloween party in the Sunday School room of the church. The room was decorated in chrysanthemums, autumn leaves and pumpkins. There were about thirty five young people present. During the evening music was rendered and games were played. Refreshments of hot chocolate, sandwiches and fudge were served shortly before the guests departed. A good time was proclaimed by all.

BEVERLY QUARRY IS BUSY PLACE

(By Staff Correspondent of Greenville News.)

What is said to be one of the largest granite quarries in the state is operated at Beverly, two miles from Liberty, where every workday in the year nearly 500 tons of crushed stone are shipped to the outside world.

The quarry has been operated for a number of years, possibly for a quarter of a century, but the amount of rock appears to be virtually unlimited. The quarry is of best grade blue granite and is located but a hundred or so yards from the main line of the Southern railway, railway tracks and "dinky" engines making it possible to pull the stone from its resting place and put it onto the waiting cars.

The quarry is operated by the Beverly Stone and Sand company, of which Thomas McCroskey of Knoxville is president. R. S. Campbell is manager and Roy Reynolds is superintendent. Sixty men are employed at the quarry the year round.

Two big blasts are made each year, at that time thousands of tons of rock being blown loose. From 800 to 1,000 "pop" blasts are made daily, these being small blasts for the purpose of splitting the huge pieces of loose stone.

A total of twelve jack hammers are continually digging into the rock pounding it into smaller pieces so that it may be shipped for commercial uses. While the jack hammers pound the small pieces of rock, a gasoline-driven well drill pierces the rock in from twenty to twenty-five places. When these drills have reached a sufficient depth they are filled with dynamite and are set off. These blasts are made but twice a year however.

All of the stone is loaded by a steam shovel. Likewise the drills are operated either by air, steam or gasoline and as in most modern quarries human muscle plays but a small part in the daily operation of the place. Three "dinky" engines are used in handling stone and coal on the side tracks that connect with the main line of the Southern railway. Three steam boilers furnish power for the operation of the quarry.
