

ALONG MARIETTA ROUTE 2

Mr. Editor: I will give you a few facts from this side of old Pickens county.

Our people are on the average a very good people. Of course some few of them will imbibe too freely the much talked of joy water, when they have the opportunity; and this scribe is of the opinion that these opportunities of imbibing the stuff would be no more if we could put an everlasting end to the manufacture of the stuff. Can we do that? Do you say enforce the law? Then why not let's be up and doing to put a stop to this abominable curse to our land.

Mr. Jack M. Looper was painfully kicked by a mule some ten days ago, but, is getting along nicely by now. Mr. Louis E. Morgan, who has been located in Greenville county for the past year or so, has come home and is going to farm next year.

Messrs. L. S. and J. E. Edens, Bar-to Hendricks and W. T. Clarke made a business trip to Easley last Thursday.

Messrs. J. I. Williams, Jam L. Robinson and E. T. Edens killed a pig each this week that weighed near the 500lb. mark.

Mrs. D. E. Looper and Mrs. L. S. Edens visited the Misses Mattie and Maggie Williams of Dacusville route 1, last Wednesday.

Our section of the county is abundantly supplied with rabbits and believe me, Mr. Editor, the boys have killed some of them recently, and there have been several fox races in this vicinity recently, too. So Mr. Editor if you enjoy hunting rabbits or fox, get your gun and dogs and come down and try them a few.

Looker On.
(The editor is too chicken-hearted to enjoy killing rabbits and too slow to catch a fox. Thank you for the invitation, though.—Ed.)

AT MAYNARD SCHOOL

F. M. ROGERS DEAD

F. M. Rogers, a well known and highly respected citizen of the county, died at his home, a few miles from Pickens on November 15. He was a Confederate Veteran, having served during the entire duration of the War Between the States. For 50 years he was a consistent member of Enon Baptist church. Fifty-five years ago he married Miss Matilda Wilson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John Wilson of Central. His widow, three sons and two daughters survive him.

Interment was made at Enon, his old home church, the funeral services being conducted by Pastor B. P. Mitchell, assisted by Rev. T. J. Davis.

LIBERTY PHYSICIAN MOVES TO GREENVILLE.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith recently moved from Liberty to Greenville, where Dr. Smith is employed at the Public Health Service hospital. The doctor has been practicing at Liberty for several years and the people there regret to give him and his wife up, but his health failed some-time ago, as a result of exposure while with the army in France and he was compelled to give up general practice for the less strenuous indoor work.

A FAMILY REUNION

A very enjoyable event of Thanksgiving day was a family reunion held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Robertson. Several relatives of each were there, among them being Mrs. M. H. Bowie, mother of Mrs. Robertson. Present also were quite a number of friends and neighbors, among these being Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Tomason, of Fountain Inn, and Rev. G. E. Crenshaw of Central. The people kept coming until about 11 o'clock at which time they assembled for preaching as were announced. Mr. Tomason made an excellent talk from the sixth verse of the seventh chapter of Job. He was pastor of the Pickens circuit several years ago and we esteemed it a treat to hear him again. A sumptuous dinner was spread and enjoyed by all present. Then followed a few hours of social chat. Time passed fast and one by one we began to leave for our homes, resolving to live better lives and be more thankful to God, our Creator, for the many blessings he bestows upon us, and also be ready for the great reunion in the skies.

One Present.

ENTERTAINED GOVERNORS

We notice by the papers that one of the most brilliant social functions during the recent governors' conference at Charleston was a reception given by Mrs. Ben A. Hagood, at the Hagood home on South Battery, Charleston. Twenty-five governors from states of every section of the Union, many of them accompanied by their wives and secretaries, were present.
