Mr. Hays will quit the cabinet job for one that pays real money.

All men may be born equal but they don't remain that way long.

Nobody can live long without an enemy and a few can live within a mile of one.

There seems to be enough wood in the senate to make most any kind of fire.

Henry Ford has the proper instinct to make Muscle Shoals a strong point.

Johnson's Senate Chair for Sale—deline. Senator Newberry may be created.

So many cars wouldn't turn turtle they would imitate the speed of a turtle.

Any system of government that is not encourage ownership or rents among average citizens is wrong. South Carolina's tax system encourages home ownership.

Who said there's anything in a name. The ship "Crook" brought African soldiers home from Germany, while the "Messenger of peace" hauled liquor from the West dies to the U. S.

Noticing a North Carolina negro with some holly during Christmas inquired if he knew the cause of a few berries on the holly this season. "Yas suh, boss; dem dam boll devil done eat all de berries up."

Why is it that in North Carolina they pronounce Marion "Mary-yan," while in South Carolina they pronounce it "Marry-yan?" And in Arkolia they pronounce Beaufort
"Bow-fort," while us Sandlappers say
"Baw-fort."

Our Weekly Riddle.—If the trifles the four-power treaty Henry Ford gets Muscle Shoals the boll weevil overruns the oat crop fails reenville, what will be the price beat in Oconee if it snows for heat deep in Anderson?

The other day
To have his eyes
Examined.
"I see

Across your nose
That you
Have been wearing
Your glasses
Too tight."
Remarked the Oculist.

THANK YOU, MR. LIGON
The Sentinel's typesetting machine broke down Monday and for a while looked like our subscribers would get a paper this week that wasn't worth any more than the subscription price.

...made us a new one for the machine and it is as good as the factory could furnish to his help we were without the service of the linotype only a few hours, whereas, if we had been compelled to get the necessary repairs from the factory the machine would have been out of use at least two or three days. Mr.
Ligon not only fixed us up immediately and as good as new, but he could not charge us anything for it.
In these strenuous days of profit-seeking, war taxes and high cost of living such an incident is refreshing.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES
If your school is not working for one of The Sentinel's dictionaries, ask the teacher why. It will only take a few hours work for any school

THE NEWS OF THE SOUTH

What is Taking Place in The Southland Will Be Found in Brief Paragraphs

Foreign—

The French chamber of deputies recently gave Premier Poincare a vote of confidence, 472 to 107.

Influenza, according to dispatches from Paris, is becoming an epidemic all over France. Recently twenty-four deaths were reported in one day in Paris.

Frontier Migration of Iceland, who has been on a visit to London, has gone back home—to get warm. He says that it is ten degrees warmer in Reik-javik than in London.

Enver Pasha, former Turkish minister of war, who fled from Turkey very shortly after the close of the war, has been captured in the Caucasus and has been handed over to the Turkish Nationalist government at Angora.

Chile has accepted an invitation from the United States government to designate a plenipotentiary at Washington to study the form of execution of the treaty of Ancon under which the Tac-na-Amica dispute between Peru and Chile arose.

Premier Lenine will represent Soviet Russia at the coming Genoa economic conference on the condition that the Russian secret service be permitted to organize a system to guard him safely during his absence from the Soviet capital.

The British cabinet is said to be definitely opposed to any alterations in the draft of the proposed Anglo-French alliance. The cabinet is particularly unfavorable to the French suggestion that the treaty should contain specific provisions regarding the extent of Great Britain's co-operation in the event of aggression.

Washington—

Statistics showing the actual bale weight of cotton ginned during the last season have been transmitted to the senate by Secretary Hoover in response to a resolution by Senator Smith (Dem.) of South Carolina.

Figures showing the growth in federal bonded warehouses during the year ending June 30, 1921, are as follows: Total bonded capacity, 1,000,000 bales; actual capacity, 800,000 bales; actual storage, 700,000 bales.

Republicans, in party conference recently approved the allied debt bill, with the addition of a provision that the interest rate on the bonds should be less than that paid on the Liberty bonds and nationals. The Washington school teacher went to the American exposed a senate investigation. He told that he had witnessed the an American soldier by a near the Chateau Thierry region in 1918.

Invitation for the United States to participate in the economic and financial conference at Genoa was received at the state department recently from Ambassador Ricci, of Italy.
A provisional agreement was reached between railway executives and headquarters of the American four railway brotherhoods at the instance of Secretary Hoover, to submit wage and working conditions affecting train service to regional conferences if possible, without consideration of the railway labor board presentation of testimony to the senate committee on charges that American railroad executives had been hanged without trial in France, showed that on the bodies of two men dug up in the little cemetery at Bazailles, the ropes and black caps in which they were put to death prior to the war.

American policy concerning the open door in China, his statement, it was said, being based on a note he sent as secretary of state to Alfred Sze, Chinese minister.

The German government has notified the American government that Alanson B. Houghton, now member of the house from New York, will be accepted as ambassador and the name of Mr. Houghton will be sent to the senate soon.

Senate Republicans have voted in party conference to press the allied debt refunding bill and a soldiers' bonus bill, in that order. There was a disagreement as to details of the two measures, and the conference adjourned to continue its discussions at a later date.

Retention by the war department of nine main training centers, one in each corps area, and of a number of other special camps, has been recommended by General Pershing, chief of staff, at a hearing before the house military committee.

The nomination of Henry P. Fletcher, under-secretary of state, to be ambassador to Belgium, was confirmed by the senate, together with that of William J. O'Toole, of West Virginia, to be minister to Paraguay.

A combination of French, Japanese, and, finally, British opposition to article four of the Hughes "open-door" doctrine for China, has resulted in the quiet death of that article.

The five-power treaty for limitation of naval armaments has undergone further changes in the course of a final overhauling by experts, and it now is complete except for the article establishing a fortifications status quo in the Pacific.

Japan's right to the former German cables in the Kia-Chow leasehold, the Chefoo-Tsin Otao and the Tsingtao-Shanghai lines were renounced by the Japanese delegates to the Washington conference recently at a meeting with the Chinese delegation on the question of Shantung.

Warning of an impending general strike in the country's coal industry was given by Secretary Hoover, who declared that the public should know what to expect when the national agreements covering the wages and working conditions of miners expire April 1.

With a total of $108,297,590 in excess of the appropriations for the same offices for the current fiscal year, the annual independent offices appropriation bill carrying $494,304,238 was reported by the house appropriations committee. The amount recommended in the bill, however, is $9,529,475 less than the amount requested in budget bureau estimates.

Domestic—

Will H. Hays will become directing head of the new National Association of Motion Picture Producers and Distributors "immediately after March 4," it was announced recently at a dinner at which the postmaster general was the guest of a group of motion picture officials in New York. Mr. Hays' formal resignation from President Harding's cabinet will be presented soon, it was said.

After an all-day investigation, federal officials at Mobile, Ala., probing into liquor smuggling on the Gulf coast, announce that the probe will continue several days. Nine arrests have been made, six on the Gulf coast and three in Mobile. The investigation of liquor smuggling will extend from Miami to Mobile.

Beautiful, temperamental Geraldine Farrar has put it up to New York to guess why she has suddenly announced her abdication of the queen privileges and prerogatives which she enjoyed throughout the fifteen years of her stardom with the Metropolitan Opera company. Next year Miss Farrar will, in the patter of the vaudeville, "hit the grit" as a lone trouper, in a concert tour which may earn her a quarter of a million dollars.

President Harding, it is learned in Newark, N. J., has commuted the prison term imposed upon Frank H. Noble, one of the group of men sentenced by a federal judge in New York for violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

A good, warm cell in a penitentiary is preferable to liberty these zero days in Utah, according to Jim Wilson, alias Martin, an escaped convict from the south. Martin walked into the office of Police Burbridge at Salt Lake City, Utah, and asked to be taken to the North Carolina state penitentiary trying Arthur C. Burch, at San Diego, Cal., for the murder of Kennedy reported itself unsatisfied on a verdict recently and charged.

Earthshocks were felt in sections of Los Angeles, Cal., shattering window glass in apartments and shaking frame

Russell sailed on the steamship Washington, from New York, determined to get at the heart of the American immigration question.

Efforts to reach an agreement on road wage question, the management of the Nashville, Chattanooga and Louisville railway and the Order of Railway Telegraphers will submit their proposals to the railway board for final action, it was announced recently by W. P. Bruce, general manager of the road at Nashville.

Reports that a large store in Chicago had opened a window display of living and unclad reproductions of the Trojan Venus and Cleopatra, the chief points of interest, were refuted, and a police sergeant and five other men rushed forward. "Come on, men, we still were staring in the window.
The figures are just wax figures, but way back in the rear of the window that was the sure did look real."

Daniel G. Buntin, 47, of Nashville, Tenn., real estate operator, at Nashville and in Chicago, shot and killed himself recently at his home in West End, the act being attributed to ill-health.

Oxfords for Spring and Summer 1922

For men, ladies, misses, children and boys, at much lower prices. Last spring we missed hundreds on Oxfords by not getting them early in the season. This season however we in December, and the entire line is now ready for your inspection. Prices are quality is better.

Our line of ladies' medium priced Oxfords start at $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, up to $5.00, in Brown and Black Patents, and Gun Metals, all with rubber heels.

Children's and Misses' Oxfords at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, up to $4.00.

Men's Oxfords medium priced, all with rubber heels, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00.

WALK-OVERS FOR MEN AND WOMEN.
Last season we couldn't get them. This season they are here, and our sales on them have already star-Walk-Overs for ladies in latest styles, and all the wanted leathers at $6.50, $7.00, $7.50 up to $8.50. W Overs for men at $7.00, $7.50, $8.00, $8.50 up to $10.00.

NONE BETTER THAN WALK-OVER—FEW AS GOOD.
Just received another shipment of men's, boys' and women's heavy work shoes, with another slight reduction in price.

We are buying often, and in small quantities, thereby getting advantage of every drop in price.

DON'T GET CAUGHT AT SOME SALES AND PAY HIGH PRICES FOR OLD GOODS, WHEN YOU CAN BUY NEW GOODS FOR LESS MONEY.

High prices, we hope, are a thing of the past.
