D. A. R. MEETING

Interesting Historical Study—Next Meeting to Be In Liberty.

The Fort Prince George Chapter D. A. R. had a most enjoyable meeting on Tuesday afternoon of last week at the beautiful new home of Mrs. I. Cox. Mrs. Cox was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Mrs. Paden Woodruff, and by her niece, Mrs. A. J. Boggs, Jr. The social feature which is always a part of these meetings was never more enjoyed. The business session showed the affairs of the chapter in a most satisfactory condition.

The historical study proved of great interest. A most excellent paper, "South Carolina's Navy 1775-1782," by Mrs. Douglas Yongue, showed great study and research in its preparation, and another paper on "The Capitals of South Carolina," by Mrs. Wayne Mauldin, was most enjoyable.

The next meeting of this organization will be held in Liberty.
