STRENGTH-VITALITY-HAPPINESS.

A Message to People in Poor Health Who Want to be Well.

If you are in poor health merely from a general run-down condition, get some Gude's Pepto-Mangan of your druggist and take it with your meals for a few weeks or until you feel right again. Pepto-Mangan is a wonderful tonic and blood-builder and is very pleasant to take. It does not act like a miracle. Its effects are gradual, but real and sure. It contains iron in a form easily digested and absorbed by the system. For thirty years Gude's Pepto-Mangan has been used by physicians as a tonic for run-down people. Don't continue to be weak, nervous, and headachy—take Gude's Pepto-Mangan and restore your good health. Thousands have been helped back to health by it—you can be benefited if you will accept this truth.

Sold in both liquid and tablet form.

U. D. C. MEETING.

One of the most pleasant meetings of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held on last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. J. Mauldin. These meetings seem to be growing in the matter of interest and enthusiasm and this one was certainly no exception to the general rule. The roll call was answered by current events.

The historian asked that each one get all war records of Confederate soldiers possible and file them in Columbia. She also reported that our relic room in the court house was open for inspection at any time. One thing in particular which the U. D. C. has there is an old loom, donated by Capt. Jas. A. Griffin. The Daughters expect to have a piece of cloth in weaving by the third of June, and hope to have the old wheel also in operation.

Articles which attracted much attention for this room were a tidy knit by Mrs. John C. Calhoun, the thread being spun by Mrs. Aaron Boggs, and a pair of trousers given by Mrs. C. E. Robinson which were worn by her grandfather Isaiah Cox, Esq., who was born in 1790. The cloth of which they were made was woven by his wife Nancy Cox and they were made by his daughter Hannah Cox in the 50's.

Mrs. Mauldin exhibited a small hymn book found on the battle field at Chancellorsville by Veteran McAlexander which also goes in the relic room.

Mrs. Vesta McFall and Mrs. Smith were delegates appointed to attend the Piedmont district convention at Clemson 28th and 29th. All others are urged to go who possibly can.

Plans were discussed for Memorial day, May 10th.

Next was a debate—Resolved, that the responsibility for Community Welfare rests upon the Women. Affirmative, Mrs. Wayne Mauldin and Mrs. M. C. Smith; negative, Mrs. Gary Hiott and Mrs. J. J. Lewis. The judges were Mrs. Ida Smith, Mrs. Earl Russell and Mrs. Will Haggood of Easley. After much good-natured argument and fun it was decided that the negative side won.

Miss Frances Bruce, who was joint hostess, assisted Mrs. Mauldin in serving refreshing sherbet and cake during the pleasant social half-hour.

MRS. ALICE BRUCKE DEAD.

A gloom was cast over our community Monday, April 3, when it became known that Mrs. Alice Brucke, wife of Mr. Henry Brucke of the Gap Hill section, had passed to the great beyond. Mrs. Brucke had been in declining health several months but it was not realized that the end was so near until late Monday afternoon when she called members of her family to the bedside and told them that she was dying and for them to meet her in a better world.

We dare not ask why she was taken from us in the prime of motherhood when her life could have been so useful to her children and the ones she loved, unless as flowers are plucked before the frost finds them that we may not witness their decay.

Mrs. Brucke lived a consecrated Christian life, having joined the Baptist church in early girlhood, and died a triumphant death. She was about 43 years of age. She was a loving and devoted wife and mother and a dear neighbor and faithful friend. To know her was to love her.

Before marriage she was Miss Alice Roberts and her mother is still living. She is also survived by a husband and the following children: Grace, Lois, Alcen, Edith, Julia and Clara.

The body was laid to rest in the Gap Hill cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, the funeral being conducted by Rev. Mr. Atkinson, A Friend.

NEWS FROM CROW CREEK

The people of this section who attended the field day at Pickens were very much delighted with the events of the day, especially Mr. Swearingen's address which was well worth listening to.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barker of Stamp Creek visited at the home of Mr. Louie Alexander last Sunday.

There was a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. John Galloway on April 9. Everybody present reported a nice time.

Mr. D. F. Alexander got his hand painfully hurt last Saturday while hauling rocks on his farm.

The officers made a successful raid in this section a night or two ago when they caught about four of the moonshine boys, and I heard they captured a bogus. Each of the men gave bond and adjourned to meet again in Pickens at the next term of court.
