

Locals and Personals

Miss Louise Hutchings is visiting in Greenville.

Rev. J. E. Foster is conducting a revival this week at Pleasant Grove.

Mrs. W. S. Donaldson, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her friend, Mrs. A. J. Boggs, Jr.

Mr. W. C. Newton had his tonsils removed last week by Dr. Carpenter of Greenville.

Miss Floride Carey, who works in Atlanta, is spending a month with her parents here.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Wardlaw of Greenville were visitors in our town last Sunday.

Everybody is pleased with the good work being done on our town cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McKagen are now living in the old Richey home near the depot.

Mrs. C. T. Milholland and two children are with her sister, Mrs. Guy McFall for several days.

Mr. Palmer from Florence is a guest in the home of Mrs. Vesta McFall.

Mr. and Mrs. Douan from Washington, D. C., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Folger.

The free tuberculosis clinic at Easley last week was largely attended and much good accomplished.

Mr. J. D. Ellenburg of Liberty route 3 was at the county seat on business Tuesday.

Prof. McD. Weems will begin a twelve-day singing school at Antioch church August 28. Everybody invited to take advantage of the school.

Mrs. M. F. Hester left Tuesday morning for Atlanta to be at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Stallings, who is seriously sick with blood poisoning.

Squire Porter says conditions on his farm above Pickens are in an awful fix. Not only is the boll weevil in his cotton, but his corn is "over-shot," whatever that is.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Thursday afternoon, at five o'clock with Mrs. R. E. Lewis. The program will be "Child Welfare."

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ligon and baby, of Boston, Mass., have returned home after a month's visit to his brother, Mr. T. T. Ligon, and other relatives in this section. Mr. Ligon is a submarine builder for Uncle Sam.

Mr. Lige Chastain has completed his new dwelling house on the same site as his former home. The new dwelling is one of the handsomest and most convenient in the upper part of the country.

B. J. Tucker, who has been with the Keowee Pharmacy for quite a while, has resigned and been succeeded by the old reliable Greg T. Mauldin who will be pleased to have his friends call in and see him any time.

Work on the school house is being rapidly pushed and the sound of the hammer is heard early and late. This will be a much needed improvement and will add a great deal to our town and community.

Prof. T. H. Campbell, who taught the school here several years ago, was in town for a day and night last week. He now makes his home in the "Land of the Flowers," but at the present he is visiting relatives at Pendleton.

Supt. F. V. Clayton informs us that he has recently had a hearing from the teachers examination which was held last spring. Of those examined three got first grade certificates, nine got second grade and twenty-five got third grade.

Rev. H. F. Wright of Sunset has returned home from Oconee county, where he assisted Rev. C. R. Abercrombie in a meeting at Bethlehem church. Mr. Wright states that they had a good meeting with twenty-four additions to the church.

While traveling in the upper section of the county one day last week, Mr. Mack Stewart spied a big rattle snake near Meese's lumber mill and proceeded to dispatch the gentleman. He brought the dead snake to Pickens to have it worked on by a taxidermist. The snake measured about four feet in length and had seven rattles.

"In Old Kentucky" will be shown at the Alexander Theatre, Friday and Saturday. Anita Stewart and all star cast are in this great picture, which has satisfied more people than any feature picture produced. This picture is packed with thrills and heart interest and a fine love story. Seven big reels of an intensely interesting production!

Mr. Louie Morris, of Hartwell, Ga., accompanied by his wife, is spending a few days in Pickens with the family of his uncle, Mr. A. M. Morris. Mr. Morris is editor of the Hartwell Sun, one of the best and most prosperous weekly newspapers in Georgia. This is his first visit to Pickens, but he states that it will not be his last, as he was greatly impressed and pleased with Pickens and surrounding country.

The League of Women Voters held an interesting meeting at the court house last Thursday afternoon. After some discussion of women in politics they got down to the real business of this organization, which is to foster an interest in civic and school work. A civic committee was appointed and will begin work by improving the cemetery. The committee of ladies who were appointed by the town council for this purpose last year will be asked to cooperate with them.

Mrs. F. E. Armstrong entertained beautifully last week when she was hostess to the Thursday afternoon Bridge club. Lovely pink roses were used for decoration and tables were set for the following: Mesdames Mae Christopher, G. G. Christopher, P. E. Woodruff, J. C. Carey, J. P. Carey, Jr., B. A. Hazood, H. A. LaBoon, F. V. Clayton, J. H. Bruce, O. C. Fogus, H. L. Bivens, Misses Emily Thornley and Mary Green. Mrs. H. L. Bivens made the highest score.

Messrs. Earl Seaborn and Diamond Darsey made a combined business and pleasure trip to Knoxville, Tenn., last week. They went in a Ford and Earl claims to have made the 241 miles from Pickens to Knoxville in eleven hours. While in the Tennessee city they went to see a ball game between Knoxville and Greenville teams of the Appalachian league, the former winning 3 to 0. Coley Seaborn is playing with Knoxville and in this game he knocked a home run. Coley is playing right field and batting in the cleanup position.

It seems to us that it would be impossible for a person to take a trip to Oolenoy from Pickens and not enjoy it and have his heart filled with gratitude to our Maker for giving us such a country. All the way, starting with Mr. Jeff Helder's bottoms, the corn is great. The stalks are a rich dark green color. Mr. Frank Hendricks has eight acres that is splendid. Mr. Smith has a sign up by the roadside reading, "Stop Look at the Corn". This is the condition to the Oolenoy and then it would take a sure enough agriculturist to describe this.

LOCAL HISTORY MEETING

While it is "late in the day" to write of it we can not afford to pass by "Local History Day" without mention.

It was held here a week ago and a report of it should have been in last week's paper. The U. D. C. chapter planned it for the benefit of the young people. A large crowd was present. Miss Nan Newton presided at the piano, accompanied by Miss Knight's orchestra. The audience joined the choir in the sweet, old melodies of by-gone days. Hon. James P. Carey, Sr., delivered an address on the history of Pickens county from the days of 1880 up to the present. He told of the old residents living in Pickens then—the Leslies, Childs, Thompsons, McFalls, Alexanders, Folgers, Ashmores and others, not forgetting "Uncle" Mike Kenmore. His words brought back the scenes of other days very vividly. He dwelt with particular pathos on the old school house where he taught, telling about how he managed the seventy-five who were under him and him alone. How they went early and stayed late and "toed" the mark all the time. At that school they got the foundation well laid upon which they might build lasting structures. This house still stands back of where Mr. Hamp Craig now lives. It is to be regretted that the whole country-side did not hear Mr. Carey's speech.

MID SUMMER SUGGESTIONS

As the summer season advances we all hesitate to buy expensive things that we will only be able to use for a short time, and then put it aside for another season. To help our customers out in getting such articles as they want we are making special prices on voils, organdies and any dress goods.

LADIES AND MISSES OGFORDS AND PUMPS.

We are certainly adding to our bargain Shoe counter and you will appreciate the real money saving purchases that you can make from our shoe counter.

REMNA NTS

We also have a large table of remnants from which you can select material for a waist, skirt or dress and at a bargain. Don't forget to see the remnant table.

Our stock of ready to wear is large and complete and it is our aim to keep your wants and at reasonable prices.

No Guess Work When We Fill Your Prescription

The doctor don't want guess work and you don't want guess work. If your child brings a bottle to our store that's been filled at another store we will send it where it was filled first—we won't guess at it and fill the bottle with some kind of junk.

Fifteen years in the drug business has taught us that medicine is not made to be played with.

Bring us your prescriptions and be safe.
